TEDDY DISCUSSES M'NAMARA CASE

Ex-President Issues Plea for Square Deal for Both Sides—Deprecates Introduction of Any Class Sentiment.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Writing under the caption "Murder Is Murder," former President Theodore Roosevelt contributes an article to the Outlook this week on the arrests made by Detective William J. Burns on John J. and James B. McNamara and Ortle McManigal in connection with the alleged dynamiting in Los Angeles. The article runs: "There is one feature of the development as regards the arrest of certain alleged labor men in connection with the dynamite outrage perpetrated against the Los Angeles Times to which especial attention should be called. If the explosion was not an accident, but the deliberate act of any man or men, it was an outrage of dastardly iniquity, for it was one of those crimes in which the murderer, in order to gratify his spite against an individual, not merely wrecked that individual's property, but with callous indifference took the lives of a score of innocent people as an incident to the achievement of his sinister and criminal purpose. The men responsible for dynamiting the Los Angeles Times are responsible not only for the wreck of the newspaper office, but for the loss of many lives.

JEFFRIES OFF TO SEE KING GEORGE

Sails for Europe to Witness Coronation—Much Difference in His Departure Today and That of Two Years Ago When He Sailed.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Among the 2000 passengers who sailed for England today on the steamship George Washington to witness the coronation was James J. Jeffries. When Jeffries sailed two years ago, expecting to defeat Jack Johnson on his return, a boisterous crowd saw him off. Today there was only one loyal friend at the pier. That was Bob Vernon. But the ex-champion was downcast. "Can you come back?" Vernon asked. "Yes," he replied, "I can come back— from abroad."

LOS ANGELES POLICE DOUBT THAT KELLY IS WANTED
LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 5.—Very little attention is being paid by the Los Angeles police to advices from Grand Junction, Col., that Thomas Kelly, under arrest there as a burglar, was supposed to be a Times dynamite suspect. Kelly, the police say, from the Grand Junction police description, resembles slightly David Kaplan, alleged dynamiter, but he is too young. A complete description of Kaplan has been forwarded to the Grand Junction authorities, but unless something further develops, no official will be sent there to assist in identification.

DEEDS FILED; PLANT SOLD.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—Definite confirmation of the report sent out by the United Press of the sale of the Rison iron works to the United States corporation was obtained today with the filing of the deed for record. The price said to have been in the neighborhood of $2,500,000.

VICTIM OF DRINK NEEDS URINE.

Drink cunningly destroys the will power, and while the drunkard wants to do what you tell him, he wants a thousand times more the drink that he craves. Medical treatment is necessary. Urine destroys the desire for liquor, so that the drink will not be missed and restores the patient to health. This remedy is thoroughly scientific and is so uniformly successful that it is sold with a guarantee to refund your money if after a trial it has not benefited. Booklet free on request. The Urine company, Urine building, Washington, D. C. Sold in this city by Leon B. Haskins, 214 East Main street, Medford, Or.
