PARIS IS OVERRUN BY RICH AMERICANS

PARIS, July 1.—Never in all time have so many Americans been in Paris as at present. London has called the goose that was expected to lay the golden egg, and in place of reaping the mint of money which sons across the sea were supposed to bring to England and the coronation, France is doing it instead.

Of course many Americans are in London. But there are not as many here as otherwise there might have been. Stories of high prices have driven "the rich American" away from once, whether these stories be true or not. The "vulgar American who loves to overpay for what he gets" didn't materialize as was hoped and instead of London hotels being packed, it is the Paris hotelkeeper who is doing the biggest business he has ever encountered.

TO TEST EFFICIENCY OF AEROPLANE AND DIRIGIBLES

WASHINGTON, June 30.—For the first time in history, exhaustive tests as to the efficacy and adaptability of dirigibles and aeroplanes in war will be held at Hampton Roads about the first of August in connection with the naval maneuvers which will take place then.

Not satisfied with the usual method of mimic war, actual ammunition will be used on the air-raft and the naval authorities will have some method of judging as to the accuracy with which the guns now in use in the navy can be relied upon to annihilate an enemy approaching in ships. For this purpose immense dummies, made in shapes similar to aeroplanes.

The dirigibles will be manned by lummies.

NOTICE

To a published statement by Robt. V. Telfer, secretary of the general committee, it is thought that a reply could be proper.

At the outset of work on the program, referred to yesterday morning in a notice, there was a thorough understanding between the undersigned and E. M. Andrews, chairman of the printing committee, that the program containing advertising and daily accounts of the events, should be headed "Official," and folded with the committee's program.

A subsequent action of the committee has changed matters somewhat, or reasons which are not disclosed. Anyone with average intelligence could realize the advantage of issuing a program which changes daily, yet the committee has failed to grasp the advantage.

Although I am compelled to compliment the committee upon their splendid work in arranging the celebration, I cannot help but extend to them my heartfelt sympathy and trust that the time may yet come when they will awake to the full realization of what a program should be, and I will willingly leave it to the public to decide which program they care to use.

THEODORE W. ANDERSON, Manager Sporting Program.
