Advertising Not Soliciting.

BELLINGHAM, Wash., April 1. lolding that advertising is not solliting and that the local option statate being a criminal law, must be interpreted strictly and not broadly. Judge John A. Kellog of the superor court this morning sustained the lefendant's demorrer to the infornation against J. Aronson, wholesale quor dealer of Seattle, who was harged with a violation of the liquor aw because he advertised his liquors n the public press in Bellingham, which is a dry unit. The case will be | 15 minutes, and lumb can be broiled appealed by the state.

ng the prices, many people have gained the impression that "Medford Heights" lots are quoted at higher rices than other east side additions. We are reported to have sold a lot to business man for $2000. This is an error, and it is a fact that conidering location and distance from business center, "Medford Heights" lots are from one-third to one-half less. The actual prices are rom $400 to $550 each and the terms are one-third cash. Investiga-
