Sullivan & Stauson, the well known druggists of Utica, N. Y., have been selling Orrine for a number of years. Read what they say: "During the past five or six years we've sold practically all the different cures for the liquor habit on the market. We've never yet found one that gave the entire satisfaction which ORRINE has given. We have several cases that have come to our attention where excellent results have been obtained by the use of ORRINE. We are so convinced of its merits that we unhesitatingly recommend and guarantee it in all cases of the "Liquor Habit." ORRINE is prepared in two forms. No. 1, secret treatment, a powder, absolute tasteless and odorless, given secretly in food or drink. ORRINE No. 2, in pill form, is for those who desire to take voluntary treatment. MANN BLOCKING PETS OF TAFT

Starts Filibuster in House Against Omnibus Clause Bill in Order to Force Extra Session of Congress.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 18.—With the reported intention of forcing some of President Taft's pet measures to an extra session of congress. Representative Mann today continued his filibuster in the house against the omnibus clause bill.
 When today's session got down to business, Representative Sims of Tennessee moved that the claims bill be considered. Supporting Mann's fight, Representative Foss of Illinois moved as a substitute that the naval appropriation bill be taken up. Foss was defeated by 138 to 108.
 Mann then took up his fight and filibuster and the clerks were forced to read the 138 pages of the omnibus bill. Whenever the floor was cleared, Mann suggested the absence of a quorum and the resultant roll calls paralyzed the business of the house.
 That the standpat crowd were solidly behind Mann's filibuster became evident this afternoon. Representative Fassett, a consistent Cannonite, said: "An extra session is inevitable."
 Representative Tanney concurred in this opinion. "I predicted last December," he said, "that there would be either an extra session or that business would be transacted in an improper manner as a result of the new insurgent rules. Everything points to a consummation of that prophecy."

TO PLANT LOG OVER LAND INTO ORCHARD

PORTLAND, Feb. 18.—Reclamation of vast areas of the Pacific northwest now covered with stumps seems certain to result from the movement launched this week at the Southwest Washington Development association convention at Vancouver when plans were outlined for clearing the cut-over lands and turning this immense idle acreage into fertile farms.
 N. B. Coffman, member of the executive committee of the association, and one of the most substantial citizens of the state, was active in mapping out the preliminary steps in this development. He advocated the pooling of large logged-off areas and the organization of a big company, with a capital stock running into the millions, to develop the lands and place them on the market.
 Mr. Coffman is of the opinion that the logged-over tracts should be cut into small farms where intensive farming methods can be applied and the best results secured. The lands to be utilized are of the most fertile character, with great depth and strength of soil.
 It was proposed by the speaker that payments on the small farms be made so easy for the buyers that the burden would not be felt seriously. In this way it is believed that the small farm on logged-off land can be made profitable and popular.
 Mr. Coffman proposed that money
