

CHILDREN'S FETE CRYSTAL PALACE

Hundred Thousand Youngsters Guests of King George and Queen Mary, Each of Whom Are Presented With a Royal Gift.

LONDON, June 30.—Never before in the history of London has there been witnessed here such a gathering of youth as was present today at the children's coronation fete at the Crystal Palace. More than 100,000 youngsters were the guests of King George and Queen Mary in this event and the affair served to greatly enhance the popularity of their majesties, not alone with the children, but with their parents.

Each child was presented with a royal gift in the shape of a beaker. Twenty-two tons of clay went into the manufacture of the thousands of pieces which are of fine ivory porcelain. On each beaker was a special portrait of the king in admiral's uniform, and the queen with their autographs below. In addition, each beaker bears the inscriptions: "Coronation of Their Majesties, King George V and Queen Mary, June 22, 1911," and "Presented by their majesties, Crystal Palace, June 30, 1911."

This evening the king and queen will be the guests of Premier and Mrs. Asquith at dinner.

Today's event practically closes the coronation season and the crowds are scattering to their homes.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian premier, sailed for home today on the Steamer Empress of Ireland.

SWIMMING RACES FOR CELEBRATION

Much Attention Attracted and Great Interest Around in Events Scheduled at the Natatorium for Evening of July Third.

The swimming races, which are to be held at the Natatorium on the evening of the third are attracting as much attention as any of the events scheduled for the celebration. Every day the participants in the various races are busily preparing for the contest developing their speed and endurance.

The free-for-all, which is the main event of the evening will be swum in heats owing to the number of entries. The men who will strive for the honors are all well known and hosts of friends are preparing to root for their favorites.

The relay in which one man will swim 100 yards against three of the fastest one lap men in the tank, will surely bring everyone to their feet. Opinions differ as to which has the best of it and the outcome will be in doubt right up to the last stroke. There will be dancing in the big hall Saturday, Monday and Tuesday nights.

KEAN NO LONGER QUESTIONS BONDS

Engravers at Work on $38,000 Issue—Money Will Soon Be Available for Water Main and Fire Department Equipment.

The bond-dealing house of S. A. Kean & Co., which raised some question as to the legality of the bond issue at a recent special election when $38,000 was voted at an election for city purposes, no longer questions the validity of the issue and have informed the city officials that they have engravers at work preparing the plates.

The money will soon be available. It will be used for the fire department and to pay the cost of installing new cast iron water main on East Main street.

ABILI CLEARS YOUNG MAN

Andrew Coffman Arrested on Charge of Burning Barn at Butte Falls Proves He Was in Medford at the Time of the Fire.

Establishing a clear alibi Andrew Coffman, accused of burning a barn owned by W. Perry of Butte Falls, was freed by Justice Taylor Friday. Coffman showed conclusively that he was in Medford at the time the barn burned.

Coffman was arrested Thursday by Constable Singler and was freed on a bond of $500. It developed that the only reason Perry thought Coffman to blame was the fact that he had left Butte Falls suddenly. Perry was assessed costs.

Who's Your Baker?

WHEN bread was called the "staff of life" the delicious crackers, cakes and biscuits of today were unknown. A baker in those days meant a man who baked bread. A baker nowadays means more—it signifies an artist who tickles your palate with those flakey crackers and other tit-bits that give you an added appetite for food—and help digestion.

"Who's your baker," means much. It means better health, a healthy stomach and happy days. If you study the matter as we study it, this is your bakery—for we know your needs. We already supply many of your neighbors. Try us next time.
