

FINLEY CHOSEN GAME WARDEN

SALEM, May 25.—Finding in their judgment the 12 different applicants for game warden were not eligible, the fish and game commission requested W. S. Finley to resign as a member of the commission and accept the game warden office, which Finley did, and was duly elected warden to succeed R. L. Stevenson. Although the commission found the dozen of applicants for the position qualified in many respects, they failed to show the required knowledge of game protection in this state and were therefore set aside.

On account of Finley's resignation, it will be necessary for Governor West to appoint another member to fill the vacancy, which member will hold the position of secretary of the board. Appointment has not been made as yet, but it is understood the governor has a man in view, Finley was the first man appointed on new commission by the governor and his term extends four years. Game Warden Finley will take up his duties immediately and stated today that he would probably make his headquarters in Portland.

Mr. Finley is president of the Audubon society.

Two definite new policies were agreed upon by the board—establishment of a state wide system of fish hatcheries with a central collecting station and districting of the state for better supervision of game wardens' work.

The central fish hatchery and collecting station will probably be on one of four streams, McKenzie river, Willowa river, Upper Deschutes river or Spring creek in Klamath county. From the central collecting station young fry will be taken out to the subhatcheries over state and reared until they are known to be capable of surviving in open streams. Other plans for developing the supplies of game fish over the state will be taken up as fast as time and the funds of the board will permit.

WILL EXAMINE LOCAL PROJECT

A number of business men will leave this afternoon for a tour of the northern end of the valley in order to look over the project of the Rogue River Valley Canal company and "get acquainted." In this manner local people will gain a closer view of what is being done to develop "the desert," which is a misnomer by the way.

Among those who have said they would make the trip are: H. G. Nicholson, John M. Root, Porter J. Noff, Mayor Canon, Dr. J. F. Reddy, H. Lumsden, Frank Hatchison, Judge Crowell, H. C. Kentner, Harry Wortman, William Colvig, Jack Sheridan, A. S. Rosenbaum, Al Perry, L. C. Coleman of San Francisco, "Shorty" Garnett, W. L. Vawter, George Carston, Colonel Frank Tou Velle and Jeff Heard.

WATER USERS IN CITY INCREASE

There are 1360 water users at the present time residing within the city limits of Medford according to a count just made by the city recorder. Over 1500 water users are on the books, the others being without the city. This is an increase from 670 in two years, or since Recorder Telfer took office.

The receipts during the quarter ending May 31, have been $7250. Two years ago for a corresponding quarter they were $2100, the increase being $5150 or over 200 per cent.

The water department is paying good money on the investment, the receipts paying all interest on the bonded indebtedness and leaving enough for a sinking fund.
