OFFERS TO DIE UPON GALLOWES

Dr. Tanner, the Famous Fester, Would Give His Life to Save That of Women Condemned to Die in Canada for Murder.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 24.—Moved to pity by the impending execution of Mrs. Neapolitano at Sault Ste Marie, Ontario, for the murder of her husband, Dr. H. S. Tanner, of lasting fame, today offered himself as substitute for the condemned woman.

Tottering under the burden of four score years, Dr. Tanner would walk to the gallows that Mrs. Neapolitano may be saved for her children. Characterizing of the impending hanging of Mrs. Neapolitano, as the "foulest blot on the criminal annals of Canada or any other country," Dr. Tanner today directed a letter to Earl Grey, governor general, setting forth his offer. Dr. Tanner makes his remarkable offer in all seriousness.

"I will not admit I am old except in years," he told a representative of the United Press. "But if I were one-fourth my age I would gladly walk to the gallows to save the woman. Life to me is as dear as to anyone, but it is children I am thinking of. They should not suffer for a crime which they did not commit."

plaints of inferior or inadequate service. Although some agents of these roads, which before 1901 were separate, are now joint, they have continued to seek business for either road according to its availability, always opposing other competitors. Like the Santa Fe and the Rio Grande.

A substantial majority of the stock of the Southern Pacific is held by parties other than the Union Pacific company, and we find no complaint by such holders of discrimination against their road or of failure to properly promote its welfare. On the contrary, hundreds of millions have been expended since 1901, the physical conditions of the roads have improved and their efficiency enhanced. The whole proof, taken together, we think, fails to dislodge any conspiracy to restrain commerce."

The suit originally was against a number of railroad companies and persons, of whom the following were most prominent:

Defendants in Case. The Union Pacific, The Oregon Short Line, the O. R. & N., the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake, the Santa Fe, the Southern Pacific, the Northern Pacific, the Great Northern Railway company, the Farmers Loan and Trust company, Edward H. Harriman, Jacob H. Schiff, Otto H. Kahn, James Stillman, H. H. Rogers, H. C. Frick and William A. Clark.

Harriman's name was supplanted by that of R. S. Lovett shortly after the former's death.

Hook's Dissenting Opinion. Dissenting from the opinion of the court, Justice Hook declared the merger was illegal and should be dissolved, while congress should consider the question of exempting the railroads from the operation of the Sherman law. He said:

"It is clear that in the growth and development of the government regulation of common carriers there is decreasing reason for holding them subject to the Sherman act. It may be, with regard to rates of transportation, that the interstate commerce commission could perform those duties with equal justice to the public and with greater justice to the railroads if they were released. But that is a question for congress, not for the court."

LUMBER RATES CUT TO SOUTHERN POINTS

TACOMA, Wash., June 24.—A reduction on lumber rates from points in Washington on the Harriman lines to points on the Southern Pacific in California, Nevada, Utah, Arizona and New Mexico is announced today by officials of the railroad. The new rate becomes effective July 8. The reduction amounts to 75 cents a ton on through rates from Seattle and Tacoma and 60 cents a ton from Gray's Harbor points. Local lumbermen say that Washington lumbermen will be placed on a closed competitive basis with Oregon lumbermen. It means greater pay rolls, and greater pay rolls mean a larger degree of prosperity for every man, woman and child in Oregon.

STOCKS BOOM UPON DECISION

Harriman Railroad Securities go up and Entire Market Optimistic—Railroads Generally Active and Gains in List Noted.

NEW YORK, June 24.—The Harriman stocks today boomed with the announcement of the decision of the federal court's dismissing the suit brought to dissolve the railroad merger. The optimistic tone of the market was apparent and readers freely predicted that the supreme court would uphold the decision. Railroads generally were active and gains in the list were noted. Louisville and Nashville rose 2, Great Northern preferred. Other stocks were stationary or showed fractional gains at the opening. After the news of the decision reached the floor the ball movement began. Union Pacific and Southern Pacific advanced 2, St. Paul and others large fractions. The market closed active and strong. Bonds were firm.

