The reception given by the ladies of the First M. E. church Wednesday afternoon, was a most delightful affair. The basement was disguised by exquisite draperies, cushions, fresh cut flowers and greens that one could easily imagine themselves in fairyland, the decorations being ferns, roses, sweet peas and the dainty infants' breath artistically placed on the walls, tables and elsewhere. On entering each guest was served with delicious punch by Mrs. Ivy; then they were welcomed by the reception committee, composed of all ladies whose names begin with E to M. After a social season two vocal numbers afforded much pleasure. A duet rendered by Miss Shannon and Mrs. Eastman, and a solo by Mrs. Van Scoyoc. A floral contest then added zest and joy to the hour, and when the contestants had found a partner by matching cards all marched to the daintily appointed tables led by the chairman, Mrs. McMay, and her partner Mrs. Meeker. The blessing was pronounced by Rev. Belknap, after which all proceeded to the pleasant duty of pinning on the dainty boutonnieres of sweet peas and infants' breath previous to partaking of the elegant ice cream, cake and punch. There were 50 or more guests present and it is the aim of the ladies to make these monthly receptions occasions of delightful hospitality and enjoyment. There will be another one given on the last Wednesday in August, and strangers and new arrivals in the town, whether they be members of the church or not, are particularly welcomed, and it is hoped that none will absent themselves because they are not acquainted, but come and get acquainted.

Colonel and Mrs. Sargent, recently returned from the Philippines, have purchased the Barker place on South Oakdale and will make this their home. Colonel Sargent is a retired army officer and Mrs. Sargent, who is a sister of Mrs. M. S. Alford, lived for many years in Ashland.

Mr. Volney Dixon has left for a short stay at "Camp Nick."

Last Tuesday afternoon about 50 women of the city met at the Baptist church and launched a movement which bids fair to be the beginning of an organization which shall do an indefinite amount of good for the young ladies and girls of our city.

Miss Lee, a Y. W. C. A. worker from Portland, addressed the meeting. She told of the various departments of work which is being carried on by the association in other cities and urged that the work be started in this place.

District Attorney B. F. Mulkey also addressed the meeting, outlining work which could be pursued advantageously. Mr. Mulkey's official work puts him in a position to be thoroughly conversant with the conditions, such as we are endeavoring to overcome. The thoroughness and detail with which he handled the problem is indicative of the deep impression it has made upon him, and the importance of any move to eliminate these conditions. This plan of operation is more than worthy of mature consideration. This move should be of first interest to every woman in Medford and it is hoped they will give it their hearty support by attending the next meeting, Tuesday, August 1, 3 p. m., at the Baptist church.

Temporary officers have been appointed as follows: Miss Emily Stanleyford, president; Mrs. Glasgow, vice-president; Miss May Phipps, secretary; Mrs. Stearns, treasurer.
