

INSURGENTS PUT REGULARS OUT

Standpatters Worsted in Exciting Game—Much Fun Is Had at Hard Fought Ball Game—Score is 7 to 5 Weather Warm.

The Buick outlaws took a fall out of the Medford team yesterday 7 to 5, much to the delight of the great crowd who found their way to the grounds.

The game was to settle the championship of the city and also a lot of hot air arguments which have been going on around the town for several days.

Entering the contest but short-enders at 10 to 6 the outlaws certainly showed the speed and simply took the fans by storm when they scored seven runs in the first three innings while the regulars were trying to realize what had really happened.

McQuoid and Tomy opened for their respective teams, but both pitchers were forced to retire early in the game giving way to Burgess and Bragdaw.

Achie Weiffenbach walked to start the game and on a hit and run play Rader slashes a single through short, Gaffney drops a pop with a bunt and the bases are full with nobody out. Baker sours one to Horton who got Dutch at the plate but Jack Gill singled to right scoring Rader and Gaffney.

The regulars came back with a tally when Jeff Miles reached first, the ball taking a bad bound over Weiffenbach's head. Jeff went to third when Mitchell threw to right field to catch Shorty napping. Horton hit to second, Shorty scoring when Gaffney fumbled the ball.

The Buicks tallied again in the second. Mitchell retired second to first. Tomy reached first by striking at a mild pitch for a third strike. Dutch walked, Rader hit to second forcing Dutch. Tomy taking third on the play and Rader first; Gaffney walked, filling the bases; Al Baker with the crowd all pulling for a hit drove a double to right field scoring Tomy and Rader.

The seventh and last run by the Buicks was scored in the third off Burgess who had replaced McQuoid. Thynj singled to left marched to second on a passed ball and scored when Tomy doubled to deep center.

The fifth was the most interesting for the supporters of the home team and in this inning the score came very near being tied up. Only a little ball playing killed the chances of the home guards.

Jack Wilkinson was safe when Gill dropped his fly to left. Isaacs and Wilson went up on the air line to Patton and Gaffney. Antle bingled his second hit to left. Hill singled past second scoring Wilkinson. Burgess walked. Shorty Miles hit to short the ball getting away from Dutch Wettenbach scoring Antle and Hill Burgess was nailed, beating it for third on the error. This ended the scoring for both teams.

Here is the manner in which the men with the official pencil caught the game:

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

Mrs. M. Elliott and daughter, Miss Mildred of Rock Point were here to attend the Decoration day exercises and also to visit friends.

An alarm of fire was given at 1 p. m., Tuesday, our fire boys promptly responded. The fire was at the residence of Mr. Toomy, and was quickly extinguished, doing very little damage.

Decoration day ceremonies were largely attended by our people.

Many visitors were in Central Point from adjoining towns, Eagle Point being well represented and the day passed off very pleasantly.

Many of our people spent Tuesday afternoon in Medford among whom were Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Cingead, Mrs. Will Prewett, Miss Huiller, Miss Lee, Mrs. John Painter and daughter, Mrs. Charles Sullivan, Ray Dunlap, J. D. Lewis, A. E. Lewis.

L. Nichols, Clarence Pankey, William Martine, Mr. Littlefield, Mr. Palmer.

E. A. Ford returned from a visit to Batte Falls Tuesday morning. Constable Lee Ingram is visiting at Hornbrook, Cal.

Mrs. Stevens of Tolo was shopping here Tuesday morning. Mrs. Randall is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Whipple in Woodville.

The members of the M. E. church tendered their pastor, Rev. Hazelton, a farewell reception Monday evening. The church was well filled. The young ladies' choir of the evening singing some of the favorite sacred songs, Mr. Crowley, on behalf of the Y. M. C. A. made some very good remarks and presented Rev. Hazelton with a gift. The reverend gentleman responded telling why he resigned his charge here and what his future work would be. Ice cream and a variety of cake were passed around by the young ladies.

Mrs. Sanborn was a Woodville visitor Tuesday.

Scoops Around the Infield

BY SOX.

The game was too long drawn out and the players should show a little more pepper. It looks good from a spectators stand point.

Charley Terpening and Jack White lost their voices rooting in the first base bleachers. Terp is carrying cough drops galore around with him today, while Jack White is eating cracked ice.

Al Baker played a fine game in center field yesterday. Baker is a prince of a fellow and hardly ever is heard crabbing. With the sacks full Baker slammed a pop to right field which didn't taste well to the wise ones. And then they say Baker can't hit them on the outside.

Fred Roper relished the victory by the Buicks. Roper with Osborn, Weckler, Cole and dSt. Cyr made the trip to pull for the Buicks and they sure did some pulling. Osborn was a pleased chap when Gill caught that ball ending the game.

I guess Jeff Heard didn't do some boosting for the Buicks. Jeff with Frank Fraser, Tobe Brous and others livened up everybody in the auto section so the Buicks were in right in all sides. Jeff and Frank are on the inside looking out while Mose is on the outside looking in. Come Mose think it over and get in with the five ones.

Dan Sheehy was going around like Sweeney on the end book with the dollar bets. Finally Umpire Patton showed Dan a soft spot on the bench and Dan played the part. Mum was the word, I felt for you Dave, but couldn't reach you.

Rader is some classy third sacker. You folks that don't think so come to Jack McGlynn and he'll take you to the gazabo who inspects cranlums. Pinky showed class all the way and won several bets from Jack White. Jack and the kid had the betting fever on but Deerfoot slipped Jack the yellow fruit.

Mose I'll send up those tires and inner tubes before the next game when Court is at Tolo arranging a game with the brick yard crew.

Bob Bragdaw came back good and strong. It must have felt good Bob eh? On a field of gravel you did make them travel on old Decoration Day (Put on your old gray bonnet).

