

15 LABOR MEN NOW IN HOUSE

American Federation of Labor Makes Big Gains in Its Representation in the Lower House of Congress at Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The American Federation of Labor now boasts, as the labor representation of congress, 15 members in the house of representatives and several friends in the United States senate. The presence of this labor delegation in congress, the federation declares, is the result of five years of active campaigning in national elections.

In 1905, the labor representation committee of the American Federation of Labor decided aggressively to take the field against the re-election of certain members of congress who had been conspicuous in their antagonism toward all labor bills introduced in congress. Congressman Littlefield, Second district of Maine, courted a battle in the political campaign of four years ago, with the labor element.

President Gompers, with three organizers and a similar number of international officers, entered Littlefield's district, and according to Gompers "they made a memorable struggle to impress upon the citizens of that district the desirability of permitting the belligerent congressman to remain at home." Littlefield, however, came back to congress, though his majority was greatly reduced.

In various parts of the country similar battles have been fought by trade unionists who opposed the presence of anti-labor men in congress, with the result that in 1906 the A. F. of L. entered the field under the labor ticket. The first campaign resulted in the election of six congressmen with active membership in the trade unions. They were, Wilson of Pennsylvania, Nichols of Pennsylvania, Sherwood of Ohio, Hughes of New Jersey, McBurnett of Illinois and Carey of Wisconsin.

In the elections of 1908 the above were re-elected and in addition the following labor unionists: Anderson of Ohio, Murphy of Missouri, Martin of Colorado and Jamieson of Iowa.

The congressional elections of 1910 increased the labor delegation by 50 per cent, five members of congress actively affiliated with trade unions being elected.

AT THE THEATRES.

SOME SHOW AT ISIS THEATRE

Standing Room Was at All Taken Last Night at Both Shows.

Everybody should avail themselves of the opportunity of attending the matinee today. It will be many a day before you will hear the equal of Marie Alice Perrin in enunciation. She is a master of imagination but words are not strong enough to compare with the beautiful colored slides used in illustrating her travel talk. This afternoon's matinee is her last appearance here. She leaves for Portland tonight. Let us all turn out and listen to the one that has and will indecibly impress upon the minds of the eastern people the beauty spot of Rogue River Valley with its vast resources and opportunities that await the on-comer.

FREDERICK WARD IS COMING TO MEDFORD

The next attraction at the Medford Theater will be Mr. Frederick Ward, the eminent Shakespearean actor, who comes for one performance Thursday, April 27 with a big scenic production of "Julius Caesar."

Mr. Ward is a Medford favorite, either as a lyceum attraction or as a "real actor," and this season he has surrounded himself with a most capable company of some twenty-five well known artists who are giving a most enjoyable performance according to the San Francisco critics, when the company has just closed a big week's engagement. Seat sale opens Monday, April 24th.

"Girl From Rector's" Coming.

"The Girl From Rector's," which comes to the Medford Theater for engagement of one night, Friday, April 25th enjoyed a run of over three hundred nights in New York. The piece originally opened at Weber's Music Hall simply as a "try out." It was the intention of the producer, after its success had been established, to close the play house and reopen with "The Girl" at the commencement of the next theatrical year. The offering, however, proved such a tremendous sensation that it continued its run for seven months and was still doing capacity business when it was necessary to end their engagement in order to fill out of town contracts.

Even the records established by Weber and Fields when their productions were the rage of New York were broken by "The Girl From Rector's." The work is from the pen of Paul M. Potter, who won world wide fame as the author of "Tribby."

LANGFORD SAYS HE HAS NOT BROKEN WITH MANAGER

BOSTON, April 22.—Denials were received today from Sam Langford, the Boston "Tar Baby," who is at the bedside of his sick father in Weymouth, N. H., that he had broken with Joe Woodman, his manager. He said that he came home from Europe without Woodman on account of his father's illness.

Langford declared that he was still after Jack Johnson and would seek a match as soon as the champion was released from jail.

A CARD OF THANKS.

To the relatives and friends of the late H. C. Shipp we sincerely thank them for their kindness shown during his illness. Signed Sus. C. Shipp, wife, A. P. Shipp, son.

