END OF SESSION BY AUGUST 15

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 26.—Democrats here today are practically unanimous in the belief that last night's caucus forecasts an adjournment of congress by August 15 at the latest.

At the caucus the house democrats overwhelmingly rejected the plan to continue tariff revision at the present session. The senate democrats were divided on the wool bill, and it is predicted that the Underwood and LaFollette bills both will be rejected at the final vote on them in the senate tomorrow.

The democratic senators will hold another caucus tonight.

FIRST CHINESE CRUISER IN NEW YORK HARBOR

NEW YORK, July 26.—When the cruiser Hai Chi, flying the yellow dragon standard of China, sails into the harbor here today it will be the first time in history that a Chinese warship has visited New York. TWO-MILE FOREST FIRE RAGING NEAR ALBANY

ALBANY, Or., July 26.—Reports early today from Mill City state that the forest fire raging near there has burned over an area more than two miles wide and three miles long and is spreading.

VOLE ON WOOL TARIFF IN SENATE THURSDAY

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 26.—A vote on the LaFollette bill revising the wool schedule of the Payne-Aldrich tariff act will be taken in the senate tomorrow. The measure will be made a substitute for the bill already passed by the house and now on the senate calendar and will be passed, it is believed, by a coalition of democrats and insurgents. It is also believed that the president will promptly veto the bill should it pass.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 26.—

Fight fans here are agreed today that Monte Attell was lucky to get a draw in his fight with Jimmy Reagan before the Buffalo Athletic club. Eddie Hanlon called the 20-round no draw, notwithstanding the fact that Reagan led all the way through and at times had Attell staggering. Kid George went a good 10 rounds with Patsy McKenna for a draw. Burke refereed the preliminaries.

KITTY OWNER NOT LIABLE

Judge Bunn of St. Paul Declares That the Man Who Takes the Poker Rake-off Is Not Responsible for the Player's Loss.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 26.—Indicating by his judgment that he well knows that sinking of the heart, which comes when the other fellow uncovers an ace high flush against your straight, Judge George L. Bunn of the state supreme court today in a decision held that the man who takes the "kitty" cannot be held liable for a player's loss.

Judge Bunn upheld the decision of the district court of Hennepin county in the case of John W. Nagle against Edward Randall and others. In his opinion Judge Bunn said:

"Without doubt a man who gets a small but certain percentage of the stakes put up by the players and does not play himself will be riding in an automobile while the players walk the ties, and in some sense must be considered a winner. However, neither the owner of the building where Nagle played, nor Randall, the 'kitty' taker, was a player nor better in the game, and neither was a direct winner of the money Nagle dropped."

HARMONY IS KEYNOTE OF NEBFASKA DEMOCRATS

Investigate These Excellent Piano Bargains Right Now Some people would as soon buy a good, well-taken-care-of, used Piano as they would a brand new one. Since the start of our big mid-summer clearance sale we have taken in exchange as part payment on Grands, Autopianos and high-grade makes, several fine instruments. Every one of which is in fine condition or requires very little work to make them good as new. They are pianos that will in nearly all cases last a lifetime. However, if, after one, two, or even three years' usage, the purchaser is desirous of getting a better piano, the Eilers Music House exchange agreement entitles him to credit for every cent he has paid to be applied on a higher-grade instrument. The prices were never so low or terms of payment so easy. Think of a really good piano, $98, used but not abused. For $135 you can obtain a piano that other dealers would ask $250 for, and so on. Payments as low as $1 per week or $5 per month will pay for some of them. The following special bargains will be on sale tomorrow: Cook, walnut case, $135; Kimball, large size, mahogany case, $155; Cote, used less than three months, $178; Marshall & Wendell, used for display, new, $274; Eilers Lester, Ludwig, Gerhard and others at like reductions.
