

REFUGEES COME FROM ENSENADA

Ship is Crowded With Those Who Would Escape From Mexican City—American Consul Remains at His Post of Duty.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 15.—Another load of refugees arrived from Ensenada today on the steamer San Diego, comprising 100 men, women and children, principally Mexicans. Among them were 50 girls and young women. The American consul, George Schaeffer, has declared he would stay in the town at the time of the expected rebel attack. The 400 Chinese at Ensenada have arranged for an ocean-going steamer to take them out to sea during the fight. Five Chinamen came on the San Diego, traveling to San Francisco, in bond, en route to China. Nothing was heard today of the Mexican regiment which was near Mexicali under Colonel Major.

Although it was reported Saturday that Ensenada had been a panic-stricken town, those who arrived on the San Diego today declared that the defenders of the town had regained confidence and expected to be able to hold the city against the rebels. They have a gunboat and some machine guns, besides 200 men to man the trenches, while the rebels must fight in the open after making a 100 mile trip from their base of supplies.

BURNS MEN ARE SAID TO HAVE LOOTED SAFE

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 15.—Leo Huppaport, attorney for the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, caused a sensation here today by charging robbery of the safe of the union headquarters at the time of the arrest here of John J. McNamara, its secretary, for alleged complicity in dynamiting at Los Angeles. Huppaport declared that $422.02, which had been deposited in the union safe before William J. Burns and his detectives searched the premises, was missing. Huppaport declares that Burns, Walter Drew of the National Erectors association and J. A. G. Badoff, his assistant, examined everything in the McNamara safe and that since their inspection the money was missing.

WANTS LICENSE TO KILL

HAMMOND, Ind., May 15.—John Hanadak, a farmer, who has lost hundreds of chickens by theft, appeared in the office of the county court today and asked for a hunting license. Asked why he wanted a license he declared he wanted to hunt the man who had stolen his fowls. Although told that a hunting license did not cover the shooting of chicken thieves, the foreigner insisted on having the document issued.

SUPREME COURT DECIDES GREAT STANDARD OIL CASE

the Standard Oil company should be forced to comply with the law was inadequate, and announced that it would grant six months in which the Standard should begin to dissolve. At the conclusion of Chief Justice White's reading of the decision Assistant Justice Harlan read a dissenting opinion.

Hard Fought Case

Today's decision of the United States supreme court in the Standard Oil case is the culmination of a long and hard fought battle by the government to kill the $500,000,000 combine it claimed was the greatest octopus in the business world, which is headed by John D. Rockefeller, the world's richest man. It probably has been the most costly litigation ever undertaken in America. Additional interest was lent to today's decision from the fact that Judge Willis Vandevanter, one of President Taft's recent appointees, to the highest bench in the land, participated as a judge of the Eighth United States circuit court in the appealed decision handed down by that tribunal against the Standard. Heretofore a judge who has taken part in a decision by a lower court has refrained from sitting on the same case when it came before the higher court for review, but in this case Judge Vandevanter sat at Taft's request.

Man, 72, Is Murderer

MURPHYSBORO, Ill., May 15.—Following the verdict of a coroner's jury which declared that he was guilty of "wanton, wilful and malicious murder," and was sane, James Freeman, 72, today in his cell told how he killed his wife, 28, because he suspected that she was unfaithful. "I have known for 14 months," said Freeman, "that my wife was visiting a doctor in his office at Carbondale. She had an operation performed 14 months ago. I begged her to give up the physician for the sake of our children, but she would not. As my wife went into the cellar to get butter and eggs to take to town, I placed my left arm around her neck, drew my knife and cut her throat from ear to ear. Neighbors talked me out of killing myself. My wife went to the doctor, and I believed her to more in the wrong."

Drowned in Shallow Water

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 15.—Hurled into a pond of water three feet deep by the overturning of their automobile near Newport, Charles King, a rancher, and his son, Roscoe, age 8, are dead today. The two were pinned underneath the machine and drowned before assistance could be brought to them. Mildred King, age 15, who was with her father and brother when the accident occurred, was thrown 20 feet through the air, landing in the water and escaping injury.

Freight Holds Up Limited

The Shasta Limited was 11 hours behind schedule time Sunday, a wrecked freight train near Castle, Calif., just over the California line being the cause. The passenger is due here about 2 a. m., and did not reach here until 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Stocks Gain

NEW YORK, May 15.—Small gains were made by a majority of the entire stocks at the opening of today's market. Canadian Pacific rose 1 point, Pacific 5-8 and Union Pacific and Western Maryland 1-2. Pennsylvania and American Sugar declined fractionally. The market closed strong. Bonds were steady.

Students of Vassar College Present Interesting Dance

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., May 13.—A resplendent and colorful spectacle that filled and held the eye delighted hundreds of spectators, when the students of Vassar college observed the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the institution by open air exercises on the college grounds, consisting in the main of pageant and dances and songs. If there is any spot on the exploratory globe which poses a folk dance that was not shown time in the program the spot itself must have been to blame in not sending its specifications beforehand. From the stroke of noon until the shadows of afternoon lengthened, good looking girls clad in a rainbow of brilliant costumes awayed before the beholder like a living garden.

CHARGED WITH BEATING HOUSE

Warrant Out for Man Who is Said to Have Cheated Proprietors of Bungalow Annex Out of $3.25 on a Board Bill.

