

WEEK'S HAPPENINGS IN MEDFORD SOCIAL CIRCLES

Very little has been doing in the social world the past week, the weather being too warm to admit of much entertaining.

Masses of sweet peas were used for decoration in the spacious rooms and shasta daisies were used as table decorations. The luncheon was served at small tables in the drawing room, dining room and veranda.

At the home of Mr. Fred W. Mears, King street, Medford, his cousin, Mr. Hobart W. Mears, and Miss Katherine J. Barker of Boston, Mass., were united in the bonds of matrimony by Rev. W. Lucas on Tuesday, last at 1 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. George Daggett have taken apartments at The Cottage for the summer. Mrs. Daggett having postponed her eastern trip on account of the extreme heat in the east.

A very pretty dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Knight on East Main street, Monday evening, when the losing members of the Monday 500 club entertained the winners.

The "Lend-a-hands" will meet at the High school every Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock during the summer and all members are requested to attend, as there is a great deal of work to be done.

The initiation of the officers of the Chrysanthemum circle, No. 84, was held Tuesday evening when the following officers were installed.

Miss Alice Street was hostess at her summer home at Woodville Wednesday evening at dinner. Among the guests who motored there from Medford were: Misses Fern Hutchison, Ida Lee Kentner and Althea Emerick.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones of Minneapolis who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard on the upper Jacksonville road left for their home last week.

Mrs. S. T. Howard, Miss Willie Howard and Mr. Tom Howard have been attending Chautauqua at Ashland.

TWO PARTICIPANTS IN EUROPEAN CIRCUIT RACE SOARING OVER PICTURESQUE LOWLAND COUNTRY

Rare in the annals of photography is the picture shown here of an old windmill in the plains of Holland. It shows the ancient and modern handiwork of man in close juxtaposition.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cochrane and family left last week for their lodge at Fish lake where they will spend the greater part of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Warner and family left Saturday for Colestine where Mrs. Warner and the children will remain for the summer.

Miss Myrtle Roberts of Albany, who has been visiting Miss Agnes Isaacs, will be the guest of Miss Ione Flynn this week.

Mrs. Clara Mouldin left last week for the Deschutes country, where she will take charge of a hotel, which is to be opened there.

Miss Agnes Isaacs entertained the Question club Wednesday evening. The guest of honor was Miss Myrtle Roberts of Albany.

Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Pickel returned Thursday from Portland where Dr. Pickel attended the State Medical convention.

Miss Cordelia Goff was the guest of Miss Mildred Gerig last week.

Rev. Matlock, who has been pastor of the Christian church for some time, has resigned and will reside in Ashland.

Miss Johnson of Akron, Ohio, arrived Friday and will spend the summer here the guest of the Misses Folger.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Trowbridge were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Woodville last week.

Miss Ethel Hazelrigg left for San Francisco Wednesday and will join her parents there.

The Thursday Bridge club did not meet last week as several members are out of town.

Mrs. White and Miss Zelia White are spending a couple of weeks at Colestin.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Deuel leave Sunday on an auto trip to Crescent City.

Mrs. J. G. Hubbard spent the week at Ashland, attending Chautauqua.

Mr. and Mrs. McCormack entertained at dinner one evening last week at their home on Ross Court. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Vilas Beckwith, Mr. and Mrs. Conro Fiero, Miss McCormack, Mr. Cass and Mr. McCormack.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Webb, who returned from Portland on their bridal trip Thursday, were welcomed by a number of their friends at their country home near Central Point Thursday evening.

The stage line to Crater Lake opened last week and regular runs will be made during the season. The roads are in good condition and many parties will take advantage of the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Brown have returned from their wedding trip and have gone to Mr. Brown's mine. They expect to return to Medford later and will make their home here.

Mrs. Cora Downs returned last week from Chicago, where she has been visiting her parents.

At the band concert Friday night when the opening strains of "Dixie" were heard fully 100 of the audience stood and remained standing during the entire number. It is pleasing to see respect shown the national airs in this age of little reverence for all things, and it would be well to have the people remember that the "Star Spangled Banner" is also a national piece, for one night when it was played here, everyone kept their seat, no one had the courage to stand, although several women figured uncomfortably and tried to start the salute.

