

LIVERY STABLE CAUSES TURMOIL

Neighborhood of Fir and Main Excited Over Prospect of Having Stable in Midst—Charles Palm Rents Storeroom for Purpose.

Business men and merchants in the vicinity of Fir and Main streets are highly incensed over the prospect of having a livery stable in their midst, and have raised a fund to fight its installation in every possible way as a public nuisance.

The store room on North Fir and the alley, formerly used by W. M. Hodson as a garage and later by Mor-doff as a second hand store has been leased by R. H. Bradshaw for livery stable purposes. It was proposed to remodel the structure and transform it into a livery stable, keeping a number of horses there.

As necessary repairs cannot be made without a permit, the city council will be asked to refuse the permit. The building is owned by Charles W. Palm.

off near the junction and at that time dropped a part of the loot he had with him, and that this was what the two men found.

The police have a dragnet out throughout the state and if the second burglar attempts to get rid of any of the loot he will be caught.

In this case, as in most burglaries, a large amount of "easy money" was overlooked. Two traveling cases containing in all $16,000 worth of jewelry had been left in the Reddy store over night by a salesman for a large wholesale house.

MANY LEAVING FOR FOOTHILLS

Camping Season Opens and Towns-people Are Preparing to Seek Respite From Hot Weather by Taking to the Hills.

The camping season is at hand and many local people are preparing to take to the hills. As the hunting season does not open until later in the season this year it has a tendency to keep a number in town until the first of August but in spite of this daily wagons loaded with camping outfits are seen departing for the timber.

A large number of people are preparing to camp this season at Butte Falls. Many beautiful spots abound in that region suitable for the establishment of camps and the new train service makes it possible for business men of Medford to take their families there and leave them for the summer while they attend to their business in this city leaving Saturday afternoon for the camp by train and returning Monday morning in time for business. Along Rogue river many camps are being pitched and the parties are spending their time in fishing which is beginning to be good.

PITY SAVES BOY A TERM IN JAIL

Mrs. Dowel, Who Chased Youngster Down the Street and Recovers Her Watch Which He Had Stolen, Will Not Prosecute.

Although she was there with the goods when it came to chasing a thief up the street and holding on to him until the officers relieved her of the task, Mrs. E. J. Dowel fell down when it came to sending "the poor man" to the pen. She reniged on prosecuting and the officers will be compelled to turn him loose.

The man, who gives his name as Will Johnson, swiped a watch from Mrs. Dowel late Thursday evening and attempted to flee. She swung onto his coat however and refused to loosen her hold and in the mean time cried out right lustily for aid. Officer Cineade came to her aid in a hurry and the young man was lodged in jail. She recovered her watch and now refuses to prosecute.

MAJOR WILCOX STRIKES GOLD ON HIS ORCHARD

L. Harry Wilcox, owner of the Arrowhead orchards at Table Rock, has made an interesting mineral discovery on his property, which, according to reports coming from practical miners who have inspected the property gives promise of yielding high values with development.

The prospect was struck somewhat by accident and only the chance visit of an old prospector who "knew the color" when he saw it, brought the find to the owner's notice.

A little work was sufficient to trace up the mountain side to where indications of a ledge was discovered and subsequent development work has shown a very encouraging condition. It is said that under a heavy cap of lava and hardpan, such as may be found in many of the broken up sections of this part of the state, and which is generally passed over by the casual prospector, has been found a well defined strata of heavily mineralized matter which shows encouraging prospects and gives good promise of satisfactory values with intelligent development.—Central Point Herald.

COLOR OF THE HAIR CAN BE PRESERVED

("Aunt Della" in Home Monthly.)
"Oftentimes a woman's hair becomes dull and faded—yes, even grey and thin—long before nature intended it should, simply because she has neglected to give it the proper care. Proper care does not mean drenching with water and soap or the application of so-called tonics. Too much moisture tends to make the scalp hard and scaly and the hair lifeless and brittle.
"The hair will respond quickly to proper treatment. Put in a fruit jar four ounces of orris root and four ounces of therox. Shake until well mixed. Once or twice a week sprinkle a tablespoonful of this powder on the head and brush it well and completely through the hair.
"Dry shampooing by this method removes dust, dirt and dandruff from the scalp and leaves the hair fresh, clean and beautifully lustrous. Therox helps to grow hair, preserves the natural color and keeps it light and fluffy."

before the grand jury yesterday afternoon. Benn was the principal witness for Wappenstein.

Mrs. Charles W. Wappenstein, wife of the ex-chief of police convicted of accepting a bribe, was called before the grand jury at 10:30 o'clock this morning. Her appearance is the biggest sensation of the latest session of the jury. She was on the list of witnesses in the Wappenstein trial, but was not called. Her testimony today will probably consume most of the time of the grand jury.

Mrs. Wappenstein was closeted with the grand jury only twenty minutes. On leaving she said to Attorney Morris: "They will call me again when they want me."

ACKLEY BOOSTS MEDFORD IN TILLAMOOK COUNTY

The Tillamook Headlight in a recent issue states:

L. D. Ackley, wife and daughter are in from Medford on a visit to their relatives. He bought five acres in that city when he went there, and since then sold about half of it for more than double the money he gave for it. He informs us that they have the real live boosting spirit at Medford and are getting a large number of new people to locate there as a result of the activity of the Commercial club. City property has taken a jump, and they expect to outdo Eugene for civic improvements. To give some idea of what is going on there, he says that in two years, which will end this fall, 20 miles of hard surface pavement will be laid. Mr. Ackley was one of the early settlers of this county, and when he came to Tillamook had to come in over the trail. He is well pleased with his new location, and will visit here for about two weeks before returning to Medford.