A warrant, charging one Peter Fogular with cheating the Bungalow Annex out of $3.25 was issued by Justice Taylor Monday morning. Fogular is said to have signed the Thompson-Starrett company's name to a $5 meal ticket. He left Medford Monday morning, bound for Portland, and the police of all northern towns have been notified to arrest him. Look for the ad that tells you who wants to find the job you have to offer.

MOTHERS DAY IS OBSERVED

Nearly All of the Churches in the City Observed the Day—Men for the Most Part Were Flowers in Honor of the Day.

Inquiry today showed that Mothers' day was observed in practically all the churches in Medford and that most of the sermons delivered were on the subjects of mother and home. The custom of wearing a white carnation in honor of the day was followed, to a certain extent, particularly by men who attended church. Look for the loser of the articles you have found—for a prompt ad may save him a lot of worry.

LOOKS FOR RETURN OF CHRIST SOON

Annie Besant, Head of Theosophical Society Says Great World Teacher Will Soon Arrive—Age of Militarism is Now Closing.

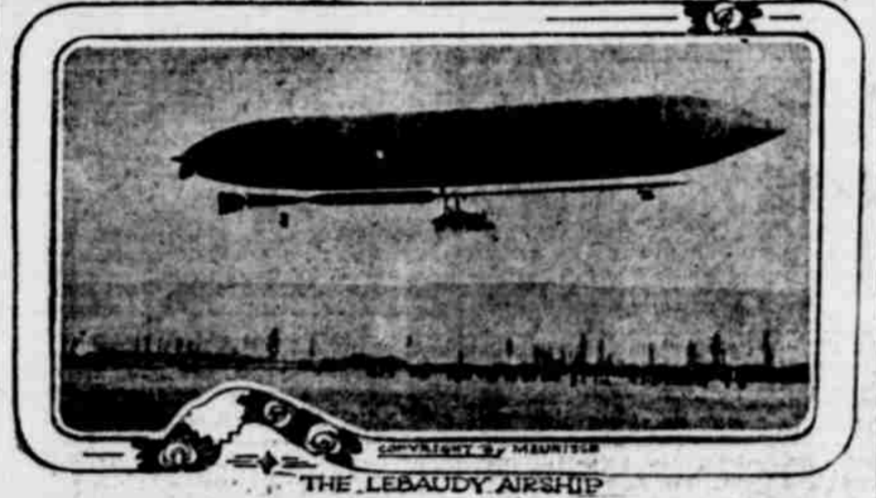

LONDON, May 15.—Announcement of an impending reincarnation of Christ is made here today by Annie Besant, head of the Universal Theosophical society and high priestess of the occult. Arriving from India, Mrs. Besant said: "Everything tends to show that the time is at hand for the arrival of the great World Teacher. Physical and social changes throughout the world tell that the age of militarism is closing and that fraternity is to be the watchword. The future Anglo-American peace treaty is one sign, but the world's peace is not unachievable. It is not far distant. Then our age will close and a new age will open."

JURY AGAIN IS PROBING GRAFT

Three More Men Will Probably Be Indicted Before Wednesday—Senate Investigating Committee Has Taken a Recess.

COLUMBIUS, O., May 15.—The grand jury investigating the alleged legislative grafting resumed its sessions here today. It is believed that it will indict three more men before it takes a recess on Wednesday, and these indictments, when found, are expected to cause further confessions, largely as a result of the evidence of wholesale bootlegging gathered by the detectives of William J. Burns' agency. The senate investigating committee, perturbed at published charges that it plans to whitewash the bootlegging legislators, today took a recess until the grand jury finishes its investigation. ## Great Airship Meets Disaster

The great Lebaudy airship met disaster at Aldershot on her first trial voyage when she returned England last October. After an hour's successful flight the big dirigible fouled a tree and burst her envelope while descending to the Farnborough plateau. With an appalling noise, which frightened nearby residents, the airship crashed upon the roofs of the houses, where she remains a complete wreck. Of her seven passengers, two of whom were members of the advisory committee formed to purchase the airship for the nation, one was injured. The airship had a capacity of 352,000 cubic feet.

TURN EXPENSE INTO INVESTMENT

If it's merely a question of what you can "get along with," use an ordinary paper for your business stationery. If, however, you are seeking to turn expense into investment, use

OLD HAMPSHIRE BOND
"Look for the Water Mark"

The added influence given your messages by the clean, crisp sheets will wipe out the expense item and leave a balance on the other side.

A little journey into the workings of your own mind will strengthen our argument. To help, ask us for a specimen book of the paper showing letterheads and other business forms, printed, lithographed and engraved on the white and fourteen colors of Old Hampshire Bond. It's worth having.

CONGRESS NOT DOING MUCH

Gets Palm Over Previous Session for Lack of Accomplishment—Senate Debates Seven and Half Hours Over President Pro Tem.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15.—For lack of accomplishment, observers of the activities of the 62d congress here today united in awarding it the palm over all previous congresses. To date the house has met 27 days and been in session 143 hours and 5 minutes. The senate has met 15 days and been in session 37 hours and 14 minutes. Last week each branch met on three days. The house was in session 17 hours and 13 minutes, the senate 7 1/2 hours. During the week the house passed the farmers' free list bill. The senate consumed 15 1/2 hours in a futile effort to elect a president pro tem. Look at the advertised real estate with a coldly critical eye—and if it still "looks good," buy!
