GOLD HILL HOTEL LEASED TO GALE

C. F. Young has just leased the hotel at Gold Hill for a term of years to Captain J. W. Gale, formerly of Kachess Lodge on the Lake, near Easton, Wash., on the summit of the Cascades.

Captain has for many years conducted the hotel business on a large scale, having had a most beautiful place. The government recently took over Lake Kachess for irrigation purposes and the law prevents anybody from purchasing land located within their jurisdiction.

The Gold Hill hotel has been repaired within the last few days and is now being thoroughly overhauled and will be completely refurnished from top to bottom. The furniture is now being installed by Cuthbert & Co.

The traveling public will be greatly benefited by the change of management, and from now on are assured of a first class place to stay as well as being able to get first class meals.

TROOPS ARE ON WAY TO JUARAZ

EL PASO, Texas, April 27.—Three hundred Mexican federal troops are marching toward Juarez, according to an unconfirmed rumor reaching here this afternoon. If this report is well founded, it means a violation of the armistice, which provides that no troops should be moved in the Chihuahua zone during the cessation of hostilities.

Close friends of General Francisco Madero stated that the insurgent leader would resist any attempt of federals to join General Navarro's forces at Juarez.

Federal sympathizers pointed out that it was possible that the federals had received orders to go to Juarez before the armistice was declared. If this be so all the troops will be required to withdraw from the peace zone. All is reported quiet at the Madero camp today.

BOB TELFER CAN GO SOME HIMSELF

"Bob" Telfer, hero in the way you write it now, according to Chief of Police Hitson.

It all came about in this manner. A gang of graders employed on the automobile road at Pamice Hill have into town Wednesday and proceeded to celebrate among the denizens of Front street. They became disorderly and Chief Hitson, with a posse of brave men, including Bob was forced to round them up. In the mix up one of the graders spoke rather soothingly to "Bob" calling him some very pretty names and "Bob" being bashful, resented them by landing a left hook to the jaw, sending his man down for the count.

In the police court this morning Mayor Merrick fined the man $10 and costs but was forced to remit $5 upon finding out that the city recorder had already taken value received for the amount. Hero or otherwise, "Bob" is there with the goods, and it behooves all law abiding citizens to keep away from him.

2100 FEET TRACK BEING BUT IN

Medford will have increased switching facilities when the new tracks now being laid by the Southern Pacific are finished. Nearly 2100 feet of track are to be laid south of Main street and will be so placed so as to be convenient to all having occasion to load or unload freight.

The switch used by the Medford Ice Company and the one used by the Clark and Henry Construction Company are to be lengthened. The roadway along the switch will be graded and graveled, thus allowing for the approach of horses and wagons. The freight business of Medford is increasing rapidly and the new switches will be ready for the fall shipments of fruit and produce.

No Anarchists in Paterson.

PATERSON, N. J., April 27.—Having squelched the baseless lie that Paterson is a "hotbed of anarchy" and proved to their own satisfaction—that there are no "reds" in the city, the members of the board of trade today inaugurated a "clean city" campaign. From today until April 29 every man, woman and child in the city will wear a button with the slogan, "Paterson, N. J.—A Clean City," and will endeavor to make the boast literally true.

GEORGE E. BOOS NEW SECRETARY

After an hour of balloting Wednesday afternoon the board of directors of the Medford Commercial Club chose George E. Boos, formerly of Seattle, as secretary-manager of the club to succeed Charles A. Malboeuf, resigned. Mr. Boos will receive a salary of $150 a month.

Several other applicants were in the race among them, being Hal Conrad, formerly secretary of the club, Ed M. Andrews, who has been identified with Medford's growth for the past several years and Harry H. Hicks city editor of the Mail Tribune.

The balloted was spirited, Mr. Hicks taking the lead and holding it until the eighth ballot when one of his supporters swung to Mr. Boos, who had the necessary number to elect. The board then declared his election unanimous.

Mr. Boos who takes up the duties of the office, so well administered by Charles A. Malboeuf, comes well recommended. He has recently been employed by the government in the census department. Previous to that time he was identified with the A. Y. P. exposition and was secretary of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce. He came to Southern Oregon last fall and has invested in the valley, purchasing two tracts in Rogue lands, Inc.

Mr. Malboeuf leaves Friday night and Mr. Boos will take up his new duties immediately.

The commercial club met last evening and ratified the action of the board of directors. Mr. Boos addressed the members and was assured of their hearty support.

A letter of appreciation of the services of Mr. Malboeuf was ordered drawn and presented to him.

STOCK YARDS TO BE MOVED SOON

The unsightly stock yards which occupy a space across from the new Southern Pacific depot are to be removed to Crater Lake Junction, where they will still be convenient to cattle men and not be an eye sore to the traveling public. The ground now occupied by the yards will be filled in and graded. The same system that is being employed between the tracks and Front street will be used here and a beautiful park, planted to shrubbery and blooming flowers will soon rest the wafarer who is forced to loiter about the depot.

Hoskins for Health.

GRADER NOW ON SOUTH SIDE

The Clark and Henry Company have transferred their grading outfit to the south side of town and are preparing for the paving in that section. South Holly street is being excavated and leveled and work will commence in other sections of the south side in a very short time. Paving material has been placed in many of the streets and when underway the work will go through with a rush.

Dad Weds Son's Girl.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Mrs. David Kaufman, who was Miss Jennie Marks, came within an ace of being the bride of the son of her husband. Up to a few months ago she was the sweetheart of Moses Kaufman, the 28-year-old son of David Kaufman. When Moses and she had a row she turned for sympathy to the 45-year-old father. The old man, who is rich, proved a gallant swain. The six other sons objected to their father marrying a woman 40 years his junior, but failed to stop the nuptials.
