

DETECTIVE W. J. BURNS IS FUGITIVE

DETECTIVE HAS DROPPED FROM SIGHT IN EAST

Is Evading Warrants Sworn Out By Labor Leaders on Charges of Hiding Kidnapped John J. McNamara—Only One Leaves No Trace.

CONSTABLES ARE ON HIS TRAIL BUT ARE BAFFLED

Succeed Only in Arresting One of His Men—Walter Deen and Attorney Ford However Are Held in Jail

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 25.—Eviding warrants sworn out by labor leaders here for his arrest on charges of having kidnaped John J. McNamara, secretary of the Structural Iron Workers, William J. Burns vanished today from this city and has left no trace. Constables with the warrants for Burns and his aides are on the trail of the detective but so far have succeeded only in arresting J. A. Badorf, one of the Burns operatives, who was captured at noon.

Arrested on the same charge, Walter Drew, president of the National Erectors' association, and W. J. Ford, assistant district attorney of Los Angeles, were held by Justice Manning in $10,000 bail for the grand jury. Frank Cox, the chauffeur who drove McNamara away when he was taken prisoner, was bound over in $5,000 bond.

All went to jail, pending their securing bail.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 25.—The arrest of Detective Burns on the charge of kidnaping John J. McNamara and causing his removal to Los Angeles is expected here today. Burns arrived at 2:30 this morning from Toledo.

It has been intended that Burns should be arrested last night. He was expected to arrive in the city at 10 o'clock and constables waited at the depot for him, but they abandoned their vigil at midnight. Later, however, Burns, accompanied by J. A. Badorf, representing the Erectors' association, arrived, but the officers had left.

Ford Arrested. First of the blows struck by the union leaders here in retaliation for the alleged kidnaping of McNamara has been the arrest of W. J. Ford, assistant prosecuting attorney of Los Angeles, Walter Drew, president of the Erectors' association, and F. P. Fox, the chauffeur who drove the taxicab in which McNamara was whisked to the station here after his arrest on the dynamiting charge. Today all three are at liberty on bonds of $5,000 each, which were given by W. A. Ketchum, of the Brown-Ketchum Iron works of this city.

The warrants for the arrest of Ford, Drew and Fox, as well as those under which Burns and his detectives are expected to be arrested were sworn out by John Weegan, a local labor leader, who acted for the executive board of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers.

Says Arrest Meticulous. Ford declared his arrest was utterly ridiculous. "I am not a police officer," he said, "and had no part in taking McNamara. My arrest will amount to nothing. It may be a different matter for Detective Burns, but I think I will be able to defend his action. I am here simply to see what is going on and to gather information for use in Los Angeles when the trial of the three men begins."

"When Jas. W. McNamara reaches Los Angeles," he said, "he will be identified as the J. B. Bryce who bought dynamite at Grant, Cal., and whom we have traced positively as one of the Los Angeles dynamiters. The identification of Bryce will be positive and absolute. Further than that, there were two sticks of dynamite found unexploded under the Times building. These sticks came from the Grant works and have been identified as Bryce's purchases."

McManigal is not wanted in connection with the Times explosion, but for the dynamiting of the Llewellyn Iron Works in Los Angeles at a later date.

Burns Claims He Has Proof. Burns declares he has positive proof that Bryce (James McNamara), David Caplan and M. A. (Cocky) Schmidt were responsible for the Times disaster, and that John J. McNamara paid James for the job. He said that Caplan and Schmidt were simply anarchists unaffiliated with the Structural Iron Workers, who helped at the job.

Burns thinks McManigal worked alone on the Llewellyn job, but that John J. McNamara furnished the money.

Chisholm Trial in July. SANTA ROSA, Cal., April 25.—The trial of Dr. L. C. Chisholm on the charge of having murdered John D. Powell has been set for July 11. Chisholm pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Judge Sewell at his preliminary hearing. The prisoner still refuses to discuss his case with any one and holds himself aloof from his fellow prisoners.

HOW McNAMARA MIGHT BE FREED

Labor leaders who are fighting the arrest of John J. McNamara, secretary-treasurer of the Iron Workers union, charged with alleged complicity in the Los Angeles Times catastrophe, have considered an effort to secure his freedom by a writ of habeas corpus. Such a writ might be issued, attorneys say, by any court through whose jurisdiction McNamara passes. It could be secured by any friend of the accused in any such court. The writ would be based on the fact that McNamara was being deprived of his liberty without due process of law.

A sufficient answer to such a writ would be the papers in the case. If proper indictment, requisition by the governor of California on the governor of Indiana, endorsement of the requisition by the latter and warrant for the arrest of the accused, endorsed by an Indiana magistrate having jurisdiction, can be shown, the writ would be non-effective. If, however, it could be shown that the papers contained some defect the writ would be effective and the accused would have to be released.

The question of denial of counsel to McNamara before the police judge of Indianapolis could not enter into a habeas corpus writ issued in any court outside of Indiana. It would have to be settled by the county courts of Marion county, Indiana, that the law entitled the accused to counsel; that he asked for counsel, that the request was denied by the police judge.

MEN ARE BEING RUSHED WEST MRS. INGERSOLL RUSHING SOUTH

Will Probably Be Brought to Los Angeles Without Change—Little Chance of Freeing Them on Writ of Habeas Corpus.

