NASAL CATARRH

Mrs. E. Karberg Says it is Easy to Get Rid of

"A bad case of catarrh was cured for me by the use of HYOMEI. The trouble affected my head, nose and eyes, and was very annoying and disagreeable, and the cure, from the use of HYOMEI, was very gratifying. HYOMEI has from me a strong recommendation and endorsement."

—Mrs. E. Karberg, 213 Kingsley street, Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 16, 1908.

HYOMEI (pronounced High-o-me) cures catarrh, because it gets where the germs are, and destroys them. It is made of Australian eucalyptus, mixed with other healing antiseptics. When breathed over the irrigated membrane, it gives relief in two minutes.

Used regularly for a few weeks it will build up and heal the germ infested membrane and drive out catarrh.

If you own a small Hyomei pocket inhaler, you can get a bottle of HYOMEI at drugists everywhere, or at Chas. Drugg for only 50 cents. If you do not own a Hyomei inhaler, ask for a complete outfit, the price is $1.00. It is guaranteed to cure catarrh, coughs, colds, croup or sore throat, or money back.

BASE BALL

Tomorrow, Medford vs. Buicks From indications the ball game tomorrow will be hotly contested. The Buicks have a strong line up and have contended all along that they have as strong a team as the regulars.

It is reported that the Buicks will play Joe McCurdy the old time leaguer at short, who will certainly add great strength to the team. The Buicks will have an even chance to win. Medford will have about its regular line up. With Hill catcher and either Burgess or McQuoid as pitcher. The Medford team has no game for next Sunday up to date, as the Grants Pass team plays the O. R. N. team of Portland next Sunday. If the game is close and interesting tomorrow, possibly the same teams will play again next Sunday on the Medford grounds. The game tomorrow will start at 3 p. m.

CHUTES BURN; LOSS $300,000 SEVERAL DIE

San Francisco's Amusement Resort Destroyed by Incendiary Fire Early This Morning—Three Bodies Recovered.

NEARBY LODGING HOUSES COMPLETELY DESTROYED

But Few Wild Animals at Place—Lodgers Injured by Leaping to Pavement.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 29.—Charred to a crisp the bodies of three adults lie in the morgue here, several persons are missing, and a score are seriously, some fatally injured as the result of a fire at the Chutes Amusement Pavilion which caused a loss of more than $250,000 and which the police believe was the work of an incendiary.

Only one of the three bodies recovered from the fire ruins at noon had been identified. It was that of John Boettlinger, a chauffeur, whose identity was discovered from a ring which still clung to his charred hand. The other two bodies were so badly burned that even their sex cannot be determined without a close examination.

Close questioning by the police of persons who had lived in the Chutes lodging house, revealed the story that the fire started in at least four places simultaneously. Some former tenants of the building declared they had moved out because of a fear that the place would be burned. No definite statement on the matter has yet been made by the police but detectives are running down a score of clues and it is expected that arrests will be made before long.

Besides the Chutes building itself structures in the vicinity, principally stores on the other side of Fillmore street were destroyed. It is not believed, however, that any lives were lost in any other structure than the Chutes.

Started in Restaurant. The fire started in the Chutes restaurant, in the Southwest section of the Chutes property about one o'clock. The flimsy construction of the buildings and the high wind caused the flames to spread rapidly and the lodging houses on either side of the burning structures were soon also in flames, as were the places across the street.

Fortunately there were very few animals in the zoo, the greater part of them having been removed to British Columbia when the Chutes managerie closed recently. The few monkeys and a cub bear that remained were easily rescued.

Lodging House Blaze. The fires which started in the lodging houses in the vicinity were the sources of the greatest danger. Sergeant M. T. Cooney and Policemen Neilson, Collins and Lord were on the ground soon after the fire started, and attracted by the screams of the women in the blazing buildings, fought their way through the flames and carried several to safety.

The property loss was very heavy. Besides the Chutes proper, the Star Theater, the Portola Photograph Gallery, the clothing store of Joseph Lowenstein, the Auto Vandeville Theater and several other places of business were totally destroyed.

A number of lodgers were seriously injured by jumping from windows. Belle Alviso, aged 19, received a fractured skull in a leap from the second story of her lodging, and Joseph J. Fleat and William Williams were both seriously hurt.

