With Skies Brilliant and Thousands of Visitors Attending Annual Celebration Begins in Rose City—Many From Here Attend.

PORTLAND, Or., June 5.—With skies brilliant and thousands of visitors attending, the rose carnival, an annual celebration, began in Portland. During the week parades, rose shows and other forms of entertainment will be given.

The rose carnival is attracting its usual quota of Medford people who yearly make a visit to the northern metropolis with the opening of the June festivities. The "Rose City" is said to be unusually beautiful this year, and preparations have been made to make the present carnival more beautiful than any previously given.

Between 50 and 100 tickets have been sold and reservations have been made in the following names: Streeter, Henry, Brown, F. Brown Hubbard, Osborne, Homeyer, Taylor, Antle, Vilas, Brook, Robbins, Hoover, Leggett, Hugh, Corey, Ulrich, Powers, Collins, Marshall, Lampman, Smith, Orser, Rober, Meers, Sibby, Power, S. Hugo Kelly is now seeking a match with any welter weight in the country. Kelly showed splendid form in his recent go with "Johnny" Thompson, and well known experts are of the opinion that he would make a very interesting fight with "Billy" Papke.

CATTLE MARKET STILL IS FALLING OFF

PORTLAND, Or., June 5.—Receipts for the week have been: Cattle, 2026; calves, 19; hogs, 1469; sheep, 7785; horses and mules, 166.

In the face of light receipts the cattle market continued in its downward trend and there was 75¢ difference in prices as compared with two weeks ago. Killers bought extensively in Colorado and Nebraska and were slow in taking hold of the offerings here. With the coming of spring and the use of vegetables for feed, the demand for beef has fallen off and the high prices which have existed for the past six months could not be maintained.

The hog market was lightly supplied and there was a general strengthening of prices. Hogs weighing around 200 pounds sold at $6.85 and the demand was very active. There was a fair run of sheep, but not many that could be considered as first-class. Lambs sold at $6.50 and a fair lot of wethers that averaged 98 pounds sold at $4.25.

PORTLAND POLLS A HEAVY VOTE MEDFORD BANK MADE DEPOSITORY

Chances Favor Rushlight Although Business Interests Have Expended Thousands of Dollars in Making a Campaign for Simon.

PORTLAND, Or., June 5.—Indications this forenoon were that a heavy vote would be polled in the municipal election today. Mayor Joseph Simon is running independently for re-election. He is opposed by A. G. Rushlight, republican primary nominee, and George H. Thomas, democratic nominee. It is conceded that the fight lies between Simon and Rushlight, with chances favorable to Rushlight.

The business interests of Portland have spent thousands of dollars in making a campaign for Simon. It is expected that Rushlight will get practically the entire labor vote.

WOMEN WITH BALLOTS TO MEET IN CONVENTION OLYMPIA, Wash., June 5.—It is expected that some interesting resolutions will be brought forward at the meeting of the state federation of women's club here the latter part of June, as the meeting will be the first since equal suffrage was granted in Washington.

It is believed also that steps will be taken to start a movement for legislation favoring working women and children.

Dowager Queen Coming.

ROME, June 3.—Dowager Queen Margherita today perused a copy of the poem "Dante," presented to her majesty by Mrs. Heloise Durant Rose, the American authoress, who was received in audience by the queen. Queen Margherita, who expects to visit the United States this fall, expressed a keen interest in the woman question.
