JACKSONVILLE

Word was received Sunday morning that the body of Ruby Norris, the young man who was drowned in Willamette River, had been found. He leaves a father and brother who were in Willamette Valley at the time he met his death, and a mother and little sister who were living in Jacksonville when the news came. The sorrowing family have the sympathy of a host of friends. Ruby was a bright promising young man, a great favorite with the young people and an active member of the Epworth League. Rev. Johnston preached a memorial sermon for him Sunday evening at the M. E. church. The wedding of Miss Nelle Palmer, the popular school maam, Oscar Dunford was quite a swell affair. A number of mutual friends of the couple motored to Ashland to witness the ceremony. The happy couple will make their home in Jacksonville, where the groom has a cozy little home prepared for his bride. Messrs. Woods and Hubbard and their families motored out to the former's ranch last Sunday. There is a fine showing for fruit on this ranch and there was no smudging done, either the frost apparently not having touched it. Miss Nellie Perry is spending a couple of weeks with her uncle and aunt. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gail, of Big Sticky. Miss Vera Bailey was the guest of Miss Irene Regar last Sunday. Dr. R. C. Clancy's father, who has had charge of the Clancy orchard for some time, took Sunday evening's train for Toronto, Canada, where he has an attractive home. He was accompanied by Mrs. R. C. Clancy and her little daughter, his wife having preceded him several weeks. Robert Carroll will have charge of the ranch during his absence.

TY COBB DOYLE IS DISCARDED

No More Will His Cheerful Voice Lead the Buicks to a Victory—Team "Fires" Him—All Due to a Pair of Blue Eyes.

Ty Cobb Doyle, baseball magnate, and "Deerfoot" Rader, his star third sacker, are no longer the idols of the Buicks, and all on account of a girl.

It all came about in this manner. G. H. Millar, proprietor of the Manhattan cafe, entertained the victorious Buicks at a sumptuous banquet served a-la-Court Hall and to say that those Buicks didn't go after the feed would be several shades from the truth. Those present were Mitchell, Tomy, Bragdaw, Thyng, Gaffney, Weiffenback, Gill, Baker of Grants Pass; Patton, Jack McGlynn and Mr. Millar.

Deerfoot and Ty Cobb were unable to attend, being under the influence of two pairs of deep blue eyes and as a consequence are now cast into the discard. They intended to attend the banquet after their call but got to the restaurant just in time to meet the merry makers coming out.

Intending to make recompense for their shortcomings the two "lady killers" walked up to the crowd but were assailed with a shower of biscuits and other choice morsels of food. They were then thrown to the ground and Rader's shoes taken off but he secured another pair and clung to the crowd.

Ty Cobb then garnered the biscuit supply of the Louvre cafe and assailed the bunch only to be caught and made to walk the streets from 11 o'clock to 1 o'clock in his bare feet.

Running up to the police he begged for police protection but even this was refused to the notorious baseball bug. Ty then got a dozen eggs but his baseball ability can be judged when it is said that he only scored one "run" on the back of Gaffney's neck.

To cap the climax Rader and Doyle then went to the Manhattan where they were driven from the place by the boys with a shower of loaf bread.

But, going back to the banquet, Jack McGlynn acted as toastmaster and toasted the "national game." Patton gave a short talk on "How to Souse the Ball on the Nose." Weiffenback recited "Old Dutch" and Millar and McGlynn mixed on the subject of "Socialism and the Water-wagon."

The feast was enjoyed by all except Ty Cobb Doyle who in an interview said "Why! the idea of me showing those nuts how to play baseball and then get this kind of treatment. No more for mine. Im going to hire Court Hall's bunch and beat the daylight out of the Buicks. Im done with 'em."

110 POUND GIRL WHIPS MAN, 175 SEATTLE, Wash., June 1.—Because, she says, J. H. Murdock, 50, and weighing 175 pounds, came into her back yard and annoyed her, Mrs. Susan Doran, 19, and only 110 heavy, used her fists and blacked Murdock's eyes. Murdock swore out a warrant and had her before Judge Gordon. "Sure," she admitted. "I whipped him and done a good job too." She was discharged.

Boys Starve. SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., June 1.—Two brothers, G. J. and J. C. Gibson, are in the county hospital here today so weak from lack of food that neither can walk. For two days they lay within a stone's throw of Redlands without a morsel to eat. For more than a month they had subsisted upon refuse thrown upon the city dump. They came here from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, neither being able to get work. It is believed both will die.
