CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Childers of this city were tendered a delightful surprise at their beautiful new home on Pine street, Thursday evening, the occasion being to celebrate their first wedding anniversary. Games and music were indulged in until a late hour when the guests were summoned to the dining room, where the lights were turned low and the tables were adorned with cardinals with red shades which gave a soft red glow to the room which was very artistic. A dainty lunch consisting of coffee, sandwiches, pickles, cake and fruit salad was served. All went home declaring they had spent one of the most enjoyable evenings of the season and wishing the host and hostess much future happiness. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Whiteside, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Childers, Mrs. J. P. Williams, Miss E. E. Merritt, Miss Pearl Ross, Miss Etta Williams, Messrs. Wayne, Leeven, Shipley, Ross, Bridane, Sanderson, Master Vernon and Walter Williams. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Davis, Medford; Mrs. Fred Roper, Grants Pass.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

(By A. C. Howlett.)

Mr. Edwards, one of the engineers on the P. & E. R. R. and his family have moved from Medford and taken a room at the Sunny Side, owing to a change being made in the arrangement of the cars as the Esconso line that runs the work train is kept here over night since the steam shovel has commenced work again.

We had a small blaze here Wednesday evening. The roof of Mr. Harvey's house took fire but his little grand children were out in the yard at the time and gave the alarm in time to save the building, but the fire burned quite a hole in the roof.

George Whitehead, recently from Michigan, was busy looking for a home this week. He went from here to Medford, but expects to return in a few days. He is very favorably impressed with this part of the valley and thinks of investing in property here.

J. P. Barnes of Portland, representing the Central Door and Lumber Co., of that city, was in Medford Wednesday doing business with our merchants.

Mr. W. McNeely, proprietor of the Medford Music Shop, came out with his wife Wednesday and gave a musical entertainment at the store of Heath & Diamond, in the afternoon and at night. There was quite a gathering and the audience were well pleased with the performance.

S. G. Reading, recently of Seattle, but formerly of Pennsylvania, was in Medford Wednesday at dinner in company of C. W. Lake and also took supper and breakfast. He is looking for a business location and promised to return in a short time. He is looking for a permanent home in a good country with a good climate and seemed to think that he had found it right here in Eagle Point.

J. C. Moore of Elk Creek, came out Wednesday and brought out Mr. Pierce, who was on his way to Medford to make his final proof on his homestead. Messrs. Mathews and Swanson, also of Elk Creek, were with them as witnesses. They spent the night here and after attending to their business in Medford went on to Ashland.

Clyde Plymire, nightwatchman for the 4-Spot Locomotive on the P. & E., has taken rooms again at the Sunny Side and in addition to those already mentioned there are several others whose names are on the P. & E. payroll so that business begins to look lively around here again.

John Liddell, the gentleman of whom I spoke as coming from Wenatchee and going to open up a hardware store here has his lumber on the ground and expects to have the building up right away. The contractor is expected tomorrow, Saturday.

S. M. Wood of the Medford grocery store, and wife, were pleasant callers for dinner Thursday.

J. R. Henderson, who has a homestead on the P. & E. R. R. near Reese Creek, came out Thursday evening to go to work on Mr. Liddell's new store building, but as the contractor had not

Mr. and Mrs. C. Ciare Perrin were on the southbound train Thursday afternoon en route to San Francisco, which will be their future home. They were married quite recently in Portland of which city Mrs. Perrin, who was Miss Lillian Bourke, was a reigning belle. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich accompanied them as far as Ashland.

Miss Frances Kenney is paying Medford a short visit.

Mrs. W. R. Coleman and M. M. Taylor spent Friday with Medford friends.

DO YOU KNOW?

That NOW is the time to replace your old fence with a new one. That it will improve the appearance of your property fully FIFTY PER CENT if the fence is right and properly constructed.

That The Page Wire Fence

is best suited for the purpose, as it is made up of the best High Carbon Steel Wire that is found in fencing; in addition to this, it is the only fence which has the PAGE KNOT, and continuous cross wire to weave it together, hence it

Is The Best Fence

that money can buy or modern science produce. Owing to each line wire being coiled before the fence is woven, Page Fence is easily erected over hills and through dales, without the necessity of cutting and splicing. It is at Adrian, Mich., and shipped by us in carload lots, direct from the FACTORY TO THE CONSUMER, thus insuring the greatest value at the lowest possible price.

Let us show you why you should use Page Fence in preference to any other. We furnish, without charge, estimates on cost of fencing tracts, and contract to build fences complete.

We will figure with you on any amount of fencing, from one rod to a carload. If you are wanting Fence, Gates, or either yew or cedar posts, let us figure with you. We furnish man and tools and assist in the erection of Page Fence without extra cost.
