EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

By A. C. Howlett.

Among a group that came in for supper Tuesday evening were Mrs. Claud Garner, V. M. Allerman of Thomson, Ill.; C. W. Lake, our efficient and obliging real estate dealer, and two other strangers whose names I did not learn. They all came in autos, ate supper and went on to Medford that night.

A. P. Mathews of Portland was here. He is the western sales manager of the Standard Talking Machine company. He established an agency with Von der Hellen Bros. So now we can have all the music we want.

Messrs. Wheeler of the firm of Wheeler & Claspil, and Ed Watson, came in from Butte Falls Wednesday evening. Mr. Wheeler went on to Medford the next morning and Mr. Watson took the stage for his home in Butte Falls. They report that the Butte Falls Lumber company are putting in more machinery in the sawmill trying to get ready to cut lumber this summer.

I called on Austin Green the other day in my rounds looking for items for the Mail Tribune. Mr. Green is the young married man of whom I made mention having shot himself in the foot. Dr. Anderson and his partner of Central Point had to amputate all of the toes on the foot and at last account the wound was doing nicely. His wife had sister-in-law, Miss Jennie Mauthy, are at his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fry.

I see that Mrs. J. A. Jonas is replacing her old fence around the place with a neat wire fence and making the place have a much better appearance.

The sale of lots progresses slowly although there are a few bargains made almost every day, and in some cases the money is paid and the deed is given. I witnessed a deed for a parcel of land in the Central addition to Eagle Point, sold by J. W. Grover and wife to William Knighton, consideration $1, Thursday.

Mr. Grover informs me, as one of the directors of the school district, that the board has employed Professor P. H. Daley and wife as two of the teachers of our school for next term. Professor Daley will be the principal and Mrs. Daley will have charge of the primary department.

The board did not employ an intermediate teacher as the present teacher, Miss Howe, did not apply. He said that he expected that the next term that they would have to have four teachers, and as I write this I imagine that I can almost hear some of the old mossbacks who have been fighting to keep down taxes groan when they read this item, but those of us who are trying to build up the town are jubilant over the prospect of a thoroughgoing No. 1 school in our town.

I. C. Moore and wife of Elk creek came out Wednesday night. They were accompanied by Mrs. Moor's daughter, Miss Myrtle Drake, a younger daughter and another little girl from Ashland, whither they were bound.

O. G. Carr and wife of southern California, came out on the car Thursday morning, called for breakfast at the Sunnyside, procured a rig, went up on Reese creek to see Mr. Henderson's place, returning in time for supper and spent the night. They are looking over the country with a view of locating. Mrs. Carr was delighted with our surroundings.

H. M. Coss, one of Medford's real estate dealers, came out Thursday bringing with him H. B. Beard of Minneapolis, Minn. After dinner they went to look at a tract of land belonging to Mr. Coss lying northwest of here a few miles.

Miss Myrtle Minter and her aunt, Mrs. E. C. Cameron, arrived here Friday morning from Minneapolis, Minn. They were met by Miss Myrtle's father, R. R. Minter, at the Sunnyside, and after dinner went on to their home. Miss Myrtle is rejoicing to think that she has got out of the snow and ice into our lovely climate. She reports that the winter is just breaking up and that the ground was still frozen when she left a few days ago.

S. H. Harbush had a horse to fall on a sharp bone Thursday and it penetrated the leg near the stifle joint about three inches, rendering him unfit for use for some time. One of the Jones Bros. of Medford is out here finishing the painting on F. M. Stewart's house. T. E. Webber of Astoria and Austin Ford of Butte Falls were sojourning here Thursday night.

Falls on Shears.

Ted Ware, son of A. K. Ware, was severely injured yesterday by falling upon a pair of upright shears. Ted, who is eight years old, and his brother, were at play at the time of the accident. The blades penetrated one thigh for nearly two inches. Dr. E. R. Seely dressed the wound.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

Mrs. D. E. Emerson was transacting business in Gold Hill Friday and Saturday.

Miss Gaffe, Mrs. B. G. Peart, Mrs. A. M. Clark, Miss Audrey, Harvey S. A. Pattison, C. L. Smith, Ed Rainey spent Friday morning in Medford.

A. Conro Fiero returned from a business trip to Portland Friday morning.

Mr. White of Chico, Cal., spent Thursday night with his aunt, Mrs. J. H. Gay and returned home Friday.

Mrs. Duntin and daughter, J. B. Stevens and Mr. Smith, the railroad agent at Tolo, were business visitors here Friday.

A. W. Moon made a business trip to Medford Friday.

F. C. Frehrer sold his property this week in Constant edition, has rented the Cochran property on Ash street and will remain here for the present.

Dr. Anderson's driving ponies took a notion Friday to make a record run from Benr creek to Third and Pine streets, where they were stopped doing no damage and fortunately no one hurt.

WOODVILLE ITEMS.

Mrs. Haskins and son, Leon, of Medford, were in Woodville on Tuesday. Mrs. Haskins purchased another business lot next to those she already owns in our town.

Mr. George Dewey of Medford, visited his Evans creek ranch this week.

Walter Brown of Medford came up to Woodville on Tuesday and went up to his father's mine on Evans creek.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Streets are spending the week on their ranch here.

Mr. E. R. Rosser, cashier of the Woodville bank, went to Medford last Saturday to see Mr. Baumbach president of the bank, who was injured in the motor wreck. The people of Woodville were glad to learn that Mr. Baumbach's injuries were not serious.

The jail was completed this week. It is built of brick and is 12 feet by 16 feet.

Mr. Murry moved into his new barber shop this week. This shop is strictly up to date with hot and cold water and a bath room.

A party of Woodville people visited the Homestake mine on Sunday. Candles were provided and the party went to the end of the long tunnels. This proved quite an experience for most of those in the crowd had never been in a mine before. The party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Rosser, Mr. and Mrs. George Loud, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jacobs.

The Improvement club has decided to make April 8 a cleaning day for Woodville. Everyone is asked to join with the club and clean up. Men with teams will haul off all rubbish that is left within their reach.

Mrs. R. E. Rosser went to Grants Pass on Thursday to have some dental work done.

Mr. William Brower of Grants Pass was in Woodville on Monday. Woodville can go Medford one better on that fish story for we claim the king fisher of the younger set of anglers. A few days ago Lester Jacobs, the 12-year-old son of J. W. Jacobs, caught and landed a steel head measuring exactly 19 inches in length. The fish was caught in Rogue river within the city limits of Woodville.
