TALENT ITEMS.

Orlie Powers, who has been attending school at Corvallis, Or., on Friday returned to his home at Talent.

C. W. Wolters is having a new roof put on his residence in Talent. The large concrete building erected by C. W. Wolters will soon be completed. It will be stocked with one of the largest stocks of merchandise in southern Oregon.

On Friday while grinding a sickle with an emery wheel, Frank Kerley met with a very painful accident. Several particles of steel became detached from the sickle and were driven into one of Mr. Kerley's eyes. In the afternoon Mr. Kerley had Dr. Forbes extract the steel and is getting along nicely since.

Jack Calvin is thankful that he is able to be about. On Saturday while digging a well for Packard the box of dirt fell back in the well, just grazing Mr. Calvin's head. As it is he was dazed and feels that he had a close call.

Died—On Saturday morning, Mrs. Mattie Smith of Talent passed away to the great beyond. She had been ill with consumption for many years, suffered a great deal and death came as a relief. She leaves a husband and seven children, the youngest of the children being 17 years of age. Five of the children are living at Talent.

The remains of Mrs. S. G. Neiberlane, who died in the hospital in San Francisco, on June 7, were brought to Talent and laid away in the Dunder cemetery on Saturday, June 10, at 3 p. m. Funeral services were held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Oliver Helms, at Talent, by the Rev. W. T. Matlock. Mrs. Neiberlane's maiden name was Phoebe Jeans. She was born in Payneville, Mo., June 17, 1843. In 1861, with her parents, she moved to Vacaville, Cal., where in 1862 she was married to Samuel Griffin Netherland. In 1888 the family moved to Oregon and settled at Talent, where in 1906 Mr. Netherland died. Mrs. Netherland in 1862 united with the Christian church and has lived as a consistent Christian. She is survived by eight children—Leo of Winters, Cal.; Charley of Oakland, Cal.; Frank of Butte Falls, Or.; Mary, wife of J. E. Clemens of Medford; Benjamin, of Sacramento, Cal.; Samuel of Ashland, Or.; Lizzie Netherland of Medford, and Lena, wife of Oliver Helms of Talent. Benjamin Netherland of Sacramento, Cal., was in Talent attending the funeral of his mother.

EAGLE POINT EAGLES.

(By A. C. Howlett.)

After I had written Tuesday afternoon I gathered up the following items of interest before I started on my trip to Portland:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simpson of Bloomington, Ill., were pleasant guests at the Sunnyside. They had been up to Peyton to look at that part of the country and seemed to have a very favorable opinion of our country especially our climate and water but they went to the wrong part of the country to see much of our good soil although they seemed to have a very favorable opinion of some of the soil around Peyton but there is so much of the land between Eagle Point and Peyton that is almost if not entirely worthless for agricultural and horticultural purposes that it caused him to form rather an unfavorable opinion of the whole section of that country, but what he saw around Eagle Point seemed to please him very much.

There has been another change in the real estate business since I last wrote. William Brown sold the lot formerly owned by Samuel Jackson to his brother, Royal G., and in addition he bought a tract lying north of that of S. B. Holmes so that their lot now extends from the Main street back some 300 feet, and Mr. up the ground, fill up an old cellar that was left at the time that Sam Jackson was burned out, and commenced to dig the foundation for a new home. Mr. McIntyre has bought a tract of land of S. B. Holmes and has commenced to build a house on it. And the workmen are pushing the work on our new foot bridge, and by the time that I return to my home I expect that our little town will have grown so much that I will have to do as I do in Portland: Enquire "where I am at." Before I left home Wednesday afternoon I took a general review of the situation and found by actual count that there were nine new buildings going up, and more to follow.

I will now give the readers of the Mail Tribune an account of my trip from Eagle Point to Portland and what and who I saw on the trip, but not all in this letter. Taking passage on the P. & E. car Wednesday afternoon I reached Medford all O. K. and after taking the night of the city spent the night at the Parkview hotel and the next morning boarded No. 20 for Roseburg, and as I had my eyes open I noticed among the first things along the route that the crops of hay and grain were much better than I had expected, also I saw that what used to be Tolo flag station is now one of the thriving little towns of the valley, but my view of the new depot was shut off by a train of freight cars that stood between my car window and the depot but I was told that the Southern Pacific company had erected a nice one. The next thing that was the fine rock quarry where they are getting out 100 tons of fine rock for different purposes. Passing Gold Ray or as it is now called by the railroad company, Ray Gold—that change was made on account of the passengers getting the names Gold Ray and Gold Hill confused in their minds. We came to Gold Hill. I could see but little change there and I remarked that if the citizens would use a little more paint it would help the appearance of the place although it seemed to be quite lively. The next place was Rock Point but there does not seem to be much business done there. Woodville shows a progressive spirit and the people there deserve credit for their energy and perseverance. Grants Pass, it is needless for me to say is a thorough going city and what I could see from the car window of the streets, pavements, buildings and depot grounds led me to the conclusion that Grants Pass is a very lively place, and the farm houses all along the route show that we have the right kind of people in southern Oregon.

I am now in Portland and will try to write more the first of the week and tell the readers of the Mail Tribune some of the things seen along the route to and in Portland and the surrounding country. Portland, Ore. June 10, 1911.
