

WEEK'S HAPPENINGS IN MEDFORD SOCIAL CIRCLES

Charming Additions to Medford's Social Set

MISS ETHEL BOYD (ON THE RIGHT), AND MISS RUTH BOYD, DAUGHTERS OF MRS. FRANK H. RAY, WHO HAVE RETURNED FROM NEW YORK TO SPEND THE SUMMER AT GOLD RAY

The Ladies Aid Society of First M. E. church met in weekly session Wednesday afternoon, thirty-eight in attendance. The scene presented reminded one of an old fashioned sewing bee with its social chat, good humor and busy fingers. Owing to her removal to the county and consequent inability to attend the meeting regularly, Mrs. J. H. Carlin tendered her resignation as vice president to the society, which was accepted and Mrs. Steep elected to the office. The business of the society has grown to the extent that three vice presidents are necessary to take charge of the various departments of work and these will soon be installed and duly assigned. On next Wednesday, March 22nd there will be an all day session in the basement of the church. Lunch will be furnished by the ladies, each lady bringing her own and sufficient for her own invited guests. All are earnestly requested to come early and each committee be on hand ready for the final preparations for the Easter sale which will take place on Wednesday, April 5th. There is much to be done and the assistance of all is needed to make it a success. All having aprons, bags, fancy work for the sale. Please report next Wednesday so that each department can know just what is needed. All who were absent on Wednesday missed a treat in the beautiful lesson led by Mrs. Hines in which the appropriate grace of charity performance in taught and all seemed to feel the impress of the divine spirit. After which the society adjourned feeling it was good to have been there.

Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Orr entertained most delightfully Wednesday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. Gill, who left for her home in Winnipeg, last week.

The scheme of decoration was in green and white, in honor of St. Patrick's day, and even to the smallest detail the same idea was carried out. To further carry out the scheme, Mrs. Davis was daintily gowned in green and Mrs. Orr in white. Green and white carnations were used for decoration, and in the dainty refreshments which were served the sandwiches were cut in the shape of shamrocks, the salad was in shamrock shape and each guest had a shamrock in her ice cream.

Five hundred was played and the first prize was won by Mrs. Purdin, a handsome cut glass dish; the second by Mrs. McGowan, an olive fork. Miss Weeks won the booby, a small wash boiler.

The guests were: Mesdames Gill, Ralph Woodford, Nicholson, Butler, Lumsden, Watt, Hargrave, Antle, Honck, Purdin, O'Brien, Shearer, Elwood, Ed Trowbridge, Platt, Holmes, McGowan, Kidd, John Butler, Goble, York, Perry, Hamilton, Barneburg, Pottenger, Misses Snedcor, Weeks and Haskins.

An informal reception was given to the students of the Medford Conservatory last Thursday afternoon at the Natatorium vocal and instrumental numbers were rendered by some of the pupils, but no regular program was arranged in advance. The object of the reception was to bring the students together socially, to get acquainted and to get used to sing or play before others without special preparation. The following students took part in the program: Mrs. Etta Bates, Miss Isabelle Phipps, Mr. Wm. Vawter, Miss Edna Eifert, Miss Queen Perl, Mr. N. P. Watson, Miss Elizabeth Fueselman, Miss Clare Manning, Mrs. Banker, Mrs. Crawford, Miss Dorothy Stewart, Miss Joan Anderson, Miss Mary Olsson, Miss Geraldine Mitsche, Miss Effie Phipps.

The second term of the conservatory which will close this week, has shown a remarkable growth in the enrollment of students in all departments. The next term will begin March 27th.

Mrs. Ed Trowbridge and Mrs. O'Brien were hostesses at a very pretty party given at the home of Mrs. Trowbridge Tuesday afternoon. The affair was in honor of Mrs. Gill of Winnipeg. Pink carnations and ferns were used in abundance for decoration. The afternoon was spent playing 500, Mrs. Honck winning first prize, a handsome cut glass nappy; Miss Fanny Haskins second, a pretty vase, and Mrs. Elwood carried off a finger bowl as consolation. Delicious refreshments were served. The guests were Mesdames Gill, Antle, Honck, Perry, Scott Davis, Purdin, Pardue, Nicholson, Hatcher, Dolin, Fabric, McGowan, Hargrave, Ehearer, Barneburg, Orr, George Davis, Pottenger, Cannon, Kentner, Holmes, Morrison, Ben Trowbridge, Ray, Elwood, Goble, Gaddis, Howard, Platt, Foster, Kidd, Butler, Honck, Hamilton, Haskins, Watt, Misses Haskins Weeks and Naylor.

Mrs. Walter Rau was a most charming hostess Thursday afternoon when she entertained the Monday Bridge club. Spring flowers were used for decoration in the rooms and the pretty home was most attractive. After the gam delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Conro Fiero won the club prize, a pretty bar pin, and Mrs. Evan Reames the guests' prize, a violet bowl. The club members present were Mesdames Hafer, Stokes, Chas. Brown, Dunlop, Fiero, Carpenter, Perkins, Hanley, Tomline, Boynton & Lux. The other guests were Mesdames Evan Reames Mungler of Portland, E. B. Davis, Munday, Holmes, Dunlop, Vawter, Hollis & Miss Putnam.

