INDICTMENT IS RETURNED FOR SLEUTH BURNS

Charge is Kidnaping in Connection With Arrest and Removal of John J. McNamara to Los Angeles On Dynamiting Charge.

McNAMARA ALSO IS INDICTED FOR DYNAMITING

Grand Jury Upholds Action of Governor Marshall and Endorses Action of Police Judge.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 17.—Detective William J. Burns was today indicted on a charge of kidnaping in connection with the removal of John J. McNamara to Los Angeles for alleged complicity in the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times. McNamara was indicted in connection with alleged dynamiting. In all the grand jury returned eight indictments in connection with the McNamara and Burns cases.

The charge against McNamara is conspiracy to blow up the Industrial Iron Works at Peoria, Ill., and conspiracy in connection with a dynamiting that occurred in the yards of the Peoria Union railway in Peoria. Six other indictments were returned in connection with the cases but the names of the persons indicted were kept secret by court order.

It is reported that the eight indictments returned include one against Deputy Sheriff Hoesick of Los Angeles.

Marshall Upheld. The report of the grand jury upholds the action of Governor Marshall in honoring the requisition for McNamara and also endorsing Police Judge James Collins of Indianapolis in issuing the warrant for McNamara's arrest.

The report condemns the methods of Detective Burns in spiriting McNamara out of the city without an opportunity to secure counsel.

"Dynamiting is an atrocious crime," the report says, "but kidnaping is equally indefensible."

The report recites the hurried methods used in the police court when McNamara was arrested and started for California. It sets forth the fact that McNamara was literally dragged from his office and asserts the whole proceeding was evidently to prevent his seeing friends or securing counsel.

The report recommends that Walter Drew, counsel for the National Erectors' association; J. A. G. Bradford, W. J. Ford, assistant district attorney of Los Angeles, and Chauffeur Frank Fox, who drove the car in which McNamara was spirited away, be released from bond and the kidnaping charges against them be dismissed.

Minority Report.

Juror Grandy filed a minority report stating that while he concurred in the findings of the majority reports he believes that more persons should be indicted in connection with the kidnaping charges.

After the filing of the report, Judge Markey of the criminal court, and Prosecuting Attorney Frank P. Baker held a long secret conference.

The kidnaping charge grew out of the arrest of John J. McNamara in Indianapolis by Burns and his extradition to California.

Story of the Case.

The arrest occurred on Saturday evening, April 22. McNamara was taken from his office at the headquarters of the ironworkers, where a meeting of the executive council was in session. He was rushed to police headquarters, where Police Judge Collins honored a warrant issued on the strength of extradition papers from the governor of California, approved by Governor Marshall of Indiana. McNamara was put into an automobile and taken across country to Terre Haute, where he was put aboard a train for St. Louis and was thence taken to Los Angeles. On April 24, Ford and Fox were arrested for kidnaping on warrants sworn out by John Keegan, a local labor leader. Later William J. Burns and Budorf, assistant attorney for the National Erectors, were arrested on similar warrants. Each was admitted to bail in the sum of $5000. Bail for

ASSERTION OF SPAIN FALSE

Battleship Main Had Not Cleared for Action as Spaniards Declared—Rusted Guns Uncovered With Their Muzzle Caps In Place.

HAVANA, June 17.—The Spanish assertion that the ill-fated battleship Maine had cleared for action previous to the explosion which tore her into atoms was proved false today. The giant pumps that cleared the water away revealed the rusted guns of the port turret aft with muzzle caps in place.

All forward of the engines was shattered. The aft looks solid. The explosion seems forward on the starboard side. Experts refuse to hazard a guess whether the magazine exploded after the initial detonation. No bodies have been found as yet.

In the opinion of the engineers attempting to raise the battleship Maine not enough salvage will be recovered to pay for the expense of removal. The investigations so far probable that the guns and armament have been ruined. It is now doubted whether it will be possible to float the hull away.