The band concerts which are being given every week are proving a success and are greatly enjoyed by big crowds. A band is a great addition to a city, and Medford has a very good one and every effort should be made to have the concerts kept up during the pleasant weather.

Miss Ida Lee Kentner returned Monday from the east where she has been attending school the past year. Mrs. H. C. Kentner met her in Grants Pass.

Mrs. H. Cameron, who has been visiting her daughters, Mrs. L. L. Jacobs and Miss Bernice Cameron, returned last week to her home on the Applegate.

Mrs. C. E. Davis, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Edwards, left Friday for her home in Dunsmuir, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Andrews of Goshen, Ind., are new arrivals in Medford and are residing at 206 Orange avenue.

Mr. Jack Morrell returned Saturday morning from a trip east, accompanying him were two of his college classmates.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Green of Portland are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. Honore Palmer and Dr. J. F. Reddy left for Crater lake Friday.

The state fish and game commission accompanied by State Game Warden Finley and Master Fish Warden Clanto were entertained last week by the Rogue River Fish Production association. A banquet was tendered them Monday evening at the Nash grill after which an informal reception was held in the Nash lobby.

A pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Mrs. C. A. Meeker, 315 North Bartlett street, Friday afternoon when she entertained her class of piano pupils and their friends. A musical program consisting of piano solos and duets were given by the different pupils. Games and contests of a musical nature were enjoyed, after which dainty refreshments were served.

In honor of her sister, Miss Lillian Locket of Pasadena, Mrs. Dick McDowell entertained informally at bridge Thursday evening. The guests besides the honor guest were Mr. and Mrs. Barneburg, Mr. Anderson, Miss Anderson and Mr. Lincoln.

Mr. W. A. Sumner, manager of the Palmer interests in Rogue River valley, will arrive here this week for a short visit.

Postmaster A. M. Woodford returns Sunday from Coquille where he has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Lamb.

Mr. and Mrs. Asabel Hubbard have been spending the week at Ashland attending Chautauqua.

Miss Annie Crane of Pasadena is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Thayer.

Mrs. F. Gluck left Friday for Los Angeles, where she will reside.

Mr. W. I. Vawter returned last week from a trip to Portland.

Mrs. J. D. Heard is confined to the house by illness.

Mrs. Shafer, Miss Shafer and Mrs. Ben Garnett attended the Chautauqua at Ashland last week.

How to Obtain Horticultural Information and Data By P. J. O'Gara, Pathologist

The trained horticulturist, as well as the amateur, is often in need of special information, and very often much time and valuable crops are lost or injured before such information can be obtained.

be placed on the monthly mailing list, such bulletins as may be desired will be sent free upon request. Horticultural magazines: Text books and bulletins soon grow old, that is to say, no sooner is a book or bulletin published than newer and more up-to-date information is at hand.

ture. (Bailey), four volumes. The Macmillan Company, New York City. Complete reference book for anyone interested in horticulture. 3. Horticulturist's Rule Book (Bailey), The Macmillan Company, New York City. Full of useful information and tables for the horticulturist.

3. American Horticultural Manual (Budd-Hansen) 2 volumes. Wiley & Sons, New York City. 4. Fruit Growing in Arid Regions (Paddock and Whipple). The Macmillan Co. 5. The Orchard and Fruit Garden. (Powell), McClure, Phillips & Co., New York City.

(Rawson), Orange Judd Co., New York City. Complete manual for vegetable growers. 3. Book of Vegetables, (Allen French), The Macmillan Company, New York City. First-rate book for amateurs. Especially good for its detailed information.

bulletins pertaining to vegetable growing and gardening. Experiment station bulletins. Write to the director of your station. Floriculture and Greenhouse Management. 1. Greenhouse Construction, (Taft) Orange Judd Co., New York City.

3. Art Out of Doors, (Mrs. Schayler Van Rensselaer). Scribner's Sons, New York City. 4. The Landscape Beautiful, (Waugh), Orange Judd Co., New York City. One of the best discussions of this subject.