DENVER, Col., April 25.—That John J. McNamara, James W. McNamara, his brother, and Ortie McManigal, arrested at the instance of the Burns agency for alleged complicity in dynamiting plots, including the alleged dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times will go through to Los Angeles without change from the train on which they are now prisoners was the general belief of railroad officials here today. The men, closely guarded in compartments of a Pullman sleeper on the California Limited on the Santa Fe road, passed La Junta early today.

John J. McNamara, who was rushed from Indianapolis in an automobile, placed aboard a St. Louis train, where he was transferred again to the Missouri Pacific, was landed aboard the Santa Fe train on which his brother and McManigal were passengers, at Great Bend, Kan. He was taken off the Missouri Pacific train at Holington, Kan., and taken in an automobile to Great Bend, where a compartment on the California Limited had been reserved for him.

On Fastest Train. The Santa Fe train on which the three men are now riding carries them by the most direct route from La Junta to Los Angeles and they are on the fastest train on the line.

Since it is reasonably certain that taking the men from the train could not be accomplished without the knowledge of newspaper men and any attempt to transfer them to another train must be known before the detectives had gone far with their prisoners, it is believed the Burns detectives who are planning the trip to Los Angeles believe that they have as good a chance of getting through to Los Angeles on the train they are now on as they would if they attempted to double again. The fact that the time of their arrival is known will make little difference in their plans.

The men know that a habeas corpus writ is the only possible chance of freeing the prisoners before they reach Los Angeles and it is believed likely now that no effort to serve such a writ will be made. In fact it is thought there would be little chance of serving a writ at all, and if it were done, it is probable that only in the case of John J. McNamara would the courts issue such a writ.

Will Be Rushed Through. The detectives think the papers they have would be sufficient answer to any such writ and if the extradition of McNamara is to be fought at all, the action must be taken in the Marion county, Indiana, courts. For these reasons, both detectives and railroad men say, it is highly probable that the men will be rushed to Los Angeles without further change, and if there is any secrecy concerning their arrival in Los Angeles it will come when the train nears the California city, when the prisoners may be taken out and the final stage of the trip made in automobiles.

Planning for Reception. LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 25.—Wille Jas. W. McNamara, his brother John J. McNamara and Ortie E. McManigal, alleged dynamiters, two of whom are accused of wrecking the Los Angeles Times plant, are speeding westward in the custody of detectives, preparations were being made here today for their reception on their arrival.

Whether the men will be housed in the city prison, at the county jail or in a special place of detention fitted up for their sole accommodation has not been definitely decided. Chief of Police Sebastian was scheduled to hold a conference with District Attorney Fredericks this afternoon at which time this and other matters will be discussed. The district attorney's office will have sole charge of the prosecution of the suspected trio. Fredericks' force showed considerable activity today and the actual work of framing his case is well under way.

OAKLAND, Cal., April 25.—C. W. Maters, secretary of the Oakland Automobile club, was killed last night in an automobile accident near Albany, Cal. No details are yet obtainable.

Lives of 22 Patients Are Endangered—Are Carried to Safety By Nurses—Two Were On the Operating Table.

ROSEBURG, Ore., April 25.—Investigation today showed that the fire which partially damaged the Mercy Hospital and endangered the lives of twenty-two patients was caused by a defective fuse. The patients were carried to safety by nurses. Two persons were on the operating tables under anesthetics when the alarm of fire was raised. They were carried to the open air. The damage is estimated at approximately $500.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—E. W. Hawkins, 55, well known real estate dealer, shot himself in his office here. The body was found today by the janitor. Hawkins was unmarried. Dependancy upon the illness of a friend is assigned for the act.

S. P. TO APPEAL FROM DECISION OF WOLVERTON

Executive Committee of Harriman Lines Announces That An Appeal Would Be Taken From Decision of Judge Wolverton in Famous Case

DECISION IS OF GREAT IMPORTANCE TO JACKSON

Agitation Which Led to the Suit Was Instituted in This Country 1906

NEW YORK, April 25.—Following a meeting of the executive committee of the Harriman lines here this afternoon, it was announced that an appeal would be taken from United States Judge Wolverton's decision in Portland in the Oregon land cases.

Cause Heaviness. NEW YORK, April 25.—The decision against the Southern Pacific in the Oregon land case caused some heaviness in the Harriman stocks at the opening of the stock market. Southern Pacific lost one point and Union Pacific 1-2. Most of the other active issues were down a fraction. Later a rally sent the prices higher but the market again receded. The close was firm. Bonds were firm.

Of Great Import Here. The decision of Judge Wolverton of the United States federal court Monday, which restores, if sustained, 2,500,000 acres of land, valued at $75,000,000, to the public domain, is of far-reaching importance to Jackson county, as much of the land in this county is contained in the original grant to the Oregon & California Railroad company, later taken over by the Southern Pacific. Much of it has been sold but the railroad company still owns thousands of acres in the county, and has withheld it from settlement.

Jackson Started War. To Jackson county also belongs the credit for the agitation which led to the suit in which by Wolverton's decision the railroad has been overthrown. In 1906 Clarence Reames, a candidate for the legislature, pledged himself that, if elected, he would secure the passage of a resolution authorizing the state to take legal action to recover title to the railroad grant lands. L. L. Mault was also pledged to this move, and being elected he secured the passage of a memorial to congress, which led to the institution of the suit.

Will Aid Development. With the railroad lands opened to settlement and development Jackson county will make greater strides. Since 1902 the lands have not been on the market at any price.
