Los Angeles Agitators Distrust New Chief Just as Much as Old-Only Their Own Rule Satisfactory to Socialist Bureau,

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 26 .-We now look upon Provisional President Madero with the same distrust as we did Danz," said Ricardo Flores Magon, head of the liberal junta today "and General Viljoen will certainly meet with a warm reception should he follow out Madero's instructions to come to Lower California at once to crush the insurgents.

"If Viljoen obeys Madero he should arrive in Lower California early next week and a terrific battle may be expected. It means war to the end. The liberals will not stand by while Viljoen is 'crushing' the insurgents. Madero has proven that he is of the same calibre as Diaz."
