MEDFORD, OREGON, TUESDAY, APRIL 11, 1911

HEAVY FROST IS EXPECTED;

Orchard Men Are Instructed to Be on Lookout for Cold Snap-O'Gara Will Be On the Job All Night Watching Weather.

SNOW FALLS IN APRIL FIRST TIME IN YEARS

No Danger if Orchardmen Keep in Touch With Weather Bureau and Fire Orchard.

To Orchardmen:

It is expected that the weather will clear this afternoon and if so. a heavy frost will follow the present storm. Firing in all of the orchards in the valley will be necessary to prevent loss of fruit. Keep in touch with my office or with telephone central in Medford and be ready to fire. I will remain in my office all night. (Signed) P. J. O'GARA.

If the weather clears this afternoon as in predicted by the local weather bureau a heavy frost wilsucceed and firing will be necessary in all of the orchards in the valley to prevent loss of fruit. Orchardmer should keep closely in touch with Professor P. J. O'Gara who will remain in his office all night or with the Med ford telephone central in order to gain further instructions. The above warning was issued by Professo O'Gara this afternoon.
