CAPTURED AFTER LONG CHASE AROUND WORLD

PORTLAND, Or., Feb. 25.—After a world-wide hunt which has been under way since 1891, Burdette Wolf, who shot and killed his sweetheart, Bertha Morton, has been located in Calcutta, India, and will be brought back to Portland for trial for murder, according to District Attorney Cameron this afternoon.

Wolf was a law student and was prominent socially. He shot the girl because her parents had influenced her to reject him, it is said.

Wolf sailed for South America within four hours after her death on a vessel owned by a relative. He was traced to Australia, Hongkong, Japan and finally to India.

DELAY EXTRA SESSION 30 DAY INTERVENTION

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 25.—President Taft today considered a suggestion made by Congressman Champ Clark and Oscar W. Underwood that thirty days be allowed to intervene between the end of this congress and the convening of an extra session, and it is probable that if one is called it will meet April 3. Clark and Underwood pointed out that a certain amount of time must be given to organization, either before or after the session convenes.

WESTERN RAILROADS MEET NEXT WEEK

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 25.—Executives and attorneys for the western railroads are expected to meet here next week to decide upon their action regarding the inter-state commerce commission's decision. All indications are that it will be accepted without a fight. In order to appeal the case the roads must decline to withdraw their tariffs, thus forcing the commission to formally fix the present rates as those to be enforced for two years.

PRIZE FIGHTS STOP MEETINGS OF COUNSEL

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 25.—"Unless the council stops its practice of adjourning before it has completed its business to hurry to prize fights, I'm going to stop the fights. I'm not opposed to the fight game, but I will not stand for it interfering with city business."

This ultimatum, delivered by Mayor Brown, today, was prompted by the councilmen adjourning to witness a prize fight before, according to the mayor, they had half completed their work.
