PORTLAND STORE SCENE OF ROBBERY

Crown Jewelry Store Proprietor Held Up and Much Loot is Taken-Daring Robbery on Main Street in Portland.

PORTLAND, April 20.-A special detall of three detectives were put on the estimated the total value of the loot at approximately $1850.

Cowie was reading a newspaper near the safe when a tall and short man entered. The tall fellew pulled back his coat far enough to show a big revolver He cooly instructed the jeweler to place his hands o nthe counter.

Meanwhile the shorter man walked be hind the counter, deliberately reached into a display window and while two women watched him, he chose the diamonds that met his fancy,

The safe was rifled next. While the short man went through it, the tall robber compelled Cowie to hand him a tray of sixteen watches which the fellow pecketed.

After cantioning the jeweler not to follow them, they walked out and merged with the crowgds on the sidewalk. The police believe they are the same men who held up and robbed a United Cigar store on fourth street when the same methods was pursued.

Palls 200 Feet Over Cliff.

LAMAR, Col., April 20.-Lost in the darkness, Munroe High, 22 years old, son of a wealthy busines man of Clinton, Ky., fell 200 feet over a precipice to his death, according to information received here. The accident occurred near Two Buttes, 45 miles southwest of here where High, with his consin, L. W. Jackson, had camped for the night. The two men were making an overland trip from Oklahoma to Lamar. The body will be sent to Clinton, Ky., for burial