AUTHOR OF "PINAFORE" AND "MIKADO" DEAD

LONDON, May 31.—Sir W. S. Gilbert, the noted dramatist and librettist, who wrote the famous "Savoy Operas," including "H. M. S. Pinafore," "Patience," "Iolanthe" and the "Mikado," and was knighted in 1907 by King Edward, met a tragic end yesterday.

While swimming in the lake in his grounds at Harrow, friends observed that he was in difficulty and struggling. They hurried for help, but Sir William sank. When the body was recovered life was extinct.

He is believed to have been stricken with syncope.

Sir W. S. Gilbert was the guiding star of the comic opera stage of the last generation and his operas written in collaboration with Sir Arthur Sullivan, are still recognized as the highest form of the comic opera. Among his greatest successes are "H. M. S. Pinafore," "The Mikado," "The Pirates of Penzance," "Patience" and "Trial by Jury." His "Bab Ballads" and "Songs of a Cavalier" are his chief contribution to the poetic literature of the English language and both have run through a number of editions.

CRISIS EXPECTED IN CHICAGO STRIKE

CHICAGO, Ill., May 31.—Notices sent out to union men in the building industry to return to work with the steamfitters now in course of erection are expected to bring a crisis today in Chicago's $40,000,000 building tie-up, caused by the jurisdictional warfare between the steamfitters and plumbers.

A joint board of arbitration, composed of representatives of the unions and the contractors, decided Monday to stand by the steamfitters. This puts the continuance of the tie-up squarely up to the plumbers.

MEMORIAL DAY IS OBSERVED

Splendid Exercises at City Park—Parade Forms Promptly on Time All Business Houses in City Were Closed.

General observance of Memorial day was held throughout the city yesterday, the business houses being closed during the afternoon when everybody, both old and young, sojournd to the city park where appropriate exercises were held in honor of the departed heroes.

The inviting coolness of the shade trees brought hundreds into the park where sitting, or reclining on the green they listened to the speeches of the day.

The speakers' stand, especially constructed for the occasion, was tastily decorated with flags and bunting and on either side was hung a picture of those two famous leaders of the nation, Washington and Lincoln.

Immediately in front of the stand was a loving tribute to the unknown soldier and sailor dead in the form of a monument draped in the national colors and bearing on the base the inscription "To the Unknown Dead."

The exercises of the afternoon began when the parade, which formed at the G. A. R. hall marched down Main street to this city park. Led by Wes Lawton and Harry Ling, marshals of the day, the long line, composed of the police, B. B. O. Elks, I. O. O. F., school children, the G. A. R., W. R. C. and others marched to music furnished by the Medford concert band to the corner of Holly and Main streets where the veterans and their sister order, the W. R. C. marched through open ranks to their places before the speakers' stand where W. H. Gore, the orator of the day, paid glowing tribute to those who gave up their lives that this country might live as one nation and to their mothers, wives and sweethearts.

He advised the young to emulate the example set by the veterans, to have a purpose in life, to be willing to live for principle and love of country, and, if necessary, to die.

Following the address, W. W. Vesher was introduced and recited in touching manner that well known poem, "Beverly Ford."

A drill by two score children of the Washington school under the direction of Mrs. William Shoults was next in order and showed thorough and careful preparation on the part of the little folks.

Commander D. R. Andrus of the local post was in charge of the exercises.

In the forenoon the graves of the dead were decorated. The members of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Woman's Relief Corps and others met at the G. A. R. hall at 9 o'clock and were taken in automobiles to the Odd Fellows' cemetery, where decoration services were held. The graves of the deceased sailors, soldiers and members of the W. R. C. were strewn with beautiful flowers.

E. B. Waterman was in charge of the transportation and he with H. G. Wortman, Howard Bros., H. G. Nicholson, Ben Sheldon, Walter Mundy, T. R. Wilson, C. E. Wickstrom, Charles True, T. P. Kahler, furnished automobiles to carry the veterans, their wives and children to the cemetery.

Thomas Edmeades, a veteran of the war astonished everyone when he stated that he was 86 years old. He looks fully 15 years younger; and is the father of Forrest and Henry Edmeades, business men of this city.

Henry Metz, adjutant of the post acted in his old capacity of drummer. He served in both Pennsylvania and Iowa regiments and has not lost the skill of his fighting days.

The officers of the G. A. R. are: Major D. R. Andrus, commander; H. Metz, adjutant; H. C. Clay, senior vice; J. J. Stacey, junior vice; A. Duff, officer of the day; J. Klippel, quartermaster; G. W. Jones, chaplain.

The officers of the Women's Relief Corps are: Mrs. Kaler, president; Mrs. Sarah Andrus, senior vice; Mrs. Maggie Noble, junior vice; Mrs. Wood, treasurer; Mrs. Kent, chaplain; Mrs. Debelly, secretary.

No doubt many of the veterans and many of the noble women who marched in yesterday parade will have gone to join their comrades on the firing line before another year has passed and those who assisted in the exercises may rest assured that their services will not be forgotten when the hour of final reckoning comes.

Woman's Greatest Trouble

Big Sandy, Tenn.—Mrs. Lucy Cantrell, of this place, says: "Every two weeks, I had to go to bed and stay there several days. I suffered untold misery. Nothing seemed to help me, until I tried Cardui, the woman's tonic. Although I had been afflicted with womanly weaknesses for seven years, Cardui helped me more than anything else ever did. It is surely the best tonic for women on earth." Weakness is woman's greatest trouble. Cardui is woman's greatest medicine, because it overcomes that weakness and brings back strength. In the past 50 years, Cardui helped over a million women. Try it for your troubles, today.
