

WILDE MUST GO TO OREGON

California's Governor Signs Requisition Papers for Banker Wanted at Portland—Didn't Think West Was Correctly Quoted in Statement.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 28.—Prepared to sign the extradition papers asked by the state of Oregon for Louis J. Wilde, San Diego banker, wanted in the northern state for alleged embezzlement, as soon as they are presented to him, Governor Hiram Johnson today made a little statement in reply to the castigation given him by Governor Oswald West.

Johnson was disinclined to believe that the governor of Oregon had been correctly quoted.

"I can hardly believe that the governor of Oregon," he said, "could have made the statement imputed to him, because no governor could be so petty, so contemptible or so assassinate as to make such remarks."

And there you are. Governor West, informed that Governor Johnson would decline to extradite Wilde, said that if California were so fond of Wilde, it might keep him, accepting him as Oregon's exhibit at the Panama exposition.

CLERICAL ERROR SANDRY INTO TROUBLE

SALEM, July 28.—For the purpose of investigating the report that Sam L. Sandry, fish warden in fishing district No. 2, had duplicated items in his expense account, Game Warden Finley and Master Fish Warden Clanton went to Salem Tuesday.

After examining Mr. Sandry's papers it was discovered that the reported duplication was a clerical error and that Mr. Sandry had had no criminal intention. In addition to his position as fish warden, Mr. Sandry also acts as deputy game warden. In entering his expenses for a recent trip to Roseburg, Mr. Sandry had inadvertently made the entry for the fare from Woodville to Roseburg twice instead of the return trip to Woodville.

State Game Warden Finley said yesterday that the report had caused Mr. Sandry and members of the fish and game commission some annoyance.

The explanation made to Mr. Finley and Secretary of State Olcott was satisfactory to those officials.

MEDFORD BENEFICIALLY AFFECTED BY THE DECISION

East of the Missouri river, in the Chicago zone, the coast cities have the advantage of 7 per cent, which in the case of a dollar rate would be seven cents the hundred which would enable the coast cities to overlap the half way distance to this extent. However, the question arises if it will not be necessary for Chicago to concede this seven cents to interior buyers so as to compete with Missouri river towns. In this event that trade condition will cause Chicago to absorb the differential in favor of Missouri river pocking it will practically give the interior terminal rates from Chicago.

Westward Movement.

Census statistics show that manufacturing is moving westward and in the exact ratio that Atlantic seaboard manufacturing has decreased the middle west section has gained. Movement of traffic also shows that approximately 85 per cent of the tonnage consumed in the interior of eastern origin moves from the Chicago territory and west. Therefore it is clear that upon this portion of the traffic moving under present conditions the interior will become the sole arbiters of distribution in their sections. Furthermore it is to be expected that manufacture of the remaining 15 per cent will be stimulated in the middle west so that the effect is likely to be that far eastern made goods will be a very small part of the volume of traffic reaching from eastern parts to the Pacific interior.

Panama Hopes Fade.

In view of this no very great advantage can be hoped to be gained by coast cities by the completion of the Panama Canal so far as recovery of the lost territory is concerned. As pointed out in the Reno decision the industrial development of the coast cities would in all probability be stimulated by the operation of the new principle in rate making. Medford has already set in motion this idea in the pending suits before the state railroad commission where commodity rates are asked for movement of traffic from Portland as against the expensive method of long distance jobbing.

GAVE WORTHLESS CHECKS; ARRESTED

Dr. B. Riddle, who is also said to go by the name of Dr. Vogel, was arrested at Roseburg Tuesday and held there until Constable Irwin could bring him back to Ashland to answer a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses from W. H. McNair, says the Tidings. He is also charged with having cashed a number of worthless checks on merchants and with having taken a $150 set of veterinarian's instruments from Dr. Charles E. Carter.

Riddle appeared in Ashland last week. He was well dressed and very smooth. He held out that he was a graduate of the Ontario Veterinary College at Toronto, Canada, and announced that he was going to build a veterinary hospital at the corner of Second and B streets. He deposited $5 in a local bank and proceeded to cash a number of checks on local parties, so it is alleged, most of them for $5. He picked an acquaintance with Dr. Carter, a local veterinarian, and before decamping helped himself so Dr. Carter says to a brand new set of instruments.

As soon as it was learned that Riddle had skipped the town, a warrant was sworn out for his arrest and the officers at Roseburg picked him up. It is said he is a "world beater" and that he had been playing the "races" heavily at Vancouver, B. C., before he came south.

Riddle cashed worthless checks at all the drug stores in Ashland except Bolton's. Those who accommodated him in this matter and were "stung" were McNair Brothers, East Side Pharmacy, W. M. Poley and F. B. Mix. While here the "doctor" stayed at the Hotel Oregon and left an unpaid bill of $19 when he departed.

TWO JUDGES FAVOR NEW TOBACCO TRUST

NEW YORK, July 28.—Elated by the discovery that at least two judges of the United States circuit court are in harmony with the money powers in applying the "rule of reason" to the tobacco trust, bankers representing the bondholders of the American Tobacco company today are pushing its reorganization. They believe re-organization will provide necessary "competition" without curtailing the earning power of the component parts of the trust.

ON TRIAL FOR SETTING OUT A FOREST FIRE

Guy Fogers and Gus Davis, the latter colored, appeared for preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner Canon Friday afternoon on a charge of setting fire in the Klamath National Forest. The men were recently arrested at Ashland.

The two men will probably be bound over to the federal court, as the evidence against them seems to be conclusive.

RETURNS MONEY PAID PRAYING IN LEGISLATURE

MADISON, Wis., July 28.—Explaining in a letter that "it really seemed that the $677 paid for prayers during this session was lost money as the legislature did such rotten business on all temperance measures," Rev. L. A. Tall today returned to State Treasurer Dahl a check for $3 paid for delivering one invocation in the senate.

DRY SHAMPOOING IMPROVES THE HAIR

(Madge Lyon on "Hair and Scalp") "Women having an abundance of fine, glossy hair do not employ a wet shampoo. They rely upon a powder, which is sifted on the scalp and brushed through the hair, removing dandruff and excess oil, and leaving the hair light, fluffy and beautifully lustrous.

"It is surprising what excellent results can be had if the dry shampoo is used for a short time. Dry and scaly scalps become clean, soft and free from dandruff; coarse, faded and stringy hair grows rich, fine and glossy.

"A dry shampoo of unusual excellence can be made at little cost if you mix four ounces of orris root with four ounces of therax. Just sprinkle a tablespoonful of this mixture on the scalp, then brush out well. Dry shampooing removes all possibility of catching cold from washing the head."

POPE SERIOUSLY ILL FOREGOES AUDIENCES

ROME, July 28.—That Pope Pius is seriously ill was visibly apparent at the vatican. His advisers says the pontiff is haggard, weak and depressed and that as a result of the laryngitis attack he breathes with difficulty.

This condition has greatly aggravated his heart trouble which has become grave through his chronic gout.

Professor Marchisava who today was called into consultation.
