

BUTTE FALLS IS TO CELEBRATE

Big Time on Fourth of July is Planned—Is Ideal Spot for Celebration—Can Fish, or Shout Your Head Off.

Those who prefer an outing in the quiet reaches of the forest on the Fourth of July instead of the hurry and bustle accompanying a city celebration will have the opportunity to indulge in this form of recreation at Butte Falls on July 4.

A grand celebration has been planned for that place and a good program has been prepared.

There will be a salute at sunrise, a musical program, speaking at 11 a. m., races, saw bucking contest, balloon ascension, tennis tournament, tug of war and other sports with valuable prizes to the winners. There will be fireworks in the evening and a grand ball at the Bowers.

A special excursion train will be run over the Pacific & Eastern. A special rate of $2 has been given and tickets will be good from July 3 to 5. There is good fishing for those who desire to go after the speckled beauties and an all round good time is assured to everyone.

Accused Snobbery

LEUT. COL. CHARLES MC CAWLEY.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.—There has developed an unprecedented flurry in club circles here, especially at the exclusive Metropolitan Club, as a result of President Taft's recent speech at the Jewish Temple, wherein he strongly denounced the practice of social clubs blackballing or barring proposed members because they are self-made men. The President's language and references pointed unmistakably to the recent action of the Metropolitan Club here in refusing admittance to Mr. Martin W. Littleton, representative from New York, after his name for some time had been before the board of governors.

No sooner had the first excitement caused by the President's remarks abated than announcement came that three of the most prominent members of the Metropolitan Club had resigned from the board of governors.

They are Brigadier General Clarence R. Edwards, U. S. A., chief of the bureau of Insular Affairs; Lieutenant Colonel Charles L. McCawley, of the Marine Corps, secretary of the club, and Captain Templin M. Potts, of the United States navy.

It was asserted that he was picketing, fired at a policeman, and that the shot struck the bystander.

ENGINEERS SAID TO BE AT WORK NEAR WESTON

WESTON, Ore., June 10.—Residents of Linkton Mountain today reported that a crew of railway surveyors is at work in that vicinity endeavoring to locate a feasible grade between the Wala Walla river and a ridge known as the Big Saddle. It is believed the surveyors are connected with the North Coast, which is known to have had engineers in the same vicinity two years ago, seeking to gain the mountains from the river by means of a tunnel route. If the Big Saddle can be reached from the river, it is said, no further difficulties are presented for a route across the Blue Mountains.

STEVEDORE BATTLES WITH ENTIRE CREW

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 10.—After a terrific battle, the crew of the steam schooner Gualala today overpowered Charles Long, a stevedore, found hiding on board. Long is believed to have escaped from the Stockton insane asylum. When discovered on the ship he endeavored to jump into the bay. One of the crew grappled with him and was almost overpowered when other sailors came to his assistance. It took a dozen deckhands to subdue Long. A second battle occurred when officers came to take the demented man ashore. He is held at the detention hospital.

MEN SENT BACK TO FACE TRIAL

Said to Have Burglarized Store at Eugene — Caught at Ashland — Quarrel Over Guns Gave Them Away.

Five men have been arrested in Ashland charged with breaking into the general merchandise store of J. Jacobs of Eugene, the evening of June 5.

The men beat their way to Ashland and left the train at the freight yards, where they quarreled over the division of several guns, watches and various articles of jewelry in their possession. Two of the men evidently got nothing and went to the city officials and told them that there were three robbers in the freight yards.

Night Officer Magoon and Constable A. L. Irwin went to the yards and arrested them. A Colt's automatic pistol as well as knives, watches and other articles were found in their possession.

The informants were held on the charge of vagrancy and the other three, Emil Ehnert, Robert Ehnert and a man called Joseph, were held charged with carrying concealed weapons. They were sent to Jacksonville to board out their fines and to be held until the Eugene authorities can investigate the matter more thoroughly.
