

MEDFORD COMES BACK SCORE 9-5

Takes Sunday's Game Making Score of Games Four to Five—Hope to Tie up Games Next Sunday at the Pass.

Medford fumbled Grants Pass Sunday taking one of the hardest fought games of the season by a 9 to 5 score.

Medford started to score in the first inning when they pushed one run over the plate. It was something of a gift, however, as the Grants Pass first sacker muffed an easy infield pop-up.

Medford used three pitchers, Sheehy lasting only two innings and Burgess the same. Bragdaw went to the mound in the fifth inning and held the visitors down to one run the remainder of the game.

"Curly" Wilson directed the game from the backstop position and his great headwork was an important factor in the victory. McCarthy at short stop scooped the ball up in great style and pegged many runners and at first base while "Shorty" Miles held the second corner safe all the while and showed the crowds that he was in the "come back" class.

The whole team hit the ball hard and while Osborne was pitching winning ball several bonehead plays and a steady string of fumbles put him on skids and lost the game.

Medford Runs Wild.

Medford ran wild in the last part of the game, scoring two runs in the fourth, three in the fifth and three in the seventh inning. The Pass scored three runs in the second, one in the third and one in the sixth and then decided that they had had enough.

Things looked bad for Medford in the fourth when Grants Pass filled the bases with no one out. The next batter up struck out but "Curly" dropped the ball and the whole crowd started to steal. Curly picked up the ball and nailed the runner at first and the ball was returned to the plate in time to stop the man coming from third. The man on second tried to pilfer third and was caught ten feet off the bag. Three out on a strike out is some ball playing and the play was finished before the crowd knew what was up.

"Shorty" Miles showed himself to be a wizard in base running. He wiggled his bat at the ball three times and missed every time but, killed the new catcher for the Pass, dropped the ball and threw wide to first and before it could be returned to the diamond Shorty squatted safely on third base.

Crews stacked up on third for six innings but made such a poor showing that the crowd yelled for Rader who went in the seventh, but didn't get a chance. Crews had four chances and made three errors besides passing up an easy foul back off third base.

Williams the third sacker for the visitors tried to spoil a double in the seventh inning by knocking McCarthy off of second base. The act was one of the dirtiest plays seen on the diamond this season and both Williams and the runner on first base were called out by Glover the Grants Pass umpire.

Medford got seven hits off of Osborne's delivery and Grants Pass garnered nine safeties.

Medford is climbing in percentage, having taken four games of the series and Grants Pass five. The same teams play in Grants Pass next Sunday and the count will be five and five after that.

Scoops Around the Infield

BY ARABELLA.

Third-Sacker Williams of the Grants Pass team is in my estimation the best infielder in the local ranks, but he has one drawback—his disposition. Always chewing the rag, raising a kick and slipping in a dirty one when he can, he mows what would otherwise be a splendid baseball machine. When he cuts out the rough stuff the fans will be forced to be with him.

By winning yesterday, Medford won four games out of nine. Court Hall says next Sunday he will even up the games and then on the Fourth annex the championship.

We'll meet you at the Pass next Sunday.

The box office fared well at Sunday's game. Best crowd of the season.

Scorer Jack Withington had as his guest in the press box yesterday, T. F. Hanley, of Grants Pass. Tom, as he is known to his friends, has a great head for baseball, and doped the game out in a masterly manner.

Shorty Miles seems to have hit his stride at last. Glance at the box score. He felled by two feet on a two-bagger owing to the wind and the foul line. Shorty was in great spirits yesterday and kept the team on their toes.

The fans have to hand it to Curly Wilson for the winning of yesterday's game. He was there all the time, and showed some clever noodle work. Curly is the hardest worker in the league.

The fans demanded Crews' goat yesterday and finally got it in the seventh, when Deerfoot Rader replaced him. Four chances, three errors, a near error, and passing up of a foul tip looks pretty rotten. Stick work poor, too, although he was dead right in trying to make third bag on a long drive, for it took a perfect peg to nail him. Deerfoot Rader didn't get a chance, but he has the form and the arm.

This knocking of Antle is getting on my nerves. What does the boy do that he isn't given the glad hand? Is it because he minds his own business, has nothing to say and does not hang around the Nash hotel, playing a part in the daily fanning game played there? Antle is a steady stickler, covers more ground in the garden than any other player seen here, gets the ball back without hesitation and is slippery on the bases. Still one never hears a good word for the boy.

The fans should give him a hand, for he is there all the time. Just think it over.

Bob Bragdaw showed class yesterday. He has a little English on the ball which makes it fall safe. They look easy, but they're not.

Did you notice the void of sound in the bleachers? Ty Cobb Doyle with his organized rooting has left for other fields.

Notice those "lids" Court Hall has placed over the benches. 'Twas a relief for the players.

Joe McCarthy showed the fans what league ball playing means. Grandpa was there all the time with some foxy headwork. Captain McCarthy is a team in himself.

Kelly, whose whereabouts has so long puzzled the nation, has been found. He is catching for the Pass. Pug stole a base on him in the first and kinda got his goat. Kelly, thinking he had a bush umpire, ragged Owey a while, but he soon found he had a man little in stature but big in knowledge to deal with.

Three bases on a strike-out is some going. Shorty Miles pulled it yesterday and incidentally scored two men at the same time.

'Twas a freak game all right. Fourteen runs made, yet the official score shows only one earned run. St. Cyr, Grants Pass' "white hope," got that one.

Clarence Reames has a new one: "You run like a dry creek," was his comment on an attempted steal.

The diamond has been given a new dress by Manager Hall and the way the ball acted sort o' got on the nerves of the visitors.

Burgess had an off day, but he has a "come-back" coming.

The most faithful fans of the bunch are George Merriman and W. W. Elfert. Never miss a game.

"Just my luck," says Mose. "If I had bet, Medford would have lost."

Jack Wilkinson batted .500 yesterday. He drew a walk and made a telling sacrifice.

Umpire Grover worked well in the field, but once or twice he grew hazy.

There was great demand for the tin can yesterday. Two pitchers and two infielders were put on the bench by managers.

SEAMEN WILL WIN STRIKE

Is Becoming Better Organized and Shipping is Practically at a Stand Still—Allied Unions are Threatening to Strike.

LONDON, June 19.—That the striking seamen will win their demand for increased wages is the general belief here today. Several owners have yielded. The strike is becoming better organized and shipping is practically at a standstill. Officers of the seamen's union assert that the steamers Megantic, Celtic and Dominion will be tied up until their crews are given an increase of 10 shillings monthly. The original demand was for twenty shillings. Shipping on the Clyde is paralyzed. Allied unions are threatening to strike today.