Miss Harriet Cox of Port Huron Mich., has taken charge of the commercial department at the high school. Miss Cox comes here from Aberdeen, Wash., where she held a similar position.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church met in the reading rooms Tuesday afternoon. Mesdames Loomis and Goodale were the hostesses. The afternoon was spent in sewing for the Easter sale, and about 25 ladies were present.

Mesdames Black, Wilson and Green will entertain this week. As there are daily services this week at the church, it is arranged for the members to attend service first and the aid afterwards.

Dr. McVeigh of Portland will hold revival services at the Presbyterian church this week every afternoon and evening, and most of the church societies, including the F. I. L., have postponed their meetings for this week. Dr. McVeigh will occupy the pulpit Sunday morning.

In honor of Mrs. Archer, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Dudley, Mrs. Charles Lux entertained Tuesday. Each guest brought her sewing and the time was spent in cards and sewing. The invited guests were: Mesdames Archer, Dudley, Rau, Stokes, Charles Brown, Hafer and Perkins.

Miss Snedcor entertained Monday evening at 500. The honor guest was Mrs. Gill of Winnipeg. Miss Harriet Cox won first prize and Mrs. H. Howard the consolation. The guests were Mesdames Gill, Platt, H. Howard, McGowan, Hargrave, Corizzi, Dixon, Perry, Leon Haskins, Barneburg, Scott Davis, Misses Weeks, Lou Porter, Haskins, Banks and Cox.

The Wednesday Study club meets with Mrs. Mandy this week, Mrs. Worrell assisting. Following is the program: "Mark Twain and Innocence Abroad," Miss Lerowe of Portland (one of the innocents) rendered Mrs. Cannon; selection, "Innocence Abroad," Mrs. Shields; selection, "Tom Sawyer," Mrs. Gale.

The Question club met with Miss Fern Jerome Friday. The evening was spent in sewing and music, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were, Misses Louie Tyson, Torain, Bilton, Agnes Isaacs, Gerig, Opal Daley, Bertha Brandenburg, Flora Welch.

A most elaborate dinner was given at the Nash grill Wednesday evening by the Misses Grace and Blanche Cox in honor of their guest, Mrs. Snyder of York, Neb. Pink and white carnations were used for decoration. The guests were Mrs. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Boynton, Mr. and Mrs. Tomlin, Mr. and Mrs. Weltz and Miss Tomlin.

Mrs. W. W. Harmon, who has been confined to her room for the past three months with a broken leg, expects to be able to start for San Francisco next week to visit relatives.

Mr. Andrew W. Johnston of "Bonnie View" orchard was given quite a surprise last week, when several of his neighbors came in and plowed his 10-acre orchard for him.

Mr. Johnston was injured that August, by a load of gravel passing over his leg, fracturing it so badly that he is unable to get about without the aid of crutches, and his kind neighbors took this means of helping him out. Among those contributing were:

Messrs. Isaac Woolf, Louis Knips, Roy Howard, Riley Morrison, August Sarorentz, Will Howard, D. D. Duff, Claud Schilling and Will Knips.

The monthly social of the Ladies aid of the Baptist church was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Tuttle Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Tuttle, assisted by Mrs. R. W. Stearns and Mrs. F. W. Mears received, and Miss Lorain Lawton and Miss Ethel Gray assisted in the dining room. The house was most attractive, daffodils being used for decoration. The effect in the dining room being unusually harmonious, as the whole scheme was yellow. The dining table had a beautiful ebony centerpiece and handsome candelabra. About 70 ladies were present and the affair was a great success.

Mr. Tailandier gave an informal reception to the students of the Medford conservatory Thursday afternoon at the Natatorium. An impromptu program was given by the students. Those who took part were Mrs. Etta Bates, Miss Edna Eifert, Miss Isabelle Phipps, Mr. William Vawter, Miss Aileen Perl, Mr. H. P. Watson, Miss Elizabeth Fueselman, Mrs. Banker, Miss Clare Manning, Mrs. Crawford, Miss Dorothy Stewart, Miss Joan Anderson, Miss Mary Olson, Miss Effie Phipps, Miss Geraldine Mitsche.

The Pythian Sisters entertained most enjoyably Wednesday evening in their lodge rooms. The evening was spent in dancing and cards, a letter which refreshments of chicken sandwiches, olives, cakes, ice cream and coffee were served. Pink carnations were used in decoration. Those in charge of the entertainment were Mrs. Butler, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Houselman, Mrs. J. S. Hamilton, Miss Joe Gregory, Mr. Butler and Mr. Basil Gregory.

In honor of Miss Lotta Luke, Mrs. Folger entertained delightfully Tuesday afternoon. Bridge was played, Miss English winning the prize, a handsome cup and saucer. The guests Misses Luke, Kentner, Davis, Hance, Ware, Trischler, Reilay and English.

Mr. and Mrs. Boynton entertained at dinner Friday night at the Nash. Their guests were the Misses Cox and their guest was Mrs. Snyder.