So fiercely did the fire spread through the flimsy structures about the Chutes Building that for a time the efforts of the firemen to check it were in vain and only after the use of dynamite to blast a clearance about the flaming mass was it at last subdued.

In all the loss on the Chutes and other structures destroyed will reach close to $300,000.

Hurt in Runaway. William Duncan, James Black, Mrs. Black and Miss Jessie Black had a narrow escape from death Sunday near the Modoc Orchard when the team they were driving ran away. They were all bruised considerably.

NOTICE. The Rev. Mr. Smaley of Portland preaches in the Free Methodist church on Tenth and Ivy streets Sunday, Morning and evening.

INQUEST HELD OVER M'CLAUGHERTY'S BODY

The coroner held an inquest over the remains of James McLaugherty who was electrocuted Saturday, Monday morning and returned a verdict of accidental death. A large number of witnesses were called.

The remains will probably be shipped to Texas for internment. They are at present in the custody of Deputy Coroner Peet.

THE WOLF, AT THE UGO MONDAY EVE

Tonight Harry Hollingsworth and company will make their debut in Medford. The company comes highly recommended and their opening play will be "The Wolf," a play that ran for two years in New York and one year in Chicago.

Miss Genevieve Cunningham will be seen in the leading role of the poor victim of a stern parent and her acting abilities are sure to win her pronounced favor with the Medford audience.

Mr. Harry Hollingsworth will be seen in the leads opposite Miss Cunningham, and together they make an excellent team. Mr. Hollingsworth like Miss Cunningham, has always won favor wherever he has appeared.

Now a word for Mr. Jack Woltemeyer, the villain of the company. Mr. Woltemeyer says he has always received hisses wherever he has been, and that always suits him.

Miss Babbie Gale is the soubrette of the company, and cunning little ways has always made her a big favorite.

Mr. Frank Burke is the comedian and comes to us with a good reputation. He was seen last year as "Push Miller" in Checkers.

Mr. Vay Howland, the character man, has just closed a successful engagement with the Chicago company as the Ol' Scotchman in "The Wolf," and we are to see an excellent performance of this part with the present company.

Mr. Armine Lamb will be seen in "The Trader," a part he has played many times.

Altogether the company is a very capable one and should give us some first class plays.

NEW ADDITION TO CITY'S MUSICAL CIRCLES

A valuable addition to musical circles in Medford in the person of Miss Gertrude Cameron of Moline, Ill., arrived last week and made her first appearance at St. Mark's church Sunday as a soloist.

Miss Cameron sang "Oh! Dry Those Tears" by Del Reigo, greatly to the pleasure of her hearers. She is a dramatic soprano. Her tones were beautiful all through her register and her high notes were clear and sweet as a bell.

Miss Cameron is visiting Colonel Frank L. Ton Velle, her cousin, who is a soloist of no mean merit, himself.

Medford, Or., May 16, 1911.—This is to certify that about November 1 my daughter was taken with a severe attack of rheumatism which rendered her left arm useless, in fact it was so near paralyzed that she was not able to move her fingers, but knowing of some of Dr. Chow Young's marvelous cures of long standing cases of rheumatism, we decided to consult him, in which I am pleased to say made no mistake, as his remedies acted as he claimed they would and after the third treatment the rheumatic pain entirely left her and she has not had any symptoms of rheumatism since; besides her general health is much improved and I do not hesitate in saying I believe those afflicted with rheumatism or paralysis will do well to consult Dr. Chow Young, whose house is corner of Tenth and Front street, Medford, Or.

A. P. WEISS.

TO THE PUBLIC. I have been at considerable expense and trouble to put my deer, elk, etc., at the front of my ranch, so that you could see and enjoy them. These animals are private property and as such are as much entitled to protection under the law as any other personal property.

It has become the custom of a great many to stop in front of my place and fill the air with every kind of discordant sounds in order to frighten the animals, thereby endangering my property by causing the animals to injure themselves. This is especially true of some autoists who stand in front of the pens and blow their horns for the especial purpose of frightening these animals.

Therefore I request that these animals be left undisturbed, and I hereby give notice that I will prosecute and sue for damages any person or persons caught molesting the animals on my place in any way whatever.
