EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

(By A. C. Howlett.)

Tuesday last A. B. Salling, William Muller, Dr. Hurts and L. C. Plagg called late in the afternoon for dinner. Mr. Salling, we all know, was not looking for land as that is his business. Mr. Muller was out looking after the electric light franchise. Dr. Hurst, also from Medford, was looking over the country, and Mr. Plagg of Illinois was looking for a location. They apologized for being late for dinner on the ground that they had punctured a tire in their auto, but they got dinner all the same.

I omitted to state in my last that Mr. Maney had a large band of horses and mules driven through here last week, and that they were at work on the road between Derby and Rogus, and that they got dinner all the same. The sub-contractor has a large force at work and is pushing the work along as fast as possible.

Messrs. Summerhorn and Tull were out a few days ago looking after their business in the horse line.

Last Monday Mrs. Howlett, William Taylor, William Van der Hellen and Mr. J. J. Bucher of Medford went to Butte Falls to attend the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Eagle Point-Butte Falls Telephone company, returning the same day. Mr. Bucher is the commercial manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. The company contemplates making some decided improvements on the line between Butte Falls and Central Point, and in the near future we will have the line in shape so that we can do business right along.

I understand that Mr. Deter is going to put in a laundry here. He is fixing up the house formerly occupied by the Butte Falls Lumber company for that purpose.

The Pacific & Eastern Railroad company have changed their time table so that we do not get our mail so early in the morning and earlier in the afternoon, as the train leaves Butte Falls at 7 a. m., arriving here at 9:10; leaves here at 9:20 and returns at 11:15 a. m., with our mail instead of at 9:20 a. m., and our afternoon mail reaches us about 1:30 p. m., and then goes on to Butte Falls that night.

Mrs. Swanson of Elk creek came out from Medford Tuesday night and took the Prospect stage Wednesday morning for her home. She said that was the first time that she had been out from her home on Elk creek for three years.

Mr. Edward Olson, a traveling salesman of Butte, Mont., who is taking a layoff, is here visiting his business partner, Mr. Fred McClure, and looking over their holdings here. Mr. McClure has bought several tracts of land since his arrival a few months ago. He has engaged a room at the Sunnyside and expects to remain for some time. I have not been able to elicit from him what he thinks of these parts, but he seems to be favorably impressed.

Diamond & Heath have opened up a watch cleaning establishment in their store building.

A. B. Zimmerman has torn away the old board fence in front of his residence and put in instead a neat picket fence.

Paul Hata and wife and Mr. Hutchison of Rogue river were doing business with our merchants Wednesday.

S. M. Wood and wife of the Medford Grocery company of Medford were here for dinner Thursday. Mr. Wood seems to be doing a thriving business with our merchants and they in turn are doing a good business with their customers.

E. V. Coffin of the Southern Oregon Produce company was also at the Sunnyside for dinner at the same time.

G. W. Hurling of Pasadena, Cal., aged 83 years, arrived Thursday, at the Sunnyside to await the train to go home to visit his grand daughter, Mrs. Alvina Peyton.
