POSTPONES CASES UNTIL JULY 5

Mrs. Ortic McManigal to Answer to Contempt Charges Thursday-Mo-Namara Brothers to Be Arraigned Wednesday.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 1 .-With the formal postponement of the case of Mrs. Ortic E. McManigal, elted for contempt in connection with the * labor prosecutions, until next Thursday, attorneys for the defense the McNamara brothers today went nto conference to discuss next week's developments in the now famous net work of cases.

The coming week will be fraught with many important steps taken both by the district attorneys' force and the battery of aftorneys retained by union labor organizations. The most important case will be that of the McNamara brothers. They will appear for arraignment before Judge Bordwell July 5. At that time Atforney Clarence Darrow and his associates will make motions for the quashing of the indictments. It will be a sharp legal clash and many important points of law will be threshed

On Monday Judge Willis of the superior court will hand down his decision as to the validity of indictments against B. H. Conners, A. R. Bender and A. B. Maple, members of the Los Angeles unions, accused of plotting the destruction of the Hall of Records.

On Thursday will dome the hearing of the contempt charges against Mrs. McManigal. Her attorneys relterated today their intention to prevent her appearance in the court the amount

Attaches o fthe district attorney's office today disclaimed any knowledge of the purported arrest in London of David Caplan.

PHONE GIRL

Telephone Operator Declares That She Remembers Conversations a Year Ago and That Assertions Made Concerning Bribe Are False.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1 .-The Lorimer investigating committee of the senate plans to adjourn this afternoon or on Monday to July 13 to give the mwyers on either side chance to arrange for the presentation of further evidence.

Frances Carroll, a telephone operator, today produced the long distance records of Hines' office and repeated from memory messages between him andother persons. She said the prominence of the persons impressed the conversations indelibly on her mind.

Miss Carroll declared that she overheard the conversation between Governor Dencen and Hines which others testified contained the statement by Hines that he would come o Springfield with all the money ecessary to elect Lorimer. She de lared no such statement was made.

SEE COLONIZATION SCHEME IN PURCHASE OF RANCH

RENO, Nev., July 1 .- The purhase of the Ellison ranch of 17,000 acres in Humboldt county is ground for the belief here today that a great colonization scheme of the Mormon church is under way. The sale price was about $100,000.
