EXCURSION HERE FROM TACOMA

Crowd Welcomes Special Train En Route to California—Speeches Made and Cheers Exchanged—Apples Presented by Commercial Club

A large crowd welcomed the Tacoma excursion to California Sunday noon. Secretary C. A. Malboeuf of the Commercial club welcomed the travelers in a brief speech, which was responded to by the Tacoma visitors. Cheers for Tacoma and Medford were exchanged and apples given the visitors. "Two years ago Medford boosters boosting for Medford out-boasted Seattle," said L. W. McDowell, manager of publicity for the Aberdeen (Wash.) chamber of commerce, and city editor of the Aberdeen World, who was in Medford yesterday with the Tacoma-Southwestern Washington excursion to California. Mr. McDowell recalled the hospitality of Medford two years ago when the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition excursion passed through Medford. At that time McDowell was press agent for the exposition, but declared today Medford took the cake and carried away the honors. Tacoma business men and those from the southwest are going to California to assure the business men of the friendly feeling of Washington for California," continued Mr. McDowell. "In our party we have A. J. Summers, secretary of the Tacoma chamber of commerce and L. H. Barnett, director of the Aberdeen chamber."

MAX DILL TO PLAY "IN LONESOME TOWN"

At the Medford theatre, on Wednesday, February 22, Max Dill, formerly of the team of Kolb and Dill will be seen in his most successful musical comedy triumph, "Lonesome Town." His engagement is limited to one night only. No comedian of Teutonic persuasion on the American stage today has the following possessed by Dill. By the majority of critics he has been acclaimed the greatest portrayer of German musical comedy roles. His style is essentially distinctive. He is hilariously funny through the use of quiet, repressive methods. His accent is delicious and unexaggerated, his short, choppy gestures bring a laugh by their admirably stimulated awkwardness; his famous goo-goo-eyes are wonderfully expressive.

Medford, Or., Feb. 6, 1911.—This is to certify that about November 1st my daughter was taken with a severe attack of rheumatism which rendered her left arm useless, in fact it was so near paralyzed that she was not able to move her fingers, but knowing of some of Dr. Chow Young's marvelous cures of long standing cases of rheumatism, we decided to consult him, in which I am pleased to say made no mistake, as his remedies acted as he claimed they would, and after the third treatment the rheumatic pain entirely left her and she has not had any symptoms of rheumatism since; besides her general health is much improved and I do not hesitate in saying I believe those afflicted with rheumatism or paralysis will do well to consult Dr. Chow Young, whose house is corner Tenth and Front street, Medford, Oregon.
