SOON TO VOTE ON ANNEXATION

May 9 and 10 Are Dates Set on Which to Take Additional Territory Into the City on the South and the West

A special city election will be held May 9 and 10, the purpose of which is to decide on the annexation of more new additions to the city of Medford. On May 9 the addition lying south of the city limits will be voted upon and or the 10th those lying west of the limits will be considered.

NOTED BIBLE STUDENT WILL DELIVER ADDRESS

Will Appear Under Auspices of International Bible Students' Association at Commercial Hall Next Monday Evening-No Admission or Collection.

A free Bible lecture will be given by Jas. H. Cole of New York at Commercial Hall Monday night.

Judging from the many comments this speaker has received through the press. ooth in Canada as well as in the United States, the lecture will be well worth hearing.

The speaker is traveling under th auspices of the International Bible Students' association. The object of this association is to stimulate Bible study aiding Christians of any and every denomination to a better and deeper un derstanding of God's word. Rev. Jas. H. Cole should be heard by a large audience.

Swecker is a veteran of the civil war, and a somewhat ccentric character. Last fall be announced himself as a candidate for congress in the First Tennessee district, canvassing every county. He disappeared from his home a few days ago. The body of a man answering Swecker's description was found by Southern radiway employes. Death resulted either from murder or from being struck by a train. In a pocket of the dead man were papers containing the name of Swecker, and this, together with marked resemblances, led to a positive identification.
