

BALL CAPTAIN LEAVES TEAM

Following Fiasco of Sunday Joe McCarthy Quits Medford Organization—Rudy Schultz, the Boy Phenom, Takes His Place in Infield.

Following the fiasco of Sunday at Grants Pass, Captain Joe McCarthy, whose headwork has been a bulwark of strength to the local baseball team, has quit the local organization for keeps. His presence in the infield will be missed to a great extent, Captain McCarthy knows more about baseball than any captain the local aggregation has had for years, and aside from this he was a great favorite with the fans who, voicing their affection in nicknames, promptly applied to him the appellation of "Grandpa" and made it stick.

The fans can find but one consolation in the quitting of Captain Joe, and that is the fact that Rudy Schultz, Medford's star boy infielder, who has just completed a season with Mt. Angel, will take Joe's place at shortstop. Medford fans have a great affection for the little phenom and will be there with the glad hand when he trots onto the diamond Sunday. Rudy is small, and this fact works against his work with the stick, but on field work he is there a million. There was some talk of putting Crews in at short, but this probably will not be done, owing to the fact that he got sore on the crowd at the last game he played, owing to the criticism heaped upon his head when he made three errors out of four chances and was replaced by Rider. Crews resigned from the team at that time and it is hardly likely that he will be put back now that Schultz is available.

Court Hall has a crew of men at work cutting the grass in the outfield and touching up the dressing on the diamond for the next three games which will decide the championship of the valley. Stevenson is working out daily and is expected to make a great showing in the box Sunday. Hog Bracław is also in the harness and is counted on to finish out the game should Stevenson go wrong.

FATS VS. LEANS RAIN OR SHINE

Captain of Both Teams Confident of Success—Stores Close for Game—Customs Principally Bathing Suits So Rain Cannot Hurt Them.

Rain or shine, the Fats and the Leans will play that famous game of baseball at the ball park this afternoon for the benefit of the band. As the costumes are composed principally of bathing suits, they will not be inappropriate. The Fats will have the biggest handicap if the grounds are slippery, for once down they will never be able to arise. Betting odds on the Leans have doubled with the heavy cloudiness and the imminent danger of rain.

The captains of both teams are confident of success. Both say that their men are in the pink of condition. The stores of the city will close at 4 o'clock and the big game will start at 4:30 sharp. Ball players will gather at the Natatorium at 3:45 and dress. Then, headed by the Medford band, they will march in a body to the field of slaughter. The game is for the benefit of the band. Admission will be: Men 50 cents, ladies 25 cents, children under 12 free.

Official Who Recently Resigned His Office Induced to Reconsider—Has Gained Valuable Working Knowledge in Past Two Years.

He will receive a salary of $85 a month. Mr. Baker has been street commissioner for the past two years and in that time has learned the location of every water and sewer main in the city. A new man would have considerable trouble in gaining the working knowledge necessary for the handling of the position. For this reason Baker was asked to remain.

AUTO DERAILS BARNUM'S MOTOR

Several People Have Narrow Escape When Judge Crews' Gas Buggy Collides With Jacksonville Limited and Whirls It Into Space.

Several people had a narrow escape from death Monday evening at Oakdale and the Rogue River Valley railway crossing when the motor on the railroad crashed into the rear end of an automobile driven by W. E. Crews with enough force to badly damage the machine and put the motor off the track. No one was injured, however, although all were severely shaken up. Judge Crews was running south on Oakdale at a moderate speed while the motor was coming east, being hidden by the tents which comprise Tent city. Judge Crews heard the bell but too late and was unable to turn out of the way. The occupants of the motor state that Mr. Barnum had sounded several warnings for the crossing and that he was in no way to blame. The blame was for the most part placed upon the obstruction to the view of the track on the west from the street. Several narrow escapes have been experienced at the same place.
