CENTRAL POINT WALLOPED BY ELECTRIC AGGREGATION

In a game of baseball that takes one back to the time of the hard rubber ball and the home-made bat, the Electrics walloped the Central Point aggregation to the tune of 16 to 12.

The slugging started in the first frame, when each team pushed three runs over the pan and continued throughout the game. Although everybody hit the cork center hard, it belonged to Captain Ebel, Gill and Alenderfer of the Electrics to pole the ball to the fence at every opportunity.

Each team changed pitchers in the eighth inning in an effort to change the final result, but nothing came of it. The score by innings: Medford . . . . . 3 3 4 0 3 1 1 1 *—16 Central Point . . . . . 3 0 0 2 0 5 1 1 0—12 Batteries—Cole, Gill and Jerome; Pearfit, Bass and Jerome.

KLING REFUSES TO PLAY WITH BOSTON

CHICAGO, June 12.—President Russell of the Boston National league club today has a letter from Catcher John Kling, principal figure in the deal for players between Chicago and Boston, saying he will not play with the Doves but will retire from the game. Kling's stand, coupled with the announcement of Vice-President Page of the Boston club that he would take legal steps to block the deal, threatens an unusual baseball tangle. By playing with Boston Saturday Kling, it is said, settled the legal status of the deal.

Kling did not appear for yesterday's game.

COONS ARGUE WITH CLUBS

One Armed With a Cork Screw and the Other With a Cane Mix On Streets—Acting Mayor Merrick Fines Both.

Armed with a corkscrew and a billy club, Bill Vaughan and Chick Bowen, two negro porters, were waging a battle royal on north Front street Sunday evening when arrested by the police.

Vaughn, who works at the Smoke-house, and Bowen, who is employed at the U-Go barge shop were endeavoring to decide whether they should play a game of cards or shoot a game of craps. The argument grew so hot that "Chick" pulled a corkscrew and tried to stab Vaughn who hit him over the head with a "billy."

They were taken before Acting Mayor Merrick Monday morning and fined $10 each.

MAY PROSECUTE TOBACCO MEN

Concurrent Resolution Directing Attorney General to Proceed Against Individual Dependents Is Offered in the House.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.—A concurrent resolution directing Attorney General W. Wickham to bring criminal proceedings against the individual dependents in the tobacco trust case was offered in the house today by Representative Byrne of Tennessee. The resolution followed the receipt of a communication from Wickham saying that in his opinion it was not compatible with public interest to state whether such prosecutions were contemplated. The letter was in answer to a resolution asking him whether such prosecution was planned.

GREAT ROSE FESTIVAL AT GRANTS PASS SOON

GRANTS PASS, Or., June 12.—The shrine of the rose, the noblest flower that blooms, will be the mecca for pilgrims from over a wide region when the adherents of Queen Frivolity arrive in Grants Pass for the festival. Preparations for this event have been under way for weeks, and much thought, patience and hard work, to say nothing of the expenditure of many golden shekels, have been given by faithful ones who have the best interests of this city at heart.

The rose festival of 1911, barring stormy weather, will be one of the most attractive events Grants Pass has yet furnished.

When the decorated automobile parade begins to move there will no doubt be some thousands of Rogue River valley and Grants Pass people lining the long blocks.

Young Man Dies.

Francis, son of Superintendent and Mrs. William Rolfe of the Burrell orchards, died at 8 o'clock Monday morning at the home, three miles south of Medford, of a complication of diseases. He was 18 years and 10 months old and was born in Watsonville, Cal., August 30, 1892.

The funeral will be held from the residence at 4 p. m. Tuesday. Other particulars later. John Perl has charge of the funeral arrangements.

She formerly lived in Lowell, Ind. The body will probably be shipped to her former home. John Perl has charge of the funeral arrangements.

Swimming Races On Fourth.

Special interest is being taken in the swimming races to be held the Fourth of July and a number of athletes are practicing daily. While there will be little opportunity for distance racing, the dashes and diving events should prove to be excellent. Some of those trying out are making good marks and the races especially will be closely contested.