MR. ROBERT L. BACON
Religious differences are supposed to be the lack of the breaking of the engagement of Robert Law Bacon, son of the American Ambassador to France, and Miss Cecilia May, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Henry May, of Washington. She is a Catholic, he a Protestant.

HAPPY RESULTS

Have Made Many Medford Residents Enthusiastic.

No wonder scores of Medford citizens grow enthusiastic. It is enough to make anyone happy to find relief after years of suffering. Public statements like the following are but truthful representations of the daily work done in Medford by Doan's Kidney Pills.

A. Z. Sears, 231 Fifth street, Medford, Ore., says: "Since publicly recommending Doan's Kidney Pills in 1907, I have used them occasionally and they have always brought good results. I was afflicted with severe pains in my back and I often found it almost impossible to stoop. The kidney secretions passed too frequently and this weakness was a source of much annoyance. Hearing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended, I procured a box at Haskins' Drug Store and by the time I had finished the contents, I could see that they were the right remedy for my trouble. Gradually the pains and other difficulties disappeared and my health improved. I cheerfully recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to everyone afflicted with kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McBirney Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

14 HOBOES ARE TOLD GOODBYE

"On Your Way," Signal is Waved by Chief—in the Crowd a Total of 19 Whole Cents was Found—Drunk Had 60 Cents.

Fourteen hoboes and one plain drunk found lodging in the Medford calaboose Friday night, and when searched the sum of ninety cents was found on the crowd.

The drunk had the best of the argument, with the fifty cents in his jeans, while the remaining thirty cents was distributed promiscuously among the "Knights of the Road." About a dozen hoboes were frightened out of town Friday afternoon by prospects of finding work as the police notified them that they must either work on the Crater Lake highway or hit the ties for some other place. A very, very few signed up with the contractor but when darkness fell the Southern Pacific ties furnished a walk for the rest who preferred to leave town.

Buys Interest in Business.

H. T. Haswell, until recently sole owner of the Southern Oregon Produce Company, has sold one half interest to E. V. Coffin. The company occupies the "Crematorium" ware house between South Grant street and the Southern Pacific tracks and does a strictly wholesale business.

The capital stock has been doubled and many new lines will be carried as the company expects to spread over a much larger territory than is worked at present.

Pitcher Spotted.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., April 22.—Pitcher Risley of the University of Virginia baseball team is just about ripe today, say his admirers, for the big league. Since the opening of the season Risley has pitched two no-hit games, his latest effort having been against Fordham.

Farm For Sale Cheap by Owner $100 PER ACRE

160 ACRES—Three and one-half miles from a thriving town. Two miles from Petraek. One mile from Rogue river. Sixty five acres in cultivation. Forty acres in 2-year-old fruit of best commercial varieties. Fifteen acres in wheat. Half acre of Tokay grapes. Three never-failing springs, sufficient water to irrigate large garden and for all domestic purposes, situated right at house.

This place has probably the most beautiful building site, from a scenic standpoint, in the Rogue River Valley. A splendid view of the Rogue river, Mount Pitt and the surrounding valley can be obtained from it. There are two houses in good condition, a large barn and several other outbuildings on the place.

A county road has been petitioned for, viewed and will be opened this summer running within 100 yards of building site, to connect with steel bridge across river, for which bids have been advertised by county court. This when completed will be one of the most extensive traveled roads in the county.

Its proximity to the river, where the best fishing in the world is to be had, and also its nearness to the best hunting grounds in this state, make this place a very desirable one for a splendid orchard home.

This property is probably the best investment in the valley today. Lands adjacent and abutting are not to be had for twice the money. There are less than 30 acres of waste land on the whole tract, and 40 acres of it are worth price asked. The owner is in poor health and in order to make a quick sale is willing to sacrifice it for $16,000. The terms are: Half cash, balance in one and two years at 6 per cent.

Now, Mr. Homeseeker, if you are interested in this proposition, I will be pleased to put you in touch with the OWNER, with whom you may deal direct. For any further information, write

That Safe Feeling

Isn't it nice to come to a nice, new, clean, up-to-date store like this and at the same time feel that you were perfectly safe in every purchase? Safe, first, because you know absolutely that the quality would be all that could be expected. Safe, secondly, because you could trust the store to make a right price and not have that feeling that because one article you bought was cheap that the next would be too high in price in order to make up for the one sold too low.
