EAGLE POINT EAGLES.

(By A. C. Howlett.)

The contractors who have the building of the Eagle Point bank building are pushing the work right along. They have three brick layers at work and the men who have the contract to excavate the cellar for Von der Hellen brothers have their job about completed. Frank Lewis has his new store building so far completed that he commenced to move his old stock of goods and soft drink fixtures from the old stand last Thursday and expects to have everything arranged by the last of next week, June 10. G. W. Owings expects to open up a new stock of goods very soon. Mr. Liddell has a part of his stock of goods on hand and expects to open up a full line of hardware soon. G. W. Daley thinks that he will be able to open his new store in the old dance hall in a short time, and from present appearances Medford will be left in the shade for we will be so well supplied with stores of all kinds that it will not be necessary to go to Medford for our supplies. Smith and Wamsley are just commencing on a building house for Mr. Haith on a tract of land he purchased off of the Fryer addition and Mr. J. Frye tells me that he has had demand recently for several lots along his water ditch. Mr. A. B. Zimmerman has the carpenters at working putting an addition to his residence. Dr. Jay has two carloads of poles here to be put up between here and his new electric power plant near Prospect, and I understand that a force of men are going to work right away to put them up. Last Thursday Messrs. Calzon, Ed Watson, William Wheeler of Butte Falls and Mr. J. J. Buecher of Medford met some of the other directors of the Butte Falls and Eagle Point Telephone company here and held a business meeting and Mr. Buecher the manager of the commercial branch of the Pacific Telegraph & Telephone company, his company owns several shares in the B. T. & E. P. Telephone company—assures me that in a very short time we will have a perfect system between here and Medford, and as soon as it can be arranged will have a metallic circuit from Butte Falls to Medford. There was a party of five hired a team and went to Fish Lake on a fishing trip. They were gone three days and the driver, Mr. Harvey, tells me that they caught together one small fish. But they had lots of fun. E. L. Batson, one of the Page wire fence men of Medford, came out Friday and contracted to put up a new wire suspension bridge across Little Butte creek opposite the postoffice. Last week the printer made me see in my Eagles that John Nichols was going to move away his old house and picket fence, when it should have read his old board and picket fence for he already has a very neat and convenient house. William Knighton has sold his place to J. J. Fryer and in the deal was to have the privilege of staying in the house until the first of August, but he has sold out his right to live in the house and furniture and the garden to Mr. Clarey and moved away to the Willamette valley where he has considerable property. Miss E. E. Calahan who has been teaching school in the Black district has closed her school and is now visiting her aunt and uncle, W. W. Willets of Perist.

WOODVILLE ITEMS.

Rev. M. E. Coen was in Central Point on Monday looking after his charge there. There was quite a large crowd in town last Tuesday to attend the memorial exercises. The program was appreciated and the address by Judge Gilmore was well worth coming miles to hear. Mrs. P. H. Robinson and children are spending the week in Grants Pass. Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Nye and Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Campbell of Medford spent Sunday in Woodville as the guests of J. W. Jacobs and family. Mrs. Reeves of Medford spent several days of this week in Woodville visiting her sister, Mrs. W. H. Gorham. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Streets and Miss Alice Streets autored to Woodville on Tuesday to attend the Memorial day exercises. The Homestead mine opened up this week with a large crew of men. Mrs. John Owens returned to her home in Woodville last week after an extended visit to her old home in New York. Mr. Charles Seamans will spend a few days in Medford visiting her daughters, Mrs. Duffield and Mrs. Lance. Mr. Fred Stone of Medford visited at the home of J. W. Jacobs last Sunday. Mrs. L. F. Potter spent Saturday and Sunday in Medford. Mrs. Sanburn of Central, Point, was in Woodville this week. Mr. and Mrs. Lou Merriam are en-

MISS VERA FROST STOWE

NEW YORK, June 3.—While dining with friends at the Waldorf-Astoria, Miss Vera Frost Stowe, who was graduated from Vassar College, and was prominent in Boston society last a purse two years ago, it contained $30 and some jewelry. Walton H. Marshall, manager of the new Vanderbilt Hotel, who then was an assistant manager at the Waldorf-Astoria, found the purse and telephoned to Miss Stowe. She called at the hotel the next day and met Mr. Marshall, recovering her property. This was the beginning of a friendship which ripened into love, and one the first day of next month, Miss Stowe and Mr. Marshall are to be married at the Central Congregational Church in Newtonville, Mass.

Enjoying a visit with Mr. Merriam's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Bagley and family are spending a couple of weeks on their ranch here.

CITIZENS CELEBRATE A VICTORY OVER RAILROAD

SEATTLE, Wash., June 3.—Celebrating a decision of the federal court refusing to grant an injunction to the Seattle Renton and Southern Railway, restraining the city from interfering with the operation of its trains by dumping over the tracks in regrade work, citizens of Ranier Valley drove away the city gang and covered the tracks under five feet of dirt. City workmen retired without protest and the citizens continued their work by air lights. Then they burned W. R. Crawford, president of the Renton line, in effigy.

Boy, Discouraged, Kills Self.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 3.—After deserting the navy, Rollo Hamm was unable to get work. He was out of money, had been ill, and in a fit of desperation sent a bullet into the region of his heart. He is in the city hospital today near death. He left letters explaining his troubles. His father lives at Danville, Ind. The boy, who is 19, wrote that he did not know where his mother is.

No Drinking on Trains.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 3.—A bill to prohibiting drinking liquor on all trains in Illinois except in the regular diner or buffet cars has been signed by Governor Deneen and gone into effect.
