

FAIL TO LAUD OREGON PLAN

Believed Today That Effects to Praise Plan by Resolution of Legislature Will Fall Through—Resolution Conflict.

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 1.—It is generally believed today that efforts to laud the Oregon system of government by resolutions of the legislature are done for the session following the knockout blows delivered by the senate to the Abraham and the Albee resolutions. Albee's resolution would have given endorsement to the Oregon system of the government while the Abraham called upon United States senators Jonathan Bourne and Chamberlain to specially urge the proposed amendment to the constitution providing for the direct election of United States senators.

When Albee's resolution came up for discussion Abraham was one of the principal opponents of it. He said the resolution was put for political reason, "a game of politics is being played here." When I am not attempting to criticize the laws which constitute the Oregon system, but I do criticize the system of playing the system which is obnoxious to the majority party. It is not a system of laws, but a system of politics in playing those laws. I wish I could paste the whole system on the wall that everyone could see the hypocrisy behind it."

Albee then denounced Senator Bourne whom he charged with playing the part of "traitor to the republican party in Oregon." He then attacked the initiative declaring that it was "vicious" and ended by the declaration that the Oregon system of government is behind that of New York "regardless of the fact that we believe the government of New York to be vicious, vile and corrupt."

The speech created a sensation.

CENTENARY OF PIONEER TO BE OBSERVED SOON

It may not be generally known that the year 1911 is the one hundredth anniversary of one of Oregon's noblest pioneers Jesse Applegate. The Department of History at the University is preparing to take proper notice of the anniversary.

Mr. Applegate came to Oregon from Missouri, in company with his two older brothers, Charles and Lindsey, in 1843, settling in what was then Yamhill county, but now Polk county. He died at Yoncalla, in Douglas county, where he had resided most of the time since 1849, in the year 1888. He is noteworthy as one of the ablest men Oregon has ever had, and as a disinterested, public spirited citizen, whose influence upon public affairs was frequently very great.

Recent researches in the manuscript archives at Salem have shown that Applegate was the real founder of the reorganized provisional government adopted in 1845, that he drew most of the important laws passed by the Legislative Committee of that year, as well as the memorial to the United States Congress, and that he was instrumental in persuading the Hudson's Bay Company to take shelter under the provisional government. Some of the documents revealing his agency in these significant matters have recently been unearthed in the Public Record Office of Great Britain, at London, by a professor of the University.

Personally Selected Meat

We are as careful to select the meat that we offer for sale as any woman is when she is selecting a gown. It must be in just the right condition to offer to our trade or we do not buy it. We will never allow just any old meat to come into this shop, and our customers are as sure to get good meat as they are sure that we are running a shop. We could buy inferior meats—kill anything offered, and many times sell for a little less, but we don't do it. We believe in selling only the best—believe that this is the only fair and square thing to do, and consequently we spend a lot of time looking after the purchasing of the stock to be sure that we are getting what will exactly suit our customers. If you are a steady customer of this shop you are getting the best that money and long experience can buy—the best that can be bought anywhere on earth. Just order from this shop and see if you are not a little better pleased than you have ever been before.

Pure Food

When you buy groceries at this store you are sure that everything you buy is pure. There are lots of ways to adulterate even in these days of pure food laws, but you who know us know that we would not offer for sale a single article that was the least bit wrong.

Square Dealing Means

giving to our customers full weight—pure goods—perfect stock in every line—and everything at the right price. We sell everything for a small average profit. We don't sell one thing for less, then make it up on something else.
