Additional information regarding Arthur Barnes has been received. Before his death Tuesday morning Barnes was able to state that his folks resided in Mohawk, Mo. A telegram was immediately sent and about 5 o'clock Tuesday evening Chief Hillson received a reply from Courtney Barnes, a brother, telling him to forward the remains immediately at the least possible expense. Later a telegram was received from W. R. Rush of the Polk County bank in Mohawk guaranteeing all expenses.

A coroner's inquest being unnecessary, the remains will be forwarded to his former home.

A wrecking train was sent here from Roseburg and the tracks cleared by the middle of the afternoon. Nothing has been heard of Barnes' companion, who was on the car with him and who disappeared after informing the police of the accident.

Harry Wentzel, while endeavoring to shove his automobile forward Tuesday afternoon, caught his left hand in the brake drum and had it bruised badly.

The car was standing in the street by his music shop and, wishing to use it, Mr. Wentzel grasped the spokes of one of the rear wheels and endeavored to push the car forward to get a straight run into the street. His hand became jammed in the brake and he was forced to pull the car back before he could extricate the member. No bones were broken, but the flesh was badly bruised and the services of a physician were required.
