Mrs. Alice Trask, who brought suit some months ago against Wilbur Jones, sheriff, for the reward offered for the arrest of Julian A. Mock while he was at large following the murder of Jesse Smith last September in this city, has dropped her suit against Sheriff Jones and has sued J. N. Manning, deputy sheriff.

Mrs. Trask claims that Manning paid her but a portion of the money turned over to him by the sheriff although she was entitled, according to the complaint, to it all as she recognized Mock when he appeared at her place for food and phoned to the officers who brought him to Jacksonville.

The Central Point Herald is soon to be enlarged and bettered, Editor Patterson having purchased the plant of the defunct Globe and is now engaged in moving it into his office.

The step was deemed necessary inasmuch as Central Point is making rapid strides in improvements. That this spirit of civic betterment exists is due in no small degree to Editor Patterson and his booster sheet.

DOG TAX LAW TO BE CHANGED

City Dads Contemplate Passing New Ordinance Which Can Force Residents of City to Pay Up—Old Ordinance is Dead Letter.

Because the present ordinance imposing a tax on dogs in the city is a dead letter, the city dads are planning the passage of a new ordinance imposing such a tax which can be enforced.

Practically no attempt has been made to impose such a tax during the past two years owing to the fact that if a man refused to pay it he generally succeeded in escaping it.

It is proposed to make the new tax high enough to make it an object for some person to take the job of collecting the tax on a commission business.

GRAND JURY IS HARD AT WORK

Over Thirty Witnesses From Various Sections of the County Are Called to Jacksonville—Prisoners Before Inquisitorial Body.

The grand jury convened in Jacksonville this morning and are hard at work considering the many cases which are to come before it. Over 30 witnesses from various sections of the county have been called and appeared today at the county seat.

The cases of the prisoners, 15 strong, who were in the county jail have been taken up.

The March term of the circuit court opens next Monday.
