GREEK ROUTS GRIM SPECTRE

Man Who Fell Thirty-Five Feet, Suffered a Double Concussion of the Brain, is Now Able to Sit Up and Take Nourishment. Christ Pulmumbis, the Greek laborer who fell from a ladder at the Hotel Medford two weeks and a half ago, is rapidly improving and is able to sit up in bed. When injured the man fell a distance of 35 feet to the basement, where he was found unconscious by fellow workmen. He was hurried to the Southern Oregon hospital, where it was found that he had received a compound comminuted fracture of the skull. The brain was severely lacerated by splinters of bone, and Dr. E. H. Porter was forced to perform what was at that time considered a hopeless operation. No hopes were held for the man's recovery but he steadily improved and is now able to sit up.

NO! MARSHALL IS NOT CRAZY

Despite Rumors to That Effect Due to Smudging These Warm Nights Orchardist Marshall, Has an Explanation. G. E. Marshall, orchardist, is not crazy although some of his neighbors have been expressing fears of late as to his sanity. Although he has been smudging his orchard of late, and will do so again tonight with the temperature about 38 degrees, he has a reason. "It's this—an orchard heating company is merely demonstrating their fuel pots. When the neighbors of Mr. Marshall observed him heating his orchard the last few nights, they began to think that late hours during to frost, had robbed him of his reason and he has been kept busy explaining. So if you notice him during the same thing tonight remember 'tis only a demonstration.

ELECT SECRETARY ON WEDNESDAY

Directors of Commercial Club Will Take Action on Applications Tomorrow Night—"Chimes of Normandy" Forces a Postponement. The board of directors of the Medford Commercial club will meet Wednesday afternoon in the offices of the Medford Realty association at 4:30 o'clock for the purpose of choosing a secretary of the Commercial club. A large number of applications will be considered. The directors were to meet Tuesday night, but owing to the fact that several of the directors thinking the board would meet Monday, purchased tickets to "The Chimes of Normandy," for this evening, the meeting was postponed. The club will meet Wednesday evening at the Realty offices. Look for a tenant through want ad verbiage—as most tenant-finders do.

COLORADO CROP KILLED BY FROST

Fourteen Degrees is Registered in Montrose Section Killing Crop Writes Ira J. Clark to Professor P. J. O'Gara—Means Better Prices. Ira J. Clark of Delta, Col., has written to Professor P. J. O'Gara stating that nearly the entire apple crop in the Montrose district of Colorado has been destroyed by frost. The thermometer on April 15 dropped as low as 14 degrees and completely destroyed their crop. While this works hardship on the Colorado fruit men, it assures high prices for apples, as this district ordinarily furnishes 10,000 cars of apples each season.

TO PLAY GRANTS PASS SUNDAY

Local Aggregation of Ball Players Will Journey to Neighboring City Next Sunday and Play Third Game. Court Hall will send his baseball team to Grants Pass again Sunday and the boys are determined to win this time. Heavy practice is on the program this week, especially in batting, in which department the local players were deficient last Sunday. It is rumored that a heavy hitter from the direction of Central Point is to be tried out, but the lineup will probably be the same as formerly. Medford is believed to have the shade on Grants Pass and but for a bad inning at the first of the game should have won the Sunday game.

BRIDGE REPAIRED

The much needed repairs on the Bear Creek Bridge on East Main street were made Tuesday and will help some what to alleviate some of the discomforts felt by those who are forced to cross it daily. New boards have been placed in the flooring and the bridge strengthened in other minor ways. While materially increasing the safety of the bridge the improvements do not come up to the expectations of those advocating a new bridge but will have to do until further arrangements can be made.
