SHORT CHANGE ARTIST AT WORK

Two Grants Pass Boys Are Buncoed Out of $10 by Smooth Young Man Who Posed as Landlord and Took Their Change.

Two young men from Grants Pass were victims of a short change artist Tuesday night at the Royal rooming house. They had attended the circus and went to the rooming house shortly after midnight. Going up the steps they were met by a young man who inquired if they wanted rooms and upon stating their wishes he conducted them to a room, and having no change they handed him a $10 gold piece. The man whom they supposed to be the landlord told them to wait and he would get the change. He went down stairs and has not been seen since.

The management claims he was not connected with the establishment and refunded the money rather than have any trouble over the affair. The two men hunted all of Wednesday morning for the thief but could not locate him.

Relief Sent Chinese. SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 3.—Relief was sent today to the ten Chinese castaways who have been on one of the coronado islands for fifteen days with little food and no water. A sloop, said to have been engaged by Charles Sam, a Chinese merchant of Escondido, lower California was towed from that port to the island by the steamer St. Denis on her way up to San Diego. The men on the sloop intended to take the marooned Chinese back to Escondido, from which port they were taken by would-be smugglers, who later abandoned them on the island.
