Blue Laws for Ashland

To the Editor: The oracle hath spoken and a special election is to be held on Saturday, March 25th, to make Ashland a closed town on Sundays, not permitting any place of business to be open, nor amusements of any kind to be indulged in. The measure is fashioned after the old ancient blue laws of New England of a century ago.

It may seem a hardship to some of the more progressive citizens, including the city council must bow in meek submission to the big boss and his bunch. Not being satisfied with having eliminated the saloons, which no one in Ashland seriously objected to, this crowd must go further and dictate to the people on all questions. We believe that this silly policy has been listened to now too long by the people of Ashland and further believe that this very influence is why Ashland has lost to Medford the proud distinction of being still the metropolis of the famous Rogue river valley that it had held for years. However, this crowd are long and loud in their appeals that the reputation of the holy city must be maintained at any cost, and are making a tremendous effort to carry the election for the blue laws.

Quite a number of homeseekers have arrived in Ashland in the past week. Though not nearly as many as we expected from reading the Portland papers, southern California furnishing many more than the middle west up to date. They are good buyers, as 16 families have bought homes since February 1, and are well pleased with their new homes.

Orrine for Whiskey and Beer Habit.

Orrine is the standard remedy and is every where recognized as the most successful and reliable home treatment for the "Drink Habit." It is highly praised by thousands of women because it has restored their loved ones to lives of sobriety and usefulness, and the weekly wages which at one time were spent for "Drinks" are now used to purchase the necessities and many comforts of home. Any wife or mother who wants to save her husband or son from "Drinks" will be glad to know that she can try ORRINE and if no benefit is obtained after a trial, we will refund the money.

ORRINE is prepared in two forms, No. 1, secret treatment, a powder, absolutely tasteless and odorless, given secretly in food or drink ORRINE No. 2, in pill form, is for those who desire to take voluntary treatment. ORRINE costs only $1.00 a box. Write for Free Orrine Booklet (mailed in plain sealed envelope) to ORRINE CO., 632 Orrine Building, Washington, D. C. ORRINE is recommended and is for sale in this city by Leon B. Haskins, 214 East Main St., Medford, Or.
