

FREIGHT TRAIN DELAYS FLYER

Jacksonville Cannon Ball Limited Derailed—Huge Mogue Tugs in Vain to Get it Back on Track—Second Engine Called Into Service.

The Jacksonville "Flyer" was considerably off schedule late Saturday afternoon on account of a derailed box car consigned to the Big Pines Lumber company. The giant mogul tugged and snorted, and finally, with the assistance of another engine, dragged the derailed car off the switch. A resident of Jacksonville is thinking of instigating a suit against the company because 20 cents' worth of choice fish he was taking to his wife was likely to spoil.

YOUNG MAN HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Thrown From Wheel and Run Over by Automobile Man Escapes Death—Shoulder Dislocated—Is Badly Injured.

Thrown from his bicycle and rolled over and over under the wheels of an automobile driven by Mr. Waterman, chauffeur for Walter Boyd, Frank Miller of Central Point had a miraculous escape from death about 6:45 o'clock Saturday evening. Passenger train No. 16 of the Southern Pacific had just pulled in and the road on both sides of the tracks was packed with automobiles and conveyances of all sorts. Turning from North Front street south into Main street Waterman was forced to cut a square turn on account of an automobile and a buggy standing side by side at the curb, thus being thrown past the center of the street. In the machine with the driver were Mrs. Walter Boyd, Mrs. T. G. Boyd and Mrs. E. C. Ayler. Miller was coming north on Main street and had crossed the railroad tracks when he saw the automobile and according to the spectators dodged to the left. Waterman turned to the right as the rules of driving require but upon seeing the bicycle rider turned to the left again as did Miller and the two crashed together not ten feet from the south curbing. Miller was thrown directly between the front wheels and it is a mystery how he ever passed under the front axle. He was forced through in some way and rolled head over heels under the machine striking his back and head furious blows against the bottom of the machine and the pavement. Waterman applied his brakes immediately and brought his car to a stand still and went to the assistance of the injured man. Miller was taken immediately to the office of Dr. Stearns where he was found to be badly bruised about the body and his right shoulder dislocated. His clothes were badly torn and his scalp was severely lacerated. As yet no blame can be attached to either party but Chief Hiltson has the names of several witnesses and the matter will be more closely investigated.