KAHN NOW WANTS ARMY PROBED

Resolution Carries Appropriation of $5000 for Expenses—Report Must Be Ready by Next Session of Congress.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 17.—Representative Kahn (California) today introduced a joint resolution for a committee composed of five members of each house to conduct a sweeping investigation of the army. The members, according to the resolution, are to be chosen from their regular committees on military affairs. The resolution carries an appropriation of $5,000 for expenses. It is provided that the report be ready for the next session of congress.

Ford, Drew and Badorf was furnished by W. A. Ketcham, head of the Brown-Ketcham Iron Works of Indianapolis.

Protests Made.

In the few days following protests were made to Governor Marshall and to Frank P. Baker, prosecuting attorney, regarding the arrest of McNamara. The labor leaders assert that by refusing McNamara right of counsel the state laws had been violated and they further asserted that had he been permitted to have legal advice the fact that he was not in California at the time the offense complained of was alleged to have occurred would have invalidated the extradition.

Marshall issued a statement saying that if any further arrests occurred he would see that no advantage was taken of the prisoner and that the right to counsel would not be violated.

Baker promised a grand jury in-

DRIVING LAST PILES IN BROKEN CAISSON.

$10 CASH BUYS SOLDIERS OFF

United States Coin Paid to Rebels In Agreement to Fight No More Against Madero and Government of Mexico.

MEXICALI, Cal., June 17.—Ten dollars cash paid to each member of the liberal garrison at Mexicali this afternoon put an end to the revolution in Lower California as far as the rebels now in the field are concerned. The money in United States coin was handed to the seventy odd soldiers composing the garrison by emissaries of Francisco I. Madero in return for a written agreement that they would not again take up arms against Mexico. The men surrendered all but their side-arms, crossed the line in a body to Calexico. Officers of the United States army directed them to move on as quickly as possible.

Within two hours after the men had been paid off, Mexicali began to assume the condition prevailing before the war. The Maderistas at once began the work of re-establishing the city government. A jefe de politica and jefe mayoral were appointed and the work of organizing the police force will be taken up shortly.

The ex-rebels were not molested by the United States troops as long as they kept moving. Hundreds of Mexicali residents who have lived in

RECRUITS JOIN IDLE SEAMEN

Steamer Minneapolis Unable to Sail On Account of Strike, Which is Assuming More Serious Proportions Each Day.

LONDON, June 17.—The seamen's strike is assuming more serious proportions today, and hundreds of recruits are joining the idle men. The Steamer Minneapolis of the Atlantic transport line was unable to sail today on account of the strike.

LIVERPOOL, June 17.—Substantial concessions have been made by the ship companies to the striking seamen. In spite of this, however, it was found necessary to import seamen to man boats for the Morsey River service. The situation at Greenock is serious. The big steamers Furness, Ionla and Cassandra, due to sail this afternoon, did not Calexico since the trouble started prepared to move back and take up their abode. The Cadahy ranch and other large interests near Mexicali will resume operations with in a few days.

The Maderist envoys will proceed to Tia Juana and Tecate tomorrow where other rebel bands are located and will attempt to settle with them on similar terms. It is said they have already received the assurance of the garrisons there that they will quit when they receive the money.

THOUSANDS TO COME JULY 4

Ed Andrews Finds Very Friendly Spirit Manifest in the Other Cities of the Valley—Program is Partially Completed.

ASHLAND COMPANY OF MILITIA IS TO COME

General Desire Manifest to Cultivate a Get Together Spirit Throughout the Rogue Valley.

The big celebration that Medford is going to give July 3 and 4, is the most talked of event in the Rogue River valley. Ashland, Grants Pass, Jacksonville, Central Point, Gold Hill, Eagle Point and other towns, are going to join in making this a real event. Medford is going to give the biggest free program that was ever offered; nearly all of the events will be without charge. The races at the track and the ball game will be the only attractions where admission will be asked, and even they are purposefully placed at a low figure, 25 and 50 cents.

