WIFE MEETS HER HUSBAND'S NEW LOVE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 15.—Beacham Pinder, a wealthy mining man with property in Alaska and Mexico, was awarded the championship for "mercy" here today in a suit in which his wife Mary M. Pinder asked for divorce.

Pinder, his outraged wife declared to Judge Cabaniss, coolly introduced to his alleged affinities and had her invite the woman to supper.

"And not only that," said Mrs. Pinder wrathfully. "When I did ask her to supper, this woman coolly told me she was not my husband's relative but that she was his affinity, and intended to marry him as soon as he was free."

The case has not been concluded.

OREGON SENATORS AGAIN OPPOSE MR. COLWELL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15.—The Oregon senators' joint protest against the appointment by President Taft of Colwell as minister of Oregon, has again been made in the Senate.

Exercising its right to report adversely against Colwell's nomination and that the Senate will vote for the rejection of the nomination as before. In this it does the Oregon senators will not repeat their courtesy to the White House by permitting Colwell's name to be withdrawn.

RESULTS TELL.

There Can Be No Doubt About the Results in Medford.

Results tell the tale.

All doubt is removed.

The testimony of a Medford citizen can be easily investigated.

What better proof can be had?

Mr. J. H. Dawson, Central Avenue, Medford, Ore., says: "I was so mad with Kidney trouble that I could not do my house-work. My back was weak and painful and in the morning when I awoke I was lame and sore. The kidney troubles were dominant and my health gradually went down until I was barely able to get about. While taking 'Kings' drug 20 grains I got better from the time I commenced their use and it was not long before I was cured. I am in a position to recommend Drs. Kilmer Pitts highly to anyone afflicted with Kidney Complaint." A statement given September 16, 1907.

A Permanent Cure.

When Mrs. Dawson was interviewed on October 26, 1909, she said: "My former endorsement of Drs. Kilmer Pitts still holds good. Since this remedy cured me I have had no further attacks of kidney complaint and I have enjoyed good health. I do not hesitate to say that Drs. Kilmer Pitts are excellent for all difficulties caused by weak kidneys."

Fruit Blossoms Nipped.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., April 15.—Though it is difficult to determine today, it is thought some of the peach and cherry blossoms were nipped by the cold last night, when the mercury fell to 28 degrees above zero, one of the coldest nights for this time of the year even remembered here.

If the crop was not killed outright by the frost, growers have the wind to thank. A heavy shower followed by a driving snow, which clung to the trees, preceded the cold wave, but the fact that wind accompanied the storm may prevent wholesale destruction of the early soft fruits.

Some gardens were injured last night, tomatoes especially. Gardeners believe, however, that if the truck was killed it will cause no loss, as it can be replanted. In some places ice an eighth of an inch thick was found here last night.

EASTER.

EASTER—survival of a pagan festival, now the annual church celebration, commemorating the Resurrection and corresponding to the Passover of the Jews is still to many of us symbolical of the forgotten goddess of light and spring, for whom earth has donned her fairest raiment and in honor of whom the flower-covered world wafts its fragrance and feathered songsters warble their sweetest melody.

Easter is a season for rejoicing—of joy in the recreation of the world of life after the dreariness of death—the building of the glory of another golden summer following the bleakness of a barren winter. Symbolical of hope in man and of new life in nature, what wonder that we deify the fairy spring, clad in her fragile garb of colors?

Easter means the Resurrection and the Life—the redemption—the casting away of the outgrown and the outworn, the spiritual rebirth, the discarding of false gods and the worship of the true. It means the passing of the old order and the creation of a new and better.

Easter, the triumph of life, should be an inspiration to all mankind. As new verdure covers the earth, as a smiling sun awakens it to new endeavor, and cloaks it with new-born beauty, so should the glad Easter tide inspire mankind with hope, with faith, with courage, to live a life as fair, in some small measure, as the world it is lived upon—to live a life worth while.

REBELS ARE SEEN IN VICINITY OF JUAREZ BY NEW MINOR LAW

EL PASO, Texas, April 15.—Shots were exchanged today between Young's 10th regimenting the Mexican and kind of embroilment for no more than today by Governor Johnson will affect a large number of boys now employed as messengers in the various offices of the state, bellboys in hotels, messengers in some of the less expensive inns, and street少年们.

Two separate bands of rebels, it was said today, each numbering about 500, known to be in the vicinity of Juarez. Late last night a band of rebels chased a scouting party of patrols about in the city limits.

Offices of Juarez expected that city to be attacked just night and thousands of women and children spent the night in El Paso.

General Narváez moved his troops across the border today and extended his position to the south of Juarez.

It was expected that a battle would soon be fought on the outskirts of Juarez.

PEKING, April 15.—The $50,000,000

loan agreement for the establishment of a dollar exchange system was signed between the Chinese today and representatives of American, French, English and German bankers who are behind the Nanking

This loan was first negotiated by a bank from a rapidly growing automobile industry controlled by J. P. Morgan and early today it is believed in concluding a deal with the Chinese government.

The loan will be used to establish a bank in Nanking, China, and will be spent in the development of the country.

Monarchs, both men and women, will be present at the opening of the new bank.
