WOODVILLE ITEMS.

On last Friday afternoon Mrs. Margaret Hillis died at her home above Wimer and was buried in the Woodville cemetery beside her late husband, William P. Hillis, on Sunday afternoon, June 25.

Mrs. Hillis was a woman of strong character and was greatly loved by all who knew her. She made no parade of her virtues, always living in a quiet way, yet her daily life spoke louder than words of the nobility and beauty of her character. She was a true friend and kind neighbor and always extended a hearty welcome to all who passed her way. The family have the sympathy of all in their sorrow.

Mrs. Grace Dix has been appointed as manager of the ice cream parlor which is being run in connection with the reading room by the Improvement club.

John Owens and family will move into Sam Mathias' house near the depot about July 5.

The contractors are busy finishing all the rooms in the upper floor of the school building.

Central Point will be well represented both at Medford and Butte Falls on the Fourth. Our citizens are patriotic and want these celebrations to be a success.

Miss Myrtle Purkeypide of Ashland is here visiting Mrs. Purkeypide, sr.

TALENT ITEMS.

O. A. Stearns of Klamath, Oregon, is visiting with friends and relatives in Talent and vicinity. Mr. Stearns was an old time settler in Jackson county, but has resided for many years in the Klamath Basin. He expressed himself as being much impressed by the change for the better that have been made in Rogue River Valley.

Mr. Triecker the old miner who has been living alone in Wagner Canyon for many years on Thursday was found in quite a serious condition. Neighbors had not seen him stirring about for several days, so on Thursday a number of them visited the old cabin of Mr. Tucker, they found Mr. Tucker lying on the bed living but in an unconscious state, Dr. Forbes was summoned. On examination the doctor found a block of matches in the food that Mr. Tucker had been eating and thought it possible that he had been poisoned with phosphore, but was uncertain as to that conclusion. Friends at Ashland were phoned to and on Friday Mr. Wicks and Mr. Hatfield came to Talent to look after Mr. Tucker. Orville Works was employed to stay with Mr. Tucker for the present. Mr. Tucker is a member of the Masons lodge.

On Friday Clay Patterson was in Talent enjoying a ride in his new automobile.

T. E. Scanlan the prosperous farmer west of Talent has purchased a new automobile.

Melburn Beeson, Blim Coleman and the contractor Herman Snacks were spending Thursday in Ashland.

Van Dunlap our enterprising citizen recently returned from a trip to Klamath Falls.

Miss Maybell Flury was visiting in Ashland on Friday.

BUTTE FALLS ITEMS.

Mr. Caison has his new baker shop finished and it is a very nice building. Butte Falls is progressing rapidly, and building operations are many, but some difficulty is experienced in obtaining lumber as the mill cannot keep up with the demand.

John Cadzow and Miss Reily were married lately in Medford by the Rev. Dr. Lewis of the Episcopal church and will go to housekeeping in Butte Falls.

Bud Hildreth, Oscar Erickson, Bill Erickson and several other Butte Falls people are visiting in Medford and all report Butte Falls as going right ahead and prospects good.

Butte Falls will celebrate the 4th of July on a grand scale and the Indiana residents of the valley will hold a picnic on that day in the Park grove.

W. B. Stodard has about finished his new store room and will stock it with a first class line of hardware.

The new hotel and restaurant building erected by Mr. Johnson of Ashland, is now completed and ready for business.

The Iowa Lumber company has about completed its field operations, but will begin again before a great while.

The P. & E. railway is getting its roadbed in fine condition and travel over the road is increasing at a satisfactory rate. The weekly Sunday excursions have done and are doing much to advance Butte Falls' interests and Mr. Gerig and the other officers of the company deserve the support and praise of the people for their energy and intelligent management.

Judge Pentz, through Mr. Barker, the banker, offers his fine business property for rent. This is a splendid location next to the bank and suitable for cigar, candy and other small business. Mr. Barker of the Pine Creek Banking company has charge and will rent the property. A lease for two years will be given with reasonable reservations.

Judge Pentz has returned from Montana and is now representing one of the largest and strongest banking institutions of Idaho and will place about $100,000 of the capital stock among his friends.

There was a slight disturbance in our midst lately between a dog and one of our boys. Blood flowed freely and the dog came off victorious. No arrests were made.

Will Perry had the costs to pay in case of Andrew Kaufman, charged with barn burning. Andrew was not in the neighborhood at the time of the fire.

Many visitors are coming and going to and from Butte Falls and the summer travel is likely to be large as this is a fine summer resort with splendid water, delightful climate and good fishing streams.

It is said that splendid water has been piped from Garry's springs to Butte Falls and the town will now have an abundance of pure spring water.

Mr. Mills, manager of the mill, has made several convenient additions to his house and has now a most comfortable home.

Mr. Welch of Portland was visiting in Butte Falls during the week and looking after business matters.

Bill Matthews has taken up a homestead near Butte Falls and is improving it.

Frank Neil is one of the new forest rangers and will give satisfaction.

Ed Watson has won his homestead contest. S. S. Pentz was his attorney.

Butte Falls is a fast growing town and is bound to make an important business center as the P. & E. railway will make an extension of its line here for many months, and as railroad matters throughout the country adjust themselves to conditions.