The militia company, of which Ashland is justly proud, will be here in a body and join in the parade. Captain Spencer has indicated his willingness to bring his company, and has assured Mr. Andrews, one of the committee on arrangements, that action will be taken on the matter Monday next at a meeting of the company, at which time there will be an official announcement made of their part in the program.

Friendly Interest. Mr. Andrews has been all over the valley, and says that he finds a very friendly spirit manifested by all of the towns. They regard it as a celebration for the Rogue River valley.

"In conversation with a great many business men in the various towns which I have visited," says Mr. Andrews, "I find a general desire to cultivate a get-together spirit for the betterment and advancement of the entire Rogue River valley. Many business men of both Grants Pass and Ashland think that the Rogue River valley should send a lecturer with stereopticon views to the middle west, giving a complete and detailed account of all the industries in the valley, from Cow Creek canyon to the Siskiyou; not only fruit raising, but stock raising, mining, coal, clay, timber, and in fact thoroughly advertise the many resources that are lying here entirely undeveloped. The time is ripe for unity of action. Medford should be broad enough in her view of our community's future to take the lead. Our watchword should be 'A million people in the Rogue River valley.'"

Partial Program. A partial program for the races to be held July 3 and 4, has been drawn up as follows:

- July 3, at 9 a. m.—The automobile race for $200.
- Afternoon of July 3, at the fair grounds:
 - No. 1.—Race for pacing horses that have never started.
 - No. 2.—2:30 trotting race, half mile heats, 2 in 3; purse $50.
 - No. 3.—Running race for saddle horses owned in Jackson county, half mile.

BOB LA FOLLETTE WILL MAKE RACE

Statement That He Will Be a Candidate is Made With His Knowledge and Consent—Will Defer Issuing a Formal Announcement.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 17.—Robert Marion LaFollette, Wisconsin insurgent, is a candidate for the republican nomination for president of the United States. This statement is made with his knowledge and consent.

LaFollette's friends say that he is prepared to battle Taft to the end. Already, they say, the Wisconsin senator is certain of one third of the delegates at the next national convention. They will enter the convention with the slogan "La Follette and a chance to win, or Taft and sure defeat."

LaFollette will defer making any formal statement until the campaign develops and the voters are giving more serious attention to candidates. When he announces that he has entered the race, it is expected that he will outline his fight against special privilege in Wisconsin, and its results. In the convention the progressives plan a demonstration which they hope will impress the delegates with the belief that Taft is not the popular choice. LaFollette's supporters are planning to get many delegates instructed against supporting Taft for the re-nomination.

In Oregon, Wisconsin, Nebraska, New Jersey and North Dakota primaries will be held to indicate the choice of the people for president and vice president. LaFollette's followers expect at least to carry Wisconsin and Oregon in these primaries and they believe that he will have practically solid delegations from California, Washington and Kansas.

Posses on Trail. Advances from Yoncalla tonight say that Sheriff Quinn and his posses have not as yet returned. Two bloodhounds were received at four o'clock this afternoon and immediately put upon the trail of the robbers. On a hill a short distance northwest of the city tracks were found where the men walked up backward. On top was found where the men turned about and walked forward. It is supposed that they did this as a ruse.

It is thought that these two were a part of a larger number who robbed a general merchandise store at Drain last night taking several suit cases, clothes, shoes and the like. It is also believed that the robbers wanted to leave the train at the top of Rice Hill instead of Yoncalla where they got off. It is believed that the rest of the band was to meet them there.

The southbound Shasta Limited which left Portland Friday night, was held up and the mail car robbed by two highwaymen shortly after 11 o'clock last night between Drain and Yoncalla. The robbers, who were young men, entered the mail car, held up the clerks, looted the car and stopped the train at Yoncalla. Posses are searching for the men west of Yoncalla today.

The men brandished revolvers but did not fire a shot. One robber kept the clerks covered while the other ripped open the mail sacks and rifled their contents. It is not known how much booty the desperadoes secured. The mail car was the only one disturbed by the robbers, the passengers and trainmen being unmolested.
