SOCIALISTS AT COUNTY PICNIC

Addresses, Songs and Readings Follow Elaborate Luncheon in Grove Near Talent—"America" up to Date is Rendered.

A large number of socialists attended the first county picnic held at Phoenix Grove Sunday, May 7. Talent local of socialists had charge of arrangements. The affair opened up with a song entitled "America Up-to-Date" to the tune of "America," and reads as follows:

Our country 'tis of thee,
Land of prosperity,
Where whistles blow,
Where children work all day,
No chance to run or play,
Where greed and might hold sway
Thy name we love.

Almighty God, to thee
Buyer of liberty,
To thee we sing,
Our land is full of graft,
And William Howard Taft,
Who's smaller fore than aft,
Our mighty king.

An old-fashioned lunch was spread on a long table covered with plenty for all. Mrs. F. M. Sweet of Talent was toastmaster, and responses were given by F. M. Sweet, C. M. Pfeister, Carl M. Arnold and G. H. Millar. For the afternoon exercises E. E. Walters was elected chairman and a program was given as follows:

Song, "The Red Flag"; address by Collins, "The Aims of the I. W. W."; recitation by Miss Sweet entitled "Our God, O' Gored";

Other addresses by F. M. Sweet, Harvey Richardson and Carl M. Arnold, including the reading of an article of E. V. Debs, entitled "Humanity," by W. H. Shulz, concluded the exercises.

WEST DISCUSSES PUBLIC CONTROL

Governor States That Regulation by Nation and State is Here to Stay—Properly Enforced It Will Be Safeguard to Investors.

DENVER, Col., May 8.—Governor Oswald West of Oregon in reply to an inquiry sent out by a Denver news bureau asking his views on the recent position taken by Theodore N. Vail, president of the Western Union Telegraph company, approving the commission regulation of public service corporations, makes the following statement:

"As soon as the heads of all large public corporations bow to the inevitable, as Mr. Vail has done, and join with the friends of public service regulation in their attempt to solve this most important problem, the sooner will the old fight between the people and these corporations be ended and they will be given by the people that decent and fair treatment to which good conduct and fair dealing entitles them.

"Government regulation of public service corporations has come to stay. It was not understood at first, except by a few close students of the question, but now both the people and the corporations are beginning to see the advantages of such regulation. The people are finding that it opens up the way whereby the humblest citizen of the land can find prompt and adequate redress against the largest corporations and with little or no cost to himself. The corporations are finding that they are getting fair treatment at the hands of the state and federal commissions and that a better understanding between the people and the railroads is being brought about.

These companies are finding that they can turn to the commissions for protection against ill-advised and hostile legislation, with the result that as government regulation is extended the railroad lobbies at the state and federal capitols will gradually disappear.

"Many of the public service corporations have grown so great that they have become an important factor in our system of government and are becoming more so every day. The time will come when they will cease to be footballs for stock speculators, and their stocks will be looked upon, largely due to the fact that they are under government control, as a safe and sane investment for the small investor."

STONE ACTS FOR SOUTHERN ORE.

At Meeting of Fish and Game Commission Tried to Secure Appointment of Rogue River Valley Man as Fifth Commissioner.

SALEM, Or., May 8.—In an interview after the meeting of the new fish and game commission, Commissioner C. F. Stone of Klamath Falls stated:

George H. Kelly of Eugene was selected by the commission as its fifth member. I presented the claims of the Rogue River valley section, and while there appeared to be a very strong sentiment in favor of giving that locality the representation, the idea that I had been appointed for southern Oregon seemed fixed, and as a result the selection was made from territory farther north.

"I took up the matter of feeding the hatch of steelheads at Trail. The fish commissioner has instructed the government agent in charge to draw on him for any sum required.

"I also brought the question of another fish ladder to the attention of the members of the commission and have their assurance that the matter will receive the attention of the board at its meeting the 23d of this month.

"I ask the people of southern Oregon to command me in any matter in which I may be able to serve them."
