QUICKLY CURES COUGHS, COLDS AND CATARRH

If you, dear reader, could spend an hour looking over a few of the thousands of testimonials that we have on file, you would not go on suffering from catarrh, that disgusting disease that will surely sap your vitality and weaken your entire system if allowed to continue.

You would have just as much faith in HYOMEI as we have, and we have so much confidence in its wonderful curative virtue that it is sold the country over under a positive guarantee to cure catarrh, croup, sore throat, coughs and colds or money back.

No stomach dosing when you breathe HYOMEI. Just pour a few drops of the liquid into the inhaler, and breathe it in.

It is mighty pleasant to use; it opens up those stuffed-up nostrils in two minutes, and makes your head feel as clear as a bell in a short time.

Breathe HYOMEI and kill the catarrh germs. It's the only way to cure catarrh. It's the only way to get rid of that constant hawking, snuffling and spitting.

A complete HYOMEI outfit, which includes a bottle of HYOMEI and a hard rubber pocket inhaler, costs $1.00. If you already own a Hyomei inhaler you can get an extra bottle of HYOMEI for 50 cents.

MANY ENJOY DANCING FARCE

Every Little Tune Has a Music of Its Own, Hence Madame Sherry—Plot and Dance Suggestive and Frenchified—Principals All Good.

Tardy train service caused a crowded house to wait in good natured patience for over an hour Thursday evening to witness "Madame Sherry," loudly heralded as the premier attraction of the season. The time was not wholly lost, however, as the fashionable audience could admire those wonderful artistic decorations adorning that dear Medford theater, where the artist has certainly "done his damndest"—and angels could do no more. They gazed in rapt admiration at that pride of Hazelrigg's curtain, with its quaint 57 varieties of legends. They read of the man who "does nothing but insurance," of that celebrated oculist who has "no other business," of that enterprising realty dealer, "him they have bought their places from," of the cigar house whose specialty is "wholesale retail dealers," of the "soda works delivered at your door" and of the store where they have "everything in drugs and Lowney's candy."

"Madame Sherry," probably so-named because there was no such lady, though, goodness knows, there ought to have been, might be called a dancing musical farce, with the peculiarly idiotic, semi-hypnotic, slum suggestive, dance originated by the "Merry Widow" as a leading stunt. But the dance was not the only thing suggestive about the performance, for in this latter category must be included the apology for a plot and the Frenchified humor.

The music, and every little tune has a music of its own nowadays, consisted of variations of one catchy air. The scenery was attractive. The chorus was plump and past the age of discretion. The bright particular star of the evening was Miss Ann Trasker, who as Yvonne captivated the audience by her winsome gracey Benham as leading man won applause and sweet voice and whose personal plause and other stellar parts were charms went far to gloss over the well produced.

After such plays as "Madame Sherry" and the "Merry Widow" the quietest voice on the stage. Oscar Fig-ry naturally arises, are the American man added to his reputation as the people becoming increasingly fond of demerit provoker of the company. Har-the suggestively vulgar that they

Just Glance Over The "Special" Features Which Make "Miller-Made" Clothes "Different"

- Long dip-front Coat, in either one or two-button models. Regular or peaked lapels. Military back with full flare over hips. Ten-inch side or center vents. Regular flap or wide-welt pockets. Watch pocket on outside of breast pocket—cord inside to hold watch chain. Vest perfectly form fitting—special pencil pocket.

- Trousers full-peg with three-inch turn-up for trouser cuffs. Patent fasteners on watch and left-hip pockets. Secret pocket inside waist band. Tunnel belt loops to keep trousers firmly over hips. Also braid belt loops. Steel pivot pearl buttons at point of waist-band. Adjustable shape—making side vent.

This last feature, illustrated below, is the most practical device ever contrived to make your trousers form-fitting at the waist—snug around the body and over hips, so they won't slip down when worn without suspenders or belt.