FAMOUS LEDGE RECOVERED

was made in 1860 by James Hayes, who accidentally found a pocket while riding horseback. At first he did not know that it was gold, but as he had to stop to fix the stirrup he noticed something yellow sticking out of the ground and knocked off a piece with the stirrup and took it home with him when he found out it was gold. He made the fact known to his employer and that same evening he sold his interest to Jacob Ish for $6000.00.

This mine is situated near Gold Hill and when it became known that gold was to be found there 700 placer miners took claims of 20 feet square and prospected for gold.

Soon after Jacob Ish made his purchase from James Hayes he went to Jacksonville and with Henry Klippel and John X. Miller formed a company known as the Gold Hill Quartz Mining company. The partners built three arastras and worked the mine with Mexican labor for three months and every Saturday night during that time they met in Jacksonville and divided the gold produced from arastras during that week and each received as his share $17,500.00. The size of the deposit was 20 inches wide on the vein, 3 inches thick and 24 inches deep and during the three months they worked the mine took out $600,000.00. After that the mine was worked off and on in an endeavor to locate the original deposit when "Quartz" Smith purchased it and in turn sold it to J. B. Rhinehart for $2000.00 in 1896; the mine covered a tract 300 feet wide and 1200 feet long and at the price sold included what stock there was on hand.

In 1898, J. B. Rhinehart sold one-half of his interest to Thomas M. Boyd, the latter selling his entire interest to the Gold Ray Realty company, Medford, the present owners.

KOHLSAAT TELLS OF SLUSH FUND

Says Lorimerism is the Cohesion of the Worst Elements in Both Parties—Asked to Contributor to Fund for Recouping Bill

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 24.—That the defense of United States Senator William Lorimer to all stories of corruption in his election will be a charge of conspiracy to discredit him by the McCormicks and the Harvester trust was indicated here today by the Illinois senator at the resumption of the senate hearing into the charges against him. Lorimer indicated that the whole "slush fund" story was invented because of enmity to him. George Baneroff, general counsel for the International Harvester company, was the first witness today.

H. H. Kohlsaat of the Chicago Record-Herald when asked "What is Lorimerism?" replied: "Give me three days and I'll explain it. Briefly, Lorimerism is the cohesion of the worst elements of both democratic and republican parties in Illinois for spoils."

Referring to his being told by Clarence S. Funk, general manager of the Harvester company, of Edward Hines' alleged request for a contribution to the Lorimer "slush fund," Kohlsaat said he had met Funk accidentally in the shelter of a building during a rainstorm.

"Funk told me," he said, "that money had been used to 'put Lorimer over.' I asked him how he knew, and he declared he had been asked to contribute. I then asked him to tell me about it, but he protested he did not want to get mixed up in the affair. When I assured him that I would hold his statement as confidential, he said Hines had told him that they had put Lorimer over, that it had cost $100,000 to do it, and that he (Hines) was seeking contributions to recoup those who had footed the bill."

Kohlsaat said that Funk had mentioned the name of Edward Tilden of the National Packing company, Roger Sullivan, democratic leader in Chicago; E. S. Conway and one of the Weyerhaeuser (of the lumber trust) as the men who aided to "put Lorimer over."

KING AND QUEEN REVIEW FLEET

English Monarch Sees Greatest Aggregation of Warships Ever Assembled—America Represented by Battleship Delaware.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 24.—That Captain Jack Mosby, leader of the newly crowned monarchs of Great Britain, reviewed today the greatest war fleet ever gathered together in the world's history. The great water display ended the coronation week celebration which has been one of the most gorgeous ever seen in the United Kingdom.

The king, accompanied by the queen and the royal children and the visiting royalties from the nations of the earth, left London on a special train during the morning and arrived early at the scene of the review. The first squadron inspected included the British dreadnaughts, St. Vincent, Collingwood, Dreadnaught, Superb, Temeraire, Helderophon, Vanguard and Neptune the most powerful squadron afloat. Next in line were the battleships of the King Edward VII class, including Admiral Moore's flagship, Lord Nelson, and the Australian and New Zealand warships Commonwealth and New Zealand. The four dreadnaughts cruisers—Indomitable, Inflexible, Invincible and Indefatigable—headed the cruiser squadron. Beyond them were the seemingly endless lines of unarmored cruisers, destroyers, torpedo boats and submarines, in all 180 vessels. The crews lined the bulwarks and rent the air with their cheers as the royal yacht passed.
