EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

(By A. C. Howlett)

There has been quite a number of strangers here the last few days looking over our country with a view to locating. Some of them seem very interested about a little publicity, and request to have their names withheld from the public.

Civil Engineer Tee of Medford came out Wednesday last to do some work in his line, laying off some tracts of land that have been bought in our town of larger dimensions than simple town lots.

Samuel T. Colbert of Medford representing the Bolding Shirt Company of Parsons, Kansas was here last Thursday. He was soliciting for special orders.

Dr. B. F. Parsons of Eugene, eye specialist, magnetic healer and etc., was riding in his auto through the town soliciting but seemed to meet with but little success, the people are beginning to realize that it is just as well to patronize our own specialists as to be treated by strangers who come and go, after they have skinned their victims.

We are experiencing very hot weather this year in July instead of the last of August as is generally the case, but when come to compare notes with our eastern folks especially the results we are still of the opinion that Southern Oregon and especially Jackson, and Eagle Point in particular is one of the favored spots in the universe, although the past two or three days have been what we might term scorchers, but still there are no sun strokes or prostrations from heat.

There was considerable excitement in our community over the report that an old lady was lost up above Brownsboro, but she was soon found by members of the family, she had simply got a little farther from home than usual.

John B. Forem, of the firm of W. E. Wilkison & Co., of Portland was a pleasant caller last Thursday, while he was here he copied a long list of the names of the principle orchardists of the Rogue River Valley, from our new county directory, as he is handling goods in which they are interested.

County Assessor Grelves and wife and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harrigan of Marafield were pleasant callers Friday evening for supper they had been up to the Free Ferry and were on their way back to Jacksonville, Mr. Harrigan is in the hardware business in Marafield and is here looking after his timber interests.

Mrs. P. H. Daloy and family returned last Friday from an outing in the hills for a few days.

Our school board have employed Miss Nella M. Morris as teacher to take charge of the intermediate department of our school.

Mrs. Kennaday, library organizer for the Oregon Library committee spent Friday and Friday night at the Sunside of Eagle Point and while here arranged with the school board to lend a traveling library of fifty volumes for the use of the Eagle Point school. While here she expressed a strong desire to go to the top of Table Rock and take a look at the surrounding country, and also expressed a determination to visit Crater Lake before she leaves Southern Oregon.

WOODVILLE ITEMS.

Miss Grace Stevens returned Thursday evening from a three weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Morse, of Medford.

Roy McLean spent Sunday with his family in Grants Pass.

Sam Sandry and Art Burgess went on a trip into the Evan's Creek

COLORADO MAY GET RECALL OF JUDGES

DENVER, Col., July 17.—Recall of judges will be included in a measure which the Direct Legislation league is planning to introduce at the next general election and representatives of the league, which has already begun preliminary work, are predicting that the measure will pass by an overwhelming vote. It is expected that the proposition will be bitterly opposed by local magistrates.

The recall measure was strongly urged by Elahroth in the last legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kahle arrived in Woodville Wednesday night and will have an interest in the Kahle Company, general store here.

A good many from Woodville will attend the mining congress in Grants Pass on Tuesday. Mr. E. D. Thompson has charge of the work of gathering specimens for this district and we hope that there will be a good exhibit from Woodville.

Will Laws has accepted a position with the Kahle Company.

Miss Alice Whipple is spending the summer with friends at Trail.

Mrs. J. P. Winford, Miss Sabray Booker have gone on a camping trip into the mountains. The ladies dispensed with the services of "mere man" and took a horse and wagon and started out alone. Mrs. Winford's health has not been good for some months and we hope that the trip will have beneficial results.

Miss Alice Streets entertained a party of Medford young people at "Meadowhook Farm" there on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Eva Sanburn, of Yoncola, is visiting friends here.

John Hills made a business trip to Jacksonville last Thursday. Mrs. Hills accompanied him as far as Woodville and pleased the many friends here by calling on them.

Mr. and Mrs. Alken went to Portland on Thursday. Mr. Alken has invented a screen to keep fish out of the irrigation ditches, and it is in connection with this invention that he has gone to Portland at this time.

Miss Hannah Winn is visiting the Misses Helen and Alice Chandler this week.
